DR. BUNDESEN DENIES DRIVE CONDONES VICE

Tribune Finds Wide Open Brothels.

As twenty-three more women, practically all inmates of disorderly houses, appeared at the city health department yesterday for examination for venereal diseases Health Commissioner Bundesen replied to his critics in twenty-five letters defending his methods of dealing with gonorrhea and syphilis.

Among the women who appeared yesterday was a graduate of a university. Six came from one brothel on the south side and three from another house of ill fame on the west side of the city, though the "working addresses" of the women did not come officially before the commissioner.

Men also visited the health department for examination. They were questioned concerning the source of their infection with a view of bringing infected women to the department for inspection, either through police raids or through notification by health officers.

Bundesen Defends Course.

Dr. Bundesen's letters to Arthur Burrage Farwell, president of the Chicago Law and Order league, and Mrs. B. F. Langworthy, acting president of the Woman's City club, were typical of the twenty-five he dictated in defense of his stand in favor of a more general use of prophylaxis and free examinations for "all" citizens who ask for them.

In both letters the commissioner denied that he has an alliance with vice lords and that he is in favor of a segregated district. In the case of Mrs. Langworthy, however, he followed this up by quoting from Sir William Osler, eminent Canadian-American medical authority, as follows:

"The venereal campaign must be a public health question because the nation knows and feels, as we all know and feel, that the moral campaign has failed. The public health campaign may fail, too, but it has never been tried. Give it a chance. The disease is still as rampant as ever it was."

"You, as a leading club woman, know that these social diseases exist," the letter to Mrs. Langworthy says. "I, as a physican, know that they exist, and it is our duty to combat them. They are enemies, and we cannot fight an enemy to advantage in the dark."

Vice Flourishes in City.

Dr. Bundesen's claim that social diseases exist and that they are directly traceable to present vice conditions in Chicago are borne out by investigation.

TRIBUNE investigators yesterday found vice flourishing in Chicago. They found that houses of prostitution are numerous, that certain districts in the south and west side are infested with brothels. This is particularly true of West Madison street and the territory adjacent to 22d and State streets.

Some of the resorts, easily accessible and which THE TRIBUNE investigators had no trouble in locating, are described below:

At 2222 South Wabash avenue is the "Four Deuces"—so called because of the street number. This house is notorious and known the city over.

Two Entrances Available.

That portion of the "Four Deuces" given over to prostitution is on the second floor. Entrance may be made either through a saloon on the first floor or through a doorway leading into a corridor just south of the saloon entrance.

Entering through the saloon one goes through the barroom to the rear behind a partition; thence to the left up a short stairway. This leads into the corridor leading back from the other entrance and to a stairway leading to the second floor, and here is the door leading into the seraglio.

Thirty girls are reported to "work" in the "Four Deuces." The "reception room" is a combination of two rooms in one, with a wide open doorway in between. The place is brilliantly lighted, but otherwise harsh in appearance. There is almost no furniture and the embellishment of the walls is nil. Running practically entirely around the four walls are crude benches.

Forty-three Men in Room.

TRIBUNE investigators counted forty-three men—most of them young men—sitting on the benches around the walls, and a dozen more stood or walked about. Four girls—probably the least busy in the house—were among all these men; the remainder of them were said to be "busy."

An obese, henna haired "madame" sat in a rocking chair—one of the few pieces of furniture in the big

TOWNS RAZED BY MINNESOTA FIRES

Troops Ordered to Help; Many Homeless.

Duluth, Minn., Aug. 17.—Six known dead, hundreds homeless, at least two towns wiped out, and a dozen others in imminent danger was the apparent toll tonight of a series of forest fires which swept northeastern Minnesota today, causing the worst conflagration since 1918, when 400 persons lost their lives.

Official reports tonight were that the towns of Fairbanks, Silver Creek, and Pimio in Lake county, all small settlements, had been destroyed, the refugees mainly fleeing to Two Harbors. Cotton and Central lakes, in St. Louis county, also were reported destroyed.

Fires Reach Wisconsin.

Fires also were reported in Wisconsin, where it was said the city of Drummond, in Bayfield county, was menaced, but telephone communication with that place was interrupted and no details were available here.

With numerous forest fires blazing throughout the wooded areas of northern Minnesota, Gov. J. A. O. Preus tonight personally took charge of the situation, ordering out national guardsmen here for relief duty.

Thousands of volunteer guards battled the flames on the various sectors throughout the forenoon, but the fires leaped past fire lines everywhere about midday. Fighters were forced to flee.

1,000 Men Fighting Fire.

One thousand men were battling a forest fire in the vicinity of Eveleth, on the Mesabi iron range, while 1,800 ore miners were held in readiness to fight the flames should they approach dangerously near the city.

Eveleth, a city of 7,500 population, is protected on the west side by a large open mine, but residents of the city feared the fire might be driven into the town from the south.

Several small settlements near Eveleth and in the fire area are reported in serious danger. The town of Kelsey, forty-five miles northwest of Duluth, is surrounded by fire.

Many Hurt When Trolleys Overturn at Niagara Falls

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 17.—Three trolley cars bound for the Falls, containing excursionists from Washington, Harrisburg, and Baltimore, were wrecked just after midnight. It is not known how many, if any, were killed, but the injured have been removed to hospitals in Buffalo and in Tonawanda and it is estimated the injured will number fifty.

FIREMEN AVERT GIGANTIC BLAST AT PLANT BLAZE

Twenty-four thousands gallons of benzol, enough to "blow up the whole south side," according to the police, were saved from exploding last night by valiant efforts of firemen in a blaze at the municipal reduction plant at Pershing road and Iron street.

The fire started with an explosion caused by spontaneous combustion in the extraction room, where sixty employés were hurled to the floor by force of the blast.

Joseph Pazlik, 3840 South Wood street, was badly burned about the face and body. He was taken to Jefferson hospital.

Brothers-in-Law Fight Over Check; One Is Shot

Harry A. Quinn, 27 years old, 4713 South Karlov avenue, was shot and wounded last night by Frank Masse, 4723 South Keeler avenue, his brother-in-law, following a quarrel over a $40 check which the latter gave Quinn and which was returned marked "insufficient funds." Quinn attempted to force his way into the Masse home and was shot. Masse is being held by the Brighton Park police.

HEAT KILLS SIX; 'COOLER TODAY'

Shift in Winds Gives Hope to Sizzling City.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 17.—Government Meteorologist Clarence J. Root ordered the government outdoor thermometer taken indoors today to save it. The mercury registered 110 in the sun and 98 in the shade, the record for the year.

Six deaths is the toll thus far of the terrific heat wave which has held rule over Chicago for forty-eight hours. Five of the deaths occurred yesterday. A dozen were prostrated seriously.

But there's relief in sight. A sudden shift in winds late last night prompted the weather man to predict "generally fair and cooler today and tomorrow."

List of Deaths.

Yesterday's heat deaths:

FRANK LORD, 72 years old, 612 East 36th street, a watchman employed at Armour institute; fell while walking through the building and died in hospital.

ELIAS EPSTEIN, 931 Margate terrace, overcome on East 51st street and died in Washington Park hospital.

ENITTA GREENSPOON, 3 weeks old, 1311 North Western avenue; died in bed of heat.

WILLIAM CRONE, 819 East 39th street; overcome while working on an elevator for Stearnes & Co., 133 West Lake street.

JOSEPH BEACH, 3603 South Union avenue, patient at Dunning state hospital for insane, prostrated by heat and broke skull in fall.

The sixth death occurred Tuesday night when an unidentified man was found lying in East South Water street.

Yesterday's temperature got up to 90 degrees at 1 o'clock. There was a sharp downpour in various sections of the city that brought the mercury tumbling a couple of points but the relief was only temporary and in another half hour Chicago was panting again.

Drops in Evening.

It was not until 10 o'clock last night that the temperature had got down to 84 degrees. Then came the welcome forecast as to cooler breezes today and tomorrow.

Humidity, in addition to the heat, was high yesterday and it brought misery to the congested districts. Whole families in these districts slept last night in areaways or on the roofs.

Beaches were thronged to the point of discomfort. It is estimated that all records for attendance were broken.

HOPE FOR RAIL PEACE IN SPITE OF DEADLOCK

Executives and Men Meet Again Today.

New York, Aug. 17.—[Special.]—The conference between railroad executives and chiefs of the five train service brotherhoods, began here today in an effort to effect a settlement of the nationwide shopmen's strike, adjourned late this afternoon until tomorrow without reaching any definite conclusion.

Neither the carriers nor the union leaders would discuss the issues involved in the controversy, but it was learned that the question of restoring seniority rights to strikers continued to be the main stumbling block to peace.

Both sides, however, indicated that satisfactory progress was being made in the direction of a settlement.

Talk of General Strike.

Nevertheless reports were current today that the brotherhoods and the non-striking railroad organizations were prepared to force a settlement of the strike, even if it became necessary to resort to a sympathetic walkout. This could not be verified and union leaders declared that "no effort was being made to coerce the railroad executives into a settlement."

It was reported, without confirmation, just before the conference assembled, that one of the railway executives would offer the following plan to settle the seniority question:

Old employés who remained loyal to receive first seniority consideration.

Strikers to return as new men.

Final adjustment of the seniority rights and privileges between new men employed during the strike and strikers returning to work to be made by individual railroad managements along the line of merit or any other basis satisfactory to the individual management and employés on each road.

Cites Former Decisions.

Shortly before 3 o'clock the executives sent out word from the conference room that they wished brought in files containing decisions by the railroad labor board in previous strikes.

One decision was made in connection with the switchmen's strike of 1920. In a decision returned in October of that year the board ruled that the strikers were to be deprived of their seniority rights.

Another decision sought was one made in April, 1921, in connection with a switchmen's strike on southwestern roads, in which strikers also were deprived of their seniority rights.

Cuyler Issues Statement.

The only information given out as to what took place in the conference, held at the offices of the Association of Railway Executives, was contained in the following statement, issued by T. De Witt Cuyler, chairman of the association:

"A conference was held this afternoon between a committee of the carriers and heads of the five train service organizations, who wished it to be distinctly understood that they appeared as mediators of their own motion.

"A discussion of the present railroad situation, so far as it relates to the shop crafts strike, took place. The questions involved were discussed with the honest desire to arrive at a solution of the problem if possible. No definite conclusion was arrived at and the conference adjourned until tomorrow morning."

Jewell Is Optimistic.

Bert M. Jewell, president of the railway employés' department of the American Federation of Labor, who arrived at the head of a delegation of executives of the striking shop crafts unions and nonstriking railroad organizations, asserted that he believed the gathering was working toward a satisfactory solution. He asked newspaper men not to speculate on the issues under discussion, but to await some concrete action or decision.

Officials of the shop crafts unions on strike and of the other railroad unions outside of the five brotherhoods not on strike are holding themselves in readiness for any conferences which the brotherhoods' conference committee may desire in connection with the progress of their efforts to mediate the strike, Mr. Jewell explained.

"Coal Will Win the Strike."

Mr. Jewell, in a formal statement, asserted that the settlement of the coal strike will "to a large degree determine the settlement of the railroad strike," adding:

"The resumption of coal mining and the vastly increased demand for coal resulting in depleted stocks will force the railroads to move more coal in the next few weeks than ever before in history.

"This means a record breaking de-

Pier Bullet Kills Woman on Steamer

During a burst of anti-aircraft gun fire last night from the Municipal pier, aimed in the general direction of an illuminated airplane, Mrs. Evelyn Tamm, a passenger on the steamer Christopher Columbus, was shot and fatally wounded. She died in the St. Luke's hospital several hours later.

About the same time a bullet zipped past the head of Capt. C. E. Moody, master of the vessel, who was on the bridge, and another struck the wheel in the chart house.

The gun was manned by members of the 202nd artillery [anti-aircraft], with headquarters at the Broadway armory. The bullets, it is said, were of wood, coated with phosphorous.

The police, who during the course of an inquiry questioned Mayor Thompson at the pier, are investigating the possibility that some regulation anti-aircraft tracer bullets may have been used by mistake.

Standing on Deck.

Mrs. Tamm, whose home is at 2129 South Trumbull avenue, was standing, with her daughter, Dorothy, and Mrs. Kitty Schrader, 4151 West 42d street, on the starboard side of the steamer as it was passing the pier inbound. Along with nearly 2,000 other passengers, she was watching the fireworks and aerial acrobatics of the plane, given as a part of the Pageant of Progress.

Without warning Mrs. Tamm cried, "I'm shot!" and sank to the deck. Scores of persons went to her aid, and for a moment the commotion on the craft threatened to become serious.

Given First Aid.

Dr. Morris Jacobson, a passenger, gave her first aid and as soon as the Christopher Columbus docked, Mrs. Tamm was taken to the hospital. There it was found a bullet had entered her breast.

Dr. John Dill Robertson, director of the pageant, was notified by the police of the shooting. After a brief investigation he announced that the anti-aircraft gun demonstration had been put on under the auspices of the Uptown Chicago group of business men, to whom yesterday was set apart at the pageant. He said, in announcing his regret at the incident, that he would continue the investigation today.

Repulsing Mock Attack.

The anti-aircraft gun was simulating the repulse of an air attack and the firing was not directly at the lighted airplane, which was being flown by Pilot Jack Miller. The flight of the bullets could plainly be discerned by spectators, although the illuminating element in them apparently had burned itself out when they swept the Christopher Columbus.

Members of the gun squad say, however, no vessel was in sight during the firing.

Mob and Police Sob as Tear Bomb Does the Work

Topeka, Kas., Aug. 17.—A tear bomb was used for the first time here late today by the police in dispersing a crowd of striking shopmen. It dispersed the crowd. Also the police. All were in tears. The use of the tear bomb followed an afternoon meeting of strikers at Ripley park, when the crowd left the park and began to gather up on a viaduct as workmen employed in the Santa Fé shops were passing that point on their return from work.

Child Held for Killing Baby It Quarreled With

Melstone, Mont., Aug. 17.—Adelia Lampe, 8, is held here for shooting and killing Harry Gaylord, aged 3. The children, who lived in adjoining houses, quarreled, it is said, and the little girl shot the baby with a small caliber rifle.

SHE thought of herself as a chicken thief — slinking, witchlike, stealing through the moonlight, calming the dogs that knew and loved her, and quietly, skillfully, obtaining food like any other wild mother.

A BLUE RIBBON short story in Sunday's Tribune

PRESENT FARE CUT OFFER TO STATE BOARD

Rates for Children Are Reduced.

A revolutionary experiment in furnishing the public with unlimited elevated transportation on a weekly payment plan was heralded yesterday in a voluntary petition for a downward revision of rates filed with the Illinois commerce commission by the Chicago Elevated railways.

The plan provides for the sale of weekly transferable passes for $1.25, good between all points south of Howard street, and for $2, good for any points between Chicago and Evanston. The passes are good for as many rides as the holder can crowd into a week, the rate of fare diminishing in proportion to the number of rides taken. A pass may be used by any number of persons, the only stipulation being that not more than one person can ride on the same pass at the same time.

Tried in Small Cities.

Although the plan has been tried successfully in about sixteen smaller cities, this will be the first attempt to experiment with it in a city of over 175,000 population.

Unless estopped by the commerce commission, the plan automatically becomes effective thirty days from the date of filing, Sept. 18.

Under the new plan the cash fare rates—10 cents south of Howard street and 7 cents between that point and Evanston—remain unchanged, but the following reductions are contemplated under the proposed new tariff schedule:

Tickets, good between points south of Howard street, will be sold at the rate of three for 25 cents, instead of four for 35 cents, as at present, a reduction of 8¾ cents to 8 1-3 cents, a saving of .416 cents per ride.

Reduce Evanston Fare.

Tickets, good between Evanston and Chicago, will be sold at the rate of two for 25 cents, instead of 13 cents each as at present, a saving of half a cent a ride.

Children between the ages of 7 and 12 may ride between any points south of Howard street for 3 cents and between any points north of Howard street for the same amount, making a total fare of 6 cents from Chicago to Evanston, as opposed to the full 13 cent ticket rate or 17 cents cash fare rate now charged.

School children, between the ages of 12 and 17, upon presentation of age certificates signed by their teachers may purchase fifty ride coupon books for $2.50, good between any points south of Howard street, and for $4 between Evanston and Chicago. These books, which are good for an indefinite period as long as the coupons last, provide a flat 5 cent fare in the city and an 8 cent fare to Evanston.

Children under 7 years of age, when accompanied by an adult, may ride free, as at present.

Must Ride Often.

For the adult passenger who uses the "L" only in going to and from work—twelve rides a week—the new rate will be $1 instead of $1.05, a saving of only 5 cents, or 4.76 per cent, a week.

A $1.25 pass must be used at least sixteen times before the passenger will effect a saving over the new ticket rate of 8 1-3 cents. If used twenty-five times the fare becomes a nickel; if used 125 times the fare is a penny.

A $2 pass must be used at least seventeen times before the passenger will better the new ticket rate of 12½ cents. The fare becomes 10 cents at twenty rides, 8 cents at twenty-five rides, 6.66 cents at thirty rides, and so on.

On Sale Each Friday.

The passes will be good from midnight Sunday to midnight the following Sunday. They will be placed on sale each Friday, the sale to continue until the following Wednesday, thus giving the company a one day interval, Thursday, to check up sales and prepare for the new issue.

Some of the benefits which are claimed for the new plan are:

No standing in line for tickets and no delay in making change at train time, with a consequent speeding up of service from the passenger's standpoint.

Increase of traffic during the nonrush hours.

Gain in number of "short haul" passengers, who are expected to shift from the surface lines to the "L."

The only stipulation made in connection with the sale of weekly passes will be that no person after passing through a station gate can hand his or her pass back to another passenger. Precautions will be taken to guard against this abuse of the pass, and any person caught violating this rule will have his pass confiscated.

"The rate schedules which have today been filed with the Illinois commerce commission are a result of two years of serious consideration, which I have given to the subject of devising a more satisfactory form of fare on the elevated lines," said Britton I. Budd, president of the company. "I have long wished to see the quantity user given the benefit of a lower rate, which is impossible under the uniform fare system.

"I have given a good deal of thought to the zone system in common use in many European cities, and which has been tried in some of the eastern cities in this country. While the zone system is equitable in that the farther a passenger rides the more he has to pay, still there are practicable objections to its use in Chicago which has been built up under the flat fare system.

"A Business Venture."

"The weekly pass plan, provided for in our new schedule, is based on the principle that the passenger who uses the lines frequently is entitled to a lower rate than the casual rider. The same is true with regard to the new children's rates provided in the schedule.

"The effect which this innovation in local transportation may have in the revenues of the company is problematical. It is a big business venture on which we are taking a chance because we believe it is based on correct principles and will be beneficial to the people now served by our lines and to the companies.

"For that reason we are willing to make the experiment."

Origin of Pass Plan.

The pass plan was worked out by Walter Jackson, fares consultant, of Mount Vernon, N. Y., who first put the plan into operation at Racine, Wis., in the summer of 1919. Fifteen other cities, the largest of which is Youngstown, O., have since adopted the plan with success.

"I have made studies of the systems employed in Europe and Australia and believe this is the best both for the public and the lines," said Mr. Jackson. "The pass has long been used in Europe, but there it is nontransferable and is issued for a period of three months. I believe the week is the smallest possible unit of time on which it can be worked successfully. It should increase the traffic on the elevated lines during the nonrush hours. With transportation costing no more, or rather less, the more rides are used, many persons will use the elevated lines to go home to lunch or to go to restaurants in other parts of the city for their noonday meals.

Expect More Riders.

"Many persons using the street cars for short hauls will now use the 'L' trains. Agents, collectors, inspectors and others whose business takes them to all parts of the city will find that travel may cost them as low as 1 cent a ride. Many more persons will use the elevated roads in the evening than before. A man who works downtown will be much more apt to bring his wife to the loop to attend a movie at night when he figures he has only one cash fare to pay. The company will get many new cash fares under this plan."

About 67 per cent of the elevated passengers buy tickets under the present plan. According to Mr. Jackson, the percentage of ticket purchasers does not run over 50 per cent in any of the other cities in which the pass plan is used.

Halts Ticket Selling.

Judges Fitz Henry, Alschuler, and Wilkerson, sitting en banc, yesterday granted an order relieving street car conductors of the duty of selling tickets on the cars. The order will be issued next week to become effective on Wednesday, contingent, however, upon the Chicago Surface Lines furnishing the court by Monday with a list of all places at which tickets may be purchased by the passengers.

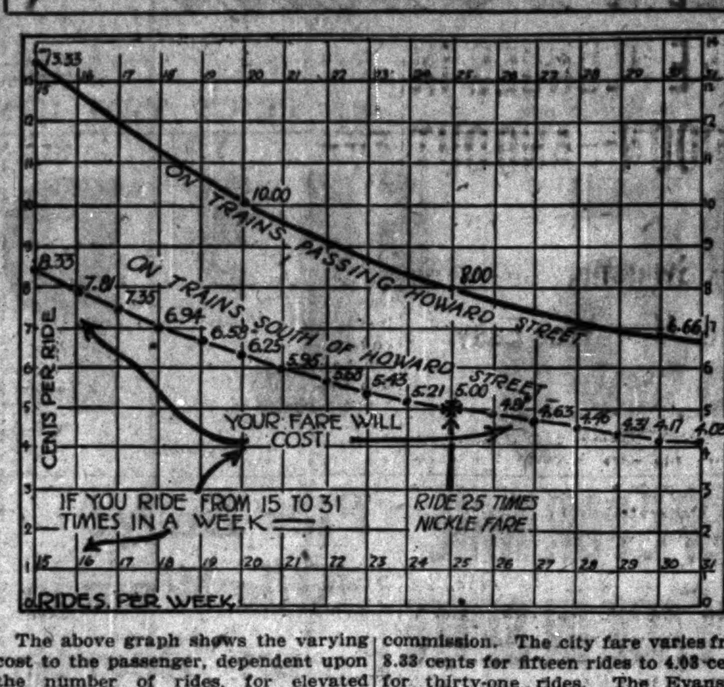
The order was asked for by attorneys for the company and was opposed by Assistant Corporation Counsels Breen and Roberts despite the promise made by Chester E. Cleveland, city hall traction attorney, that the city would agree to the change as an inducement for the men to settle the recent strike.

Mr. Breen argued that the public should be put to no inconvenience through the change, even suggesting that the company should be compelled to establish a ticket agency at every corner at which a street car stops. Corporation Counsel Samuel A. Ettelson also announced he is not in favor of relieving the conductors of the duty of selling tickets despite the city hall's promise at the time the strike was settled.

Requisitions Airship to Carry Delayed Mail

Quincy, Cal., Aug. 17.—An army airplane which arrived here last night was requisitioned early today by the Quincy postmaster to transport first class mail held for several days because of the Western Pacific railroad strike.

HOW "FAMILY PASS" WORKS



The above graph shows the varying cost to the passenger, dependent upon the number of rides, for elevated transportation south of Howard street and between Chicago and Evanston under the weekly pass plan outlined in a petition for revision of rates filed yesterday with the Illinois commerce commission. The city fare varies from 8.33 cents for fifteen rides to 4.03 cents for thirty-one rides. The Evanston rate varies from 13.33 cents for fifteen rides to 6.66 cents for thirty rides. Carried out to 125 rides in the city and 200 rides between the loop and Evanston the rate would be a penny.

ELECTION OF DRY CANDIDATES IS PLEA OF HAYNES

Ocean Grove, N. J., Aug. 17.—Federal Prohibition Commissioner Haynes, in an address delivered tonight under the auspices of the New Jersey council of churches appealed to the country to support in the elections of this year candidates who have "come out wholly and patriotically on the side of law and order."

The commissioner expressed belief that the nineteenth amendment, in giving women the ballot, had made it sure that the eighteenth amendment and the legislation for enforcing it would live on forever without change.

He advised his audience to discount 98 per cent of all remarks and reports of a doubtful nature referring to prohibition law enforcement work unless they were sure of the newspaper printing them or the person giving them utterance. He said his appeal upon taking office fourteen months ago for the press, stage, and screen to lend their aid to the great problem of enforcement had brought pleasing response.

SAMUEL GOSS' WILL DISPOSES OF $340,000 ESTATE

The will of Samuel G. Goss, instrumental in the perfection of the Goss printing press, disposing of an estate valued at over $340,000, was filed for probate yesterday before Assistant Probate Judge Paul Corkell.

Under terms of the will the widow, Mrs. Louise C. Goss of Glencoe, is named as principal beneficiary. A son, Samuel C. Goss Jr., and a daughter, Mrs. Hazel Goss Elliott, will receive equal shares of the stock of the Halsam Products company and also $50,000 each of Goss Printing Press company stock.

The residue of the personal property, together with large holdings of real estate, is placed in trust for the benefit of Mrs. Goss.

INDICT 216 FOR BATTLE AT MINE; 78 FOR MURDER

Wellsburg, W. Va., Aug. 17.—Two hundred and sixteen men were indicted today by the Brooke county grand jury for alleged participation in the battle at the Clifton mine, Cliftonville, on the morning of July 17. Seventy-eight are charged with first degree murder and the rest with conspiracy. All but about fifty of the indicted men are in custody.

Chicago Autoist Fined $10 for Bathing in Lake George

Hammond, Ind., Aug. 17.—[Special.]—"We are Hoosiers, not Missourians," was the laconic comment today of Judge Henry Cleveland in the City court when he fined Joseph Kuhulein $10 for bathing in Lake George nude. Kuhulein is a Chicago autoist.

FINED AT OWN REQUEST.

At his own request William Long, 42 years old and blind, was fined $10 and costs yesterday on disorderly charges by Municipal Judge Emmanuel Eller. Long said he had stolen $21 from his sister and was afraid to go home.

JULY COST OF LIVING HIGHER THAN JUNE; 10 PCT. OVER YEAR AGO

Washington, D. C., Aug. 17.—Wholesale and retail costs of food and other commodities took an upward jump during July, retail prices averaging a 1 per cent increase, while wholesale prices registered a gain of about 3 1-3 per cent, as compared with June prices, the department of labor announced today.

Comparison of wolesale prices in June with those of a year ago indicated, the department said, that the price level advanced about 10 per cent, with fuel and lighting materials registering an increase of 36½ per cent.

The average retail price level was determined, the department stated, by an analysis of prices charged for forty-three food articles by dealers in fifty-one important cities, and, it was explained, the quantity of each article consumed in the average workingman's family also entered into the determination.

The largest increases were noted in granulated sugar, strictly fresh eggs, navy beans, and potatoes.

Fuel and lighting materials registered a 13 per cent increase during the last month, farm products 3 per cent, foodstuffs 1½ per cent, building materials 1¾ per cent, while clothing and metals increased 1 per cent.

CIRCULAR RAPS BLUE SKY LAW; U. S. AID URGED

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 17.—[By the Associated Press.]—Believing an anonymous circular, sent broadcast throughout the state, is an attempt to discredit the Illinois securities act, the so-called blue sky law, Secretary of State Emmerson today asked postal authorities to investigate the source of the circular.

"The circular attacks in violent language the administration of the securities law, the investment bankers association, the Chicago Association of Commerce and an oil company recently accepted under the securities act. It is in the form of a folder, on the back of which is printed in large type:

"Why keep money in the bank at 3 per cent; buy 5 per cent to 7 per cent securities; buy homes or real estate; why not mortgage your home or farm? Get 22 per cent to 44 per cent annual net return. [With money back guarantee], buy oil company stock, approved under the Illinois securities blue sky law [passed to protect investors]."

British Coal Is Arriving in Boston and New York

Boston, Aug. 17.—Forty thousand tons of British coal arrived at this port within the last twenty-four hours on five steamers. Twenty more steamers are now on their way here with about 150,000 tons. The coal arriving today and yesterday was consigned to railroads and public utilities.

New York Gets 72,000 Tons.

New York, Aug. 17.—Three more ships loaded with British mined coal and one from Nova Scotia arrived in New York today with nearly 22,000 tons. Yesterday eight British ships arrived with 50,000 tons.

OUT OF THE DRY TRENCHES BY '24, IS WETS' PROMISE

Make Fight to Elect 'Beer' Congress.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 17.—[Special.]—Beer and light wines within two years and possibly by next summer is the promise held out to the thirsty by the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment, which is organizing throughout the country to carry the congressional election for the consummation of this program.

A change of fifty votes would record the house in favor of 4 or 5 per cent beer and 10 per cent wine, according to the association. The organization's prime aim, therefore, in the November election will be to bring about the return of at least fifty wet congressmen in place of that many dry incumbents. Numerous gains of this character already are being claimed by the association as a result of the primaries.

Wheeler Denies Claim.

Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel for the Anti-Saloon league, disputes this claim. He says it would take a change of more than 100 votes to make the house wet.

"In the primaries up to date," said Mr. Wheeler, "only one dry congressman has been defeated by a recognized wet. That was in the Peoria, Ill., district. Primaries have been held in 256 districts, 227 congressmen being renominated, of whom 178 are drys and 49 wets. The new candidates are dry in the proportion of 2 to 1."

If the wets should win the next congress they would not have an opportunity to move the modification of the Volstead act until a year from next December unless the President should call an extraordinary session.

Arranges Four Referendums.

The association working to restore beer and light wines has arranged for referendums in Illinois, Ohio, Massachusetts, and California. The object is to have the results accepted as instructions by the senators and congressmen for their votes on the question of modifying the Volstead act.

In these and other states the association also is fighting for the return of wet senatrs and representatives.

In Nebraska the prohibition question figures prominently. Senator Hitchcock, Democrat, is wet and R. B. Howell, the Republican candidate, is a dry. Hitchcock appears to have made peace with the Bryans. Charles Bryan is the Democratic candidate for governor and his brother, William Jennings, is reported to be scheduled to speak for the entire ticket.

Senator Reed Is Wet.

Beer and light wines also will be an issue in Missouri, where Senator Reed, Democrat, will take the wet side against R. R. Brewster, who defeated a beer and light wines opponent in the primary.

In Wisconsin a bone dry slate has been put up against La Follette and his associates in the Republican primary and in a majority of the congressional districts prohibition is an issue. In a score of other states and more than 250 districts wet candidates are making campaigns.

Favors 10 Per Cent Limit.

"Congress can amend the Volstead act if it so desires," said Hanson H. Gillett, general counsel of the Anti-Prohibition association, "to prohibit the manufacture and sale of liquors containing more than 7 per cent of alcohol. As a practical measure my contention is that the act should be amended to allow beer of 4 or 5 per cent and wine up to 10 per cent. They are not really intoxicating. Stronger liquors ought to be barred.

"We expect the Republican national organization to dodge the issue and take a stand in favor of enforcement. Everybody favors enforcement. This organization wants the law enforced while it is there, but it can't be enforced. It will probably take some radical disasters at the polls before the Republican organization will see that it cannot fight this fight on the enforcement issue.

Drys Have Advantage.

"Our fight in the dry districts is a difficult one because of the fact that we have no local bases and have to create local organizations. The Anti-Saloon league has an enormous advantage here, because almost every sectarian church in the country forms a local headquarters for it. We are working with the wet leaders in congress and everywhere throughout the country, and believe it is entirely possible for fifty stalwart drys to be thrown out of congress this fall.

"At present 25 per cent of the congressmen are unalterably dry. Twenty-five per cent are openly wet. The remainder are awaiting to see how sentiment develops in their districts. If it develops rapidly enough it is entirely possible that the Volstead act will be amended by next summer. This would bring back wholesome beer and wines and destroy the bootleggers."

Congress Wet, He Says.

Congressman Volk of Brooklyn said that there was a majority in congress already in favor of modifying the Volstead act, provided the congressmen would vote as their consciences dictated.

"The Volstead act would be repealed this fall if the congressmen all voted the way they drink," he said. "That act of bigotry would not remain on the statute books more than a few weeks longer if they had the courage of their thirst. The strong indications of a reaction against the Volstead act will cause a great increase of wet strength, but I doubt if it will be modified by next summer.

"It may take some landslides in favor of light wines and beer. I think the next modification will probably permit 2.75 per cent beer and light wines."

DANCING DAD DESERTS THEM

MRS. ROSINE H. KELLEY AND BARBARA ANNE.

MAN ABOUT TOWN LEAVES WIFE AND BABY TO DANCE

"When a family interferes with my dancing, I give up the family," are the remarks credited to Clarke Mansur Kelley, salesman, "man about town," and idol of the fair habitués of loop hotel ballrooms, according to Mrs. Rosine H. Kelley, 4740 Lake Park avenue.

As a result of the warrant charging him with nonsupport, issued yesterday by Municipal Judge William L. Morgan, Kelley will for the first time see his year old daughter, Barbara Anne, who was born after he left his wife. Kelley, it is alleged, has ignored the existence of the child.

Mrs. Kelley, accompanied by her attorneys, William L. Sullivan and Harry J. Busch, appeared yesterday before Judge Timothy D. Hurley, seeking an order of contempt against Kelley for failure to pay alimony awarded Mrs. Kelley by Judge Joseph Sabath. The order was denied by Judge Hurley and the issuance of a nonsupport warrant followed.

CALL GRAND JURY TO PROBE HERRIN MINE MASSACRE

Meets Aug. 28; Brundage Will Assist.

Marion, Ill., Aug. 17.—[By the Associated Press.]—A summons for a special grand jury to investigate the recent mine massacre near here was issued late this afternoon by Judge Dewitt T. Hartwell of Williamson county Circuit court to convene here Monday, Aug. 28. It was said the special grand jury was called at the request of Attorney General Brundage of Illinois.

Judge Hartwell announced that the grand jury summons would be served by a special deputy instead of by Sheriff Melvin Thaxton, and that the body will be composed of representative citizens from throughout Williamson county.

Brundage to Assist.

Attorney General Brundage, Judge Hartwell said, expects to come to Marion, if possible, to present to the grand jury in person the evidence which he and a corps of operatives have gathered in the last two months, but if he cannot come he will send his ablest assistant to aid State's Attorney Delos Duty to present the evidence.

The evidence which has been collected against participants in the massacre of nineteen nonunion workers at the strip mine of the Southern Illinois Coal company, six miles west of here, has not as yet been turned over to State's Attorney Duty, he announced tonight.

He asserted that the special grand jury also would inquire into the mine riots on June 21, the day preceding the massacre, in which three union coal miners were wounded and later died of their injuries.

The state's attorney said he expected to be given the evidence shortly, in time to permit him to prepare the case for the grand jury.

Evidence Gathered Quietly.

Attorney General Brundage and officials of "Bloody" Williamson county have been quietly gathering evidence since the riots occurred. It is said that many participants in the massacre are known and that several suspects have been traced to other states.

The attorney general had offered $1,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the participants. The Chamber of Commerce of Chicago has appealed to chambers of commerce throughout Illinois to subscribe to $25,000 fund, to be used by Mr. Brundage in the prosecution of those responsible for the riots.

EXPECT BRITTEN TO ASK CONGRESS QUIZ IN RUM PLOT

Plan Drastic Step to End Attacks on Big Men.

BY PHILIP KINSLEY.

Investigation yesterday of the federal whisky plot story told by Joseph A. Tatro, former government intelligence officer, into which the names of Senator William McKinley and his secretary, Chester Willoughby, were drawn, substantiated the story in its main lines, but failed to develop any evidence implicating Senator McKinley. Tatro again denied that he had connected the senator with the plot to clean up $200,000 in the whisky deal.

It was reported that a commission of two men has been appointed in Washington to gather evidence from clippings and other sources regarding "poison stories" reflecting on the character of prominent men, given out at the instance of subordinates in the government service, and that steps are contemplated to put an end to this growing practice. Representative Fred A. Britten of Chicago is scheduled to make a speech on the subject on the floor of congress on Aug. 25. He is expected to demand a congressional investigation.

Forged Permit Basis of Plot.

Inquiry at the federal building developed that the basis of the Chicago plot was a forged permit issued at the office of Charles A. Gregory, Illinois prohibition director. Several investigations have been started and passed from department to department. It is plain that some one of power was concerned in the affair and succeeded in sidetracking these investigations before they came to a head.

The situation as revealed yesterday was this:

There was a plot to remove 1,900 cases of whisky from the Central Cold Storage warehouse under a forged permit.

The forging of the permit makes it look like an "inside job" in the office of the Illinois prohibiton director.

The men behind the deal put up at least $55,000 to carry it through and went through an elaborate deceit which, federal agents said, would have done credit to "Yellow Kid" Weil.

The plot failed at the last moment, and the whisky was not removed from the warehouse.

Brokers Held Up; Papers Stolen.

In order to get back papers and letters and special delivery envelopes from the prohibition director's office, which would have revealed the men in the plot, the office of Schwarzhaupt & Co., 220 South State street, brokers in the transaction, were held up and the papers stolen.

Investigation ordered by Mr. Gregory was carried to a certain point by Joe F. Clark and then passed on.

Investigation carried on to another point by A. R. Harris of Division 11, general prohibition agents, under Col. L. G. Nutt, was also passed on.

Investigation carried on by the bureau of investigation of the department of justice by Agent Plummer was also passed on.

Investigation carried on by Special Agent Tatro resulted in his dismissal. Some one was involved whose name caused a pause in activities in various offices. That it was Senator McKinley is now denied. This is stated flatly by Tatro, his chief, David Nolan, Agent Harris, and the department of justice.

Just how Mr. Willoughby's name came to be connected with the case, and through that the name of Senator McKinley, is indicated in a statement made yesterday by Mr. Gregory.

Gregory Issues Statement.

About the 17th of April, it appears, at the time the whisky plot was discovered, Gregory and Willoughby had adjoining rooms at the Hamilton club. They often used to take breakfast together, and were in and out of each other's rooms. Mr. Gregory said he recalled that when he was informed of an attempt to move a large quantity of liquor last April from a public warehouse he ordered investigators to the scene and they were shown a "carrier's permit" which they brought to him as he was at breakfast with Willoughby. He said a glance at the signature showed him it was a forgery and that Willoughby also pronounced it forged.

"This is absolutely the only knowledge Mr. Willoughby had of the case," Mr. Gregory continued, "and how his name and that of Senator McKinley could have been drawn into the story is beyond my understanding. In my judgment Senator McKinley is wholly in ignorance as to the case, and it is outrageous that his name should be drawn into it."

Denies Mention of McKinley.

Tatro, who has been hired as an investigator by Hinton G. Clabaugh, special investigator for the department of justice committee that is engaged in taking over the federal building, in denying he had ever involved Senator McKinley, said:

"Never in my connections with assistant district attorneys or with subordinates have I had occasion to name Senator McKinley," he said. "I should not say the same of Willoughby.

"I was called to Washington to be asked if I had made accusations against Senator McKinley. I denied this emphatically. I was not accorded the chance usually given a yellow dog. The charges were sustained and I was discharged.

"I would gladly go on with this investigation if I am wanted, and would not ask for a place on the federal pay roll. I am through with that. I will give my services to Mr. Clabaugh if he wishes me to work. I am through with the government work and want to retire to private life."

Claims Permit Bona Fide.

Emil Schwarzhaupt, the whisky broker in the case, declared yesterday the permit which was presented to him was "bona fide, I know, because it was sent back to the prohibition office for verification and was verified and I had the envelopes and registered letter receipts to show that it came from that office."

This permit was signed by Mr. Gregory, who explained yesterday that there have been several forgeries of permits. Hundreds pass through the office every day. It is not an unusual day when 2,000 cases of whisky and 8,000 gallons of wine are moved under permit.

Various clerks have had the job of signing his name to permits. Four permits are given in each case. The warehouse has to have one permit. This was given in this case and was verified by the warehouse through registered mail from the prohibition office.

Mum in Washington.

Internal revenue and prohibition officials in Washington refused to discuss the Tatro case yesterday. Acting Internal Revenue Commissioner Smith said that he had taken the matter to Secretary of the Treasury Mellon and that at the secretary's suggestion it was decided that nothing officially should be said.

It was learned that when Tatro was called to Washington and denied having circulated stories connecting Senator McKinley with the scandal, the senator was not satisfied and claimed to have proof of Tatro's actions. He demanded his discharge and the discharge was ordered. Mr. Willoughby, the senator's secretary, would not talk about the case at all.

Harris Tells of Inquiry.

Agent Harris in Chicago, said the Tatro charges were given to his office for investigation.

"We carried the case on until I became convinced that the bureau of investigation of the department of justice could do better work," he said. "I never connected Senator McKinley with it. It led to certain persons but there was no proof. Senator McKinley was not one of these persons."

Mr. Clabaugh said in connection with his act in hiring Tatro:

"An investigation is due Senator McKinley to exonerate him completely if he is not guilty and to settle his responsibility if he is guilty. His name has never been mentioned to me in connection with any law violation."

Watlings Will Rewed Dec. 25; Youth Departs

Mrs. Mayme Thorne Watling and the husband she divorced a week ago, Frank Watling, will be married again Dec. 25. Last night Mrs. Watling, widow of Raymond Thorne, son of the late vice president of Montgomery Ward & Co., saw her recent husband off for California and kissed him good-by.

"I'm going into the real estate business out there and make good," said Watling as he boarded the train. "My wife will come out and we'll be married Christmas day."

RECREANT GYPSY QUEEN IS NABBED; KING'S ROLL GONE

Frank Elie, king of a tribe of gypsies camped near 49th street and South Avers avenue, left last night to reclaim his queen, Anna, and the young prince and princess. Also he hopes to get some of his $2,000 with which he alleges his wife decamped to proclaim lealty to a rival crown.

According to Marion, O., police, Mrs. Elie was with him at a carnival of gypsies in Ohio. After the carnival was over the king found himself bereft of wife, children, and roll.

Her new friends took Mrs. Elie and started to Shelby, O. Late last night one of the gypsy men threw one of Mrs. Elie's children out of the caravan and she promptly had him arrested. The Shelby police phoned to Marion and were told to hold Mrs. Elie until her husband arrived.

The gypsy woman said a "spell had been woven" over her, but denied taking her husband's money.

LLOYD GEORGE BEGINS WORK ON $450,000 BOOK

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

LONDON, Aug. 17.—Prime Minister Lloyd George is beginning to work on his new book. During his vacation at his Welsh home he will write a considerable portion of his memoirs, which THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE and other American papers will publish.

Winston Churchill, colonial secretary, also is writing his memoirs, which he is under contract to complete by the end of the year.

Mr. Churchill will receive $100,000 for his book, which will be published early in 1923, while the prime minister's book will net him nearly $450,000.

ALTON RAILROAD CONTRACTS FOR OIL ENGINE FUEL

Monterey, Mex., Aug. 16.—[Special.]—That the coal strike in the United States may cause the northern railroads to turn to the use of fuel oil in their engines was indicated today when the Chicago and Alton railroad, through J. R. Belmont of Chicago, closed a contract with the Metlaltoyuca Coffee Growers and Oil association for the purchase of 25,000 barrels of oil a day from its new well in the Tuxpam region at a stipulated price of 68 cents a barrel. Indications are that delivery will begin as soon as pipe line connections can be made with ocean loading terminals.

JAPAN TAKES STEPS TO CARRY OUT NAVY LIMITATION TREATY

Washington, D. C., Aug. 17.—[By the Associated Press.]—Preparatory operations for carrying into effect provisions of the Washington treaty for limitation of navel armament insofar as they apply to scrapping of vessels as announced by the navy department in Tokio, were made public tonight by the Japanese embassy. The plans follow:

"1. Aki and Satsuma to be transferred to Yokosuka, where they are to be scrapped.

"2. Katori and Kashima to be sent to Kure, where their turrets are to be landed and then to come to Maizuru, where they are to be scrapped.

"3. Kurama to have its turrets landed at Kure and then to be sent to Sasebo, where it is to be scrapped.

"4. Ikoma to have its turrets landed at Yokosukra and then to be sent to Sasebo, where it is to be scrapped.

"5. Part of operations preparatory to scrapping of war vessels to be scrapped under naval treaty other than those mentioned in foreging to be carried out at naval stations to which they respectively belong.

"6. War vessels preparatory operations on which as above mentioned have been completed are to wait for further orders until coming into force of naval treaty."

FIELD OF SOLID ICE FOUND NEAR SAN BERNARDINO

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 17.—A glacier has been discovered in the San Bernardino mountains in San Bernardino county, 100 miles east of Los Angeles, in a region never suspected of harboring a field of ice, according to word brought here by F. G. Leonard and S. C. Freefield, business associates of this city.

They described the glacier as comprising a field of solidified snow, about a quarter mile long, varying from 75 to 150 in width and from 15 to 20 feet in depth. At its base, they stated, there was a grotto or ice cave, from which flows Barton creek.

"We were on a recreation trip," they said, "when we chanced upon the glacier. We came upon it by following up Barton creek. The terminal moraine is beautiful. The stream has tunneled underneath the snow and ice and flows out of a great arch."

Plane Drops Into Lake; Yes, 'Twas an Airboat

Dozens of excited Hyde Park women called the police early last night to notify them that an airplane had fallen into the lake off Jackson park. By the time the police arrived the plane had flown off. It was a seaplane, flying from the pier, and the pilot, Ray Applegate, had simply alighted on the water for the delectation of spectators on shore.

WEDDING PERMIT BARES ROMANCE OF STEEL MAN

A pretty romance, involving a young official of the Inland Steel company and a Chicago girl, was revealed yesterday when it became known that a marriage license was procured at Valparaiso, Ind., Wednesday by Clifford A. Jaeger, 22 year old son of Robert Jaeger, Chicago manufacturer, and Miss Dorothy Birr, 18, daughter of Mrs. Louis G. Birr, 2647 North Troy street.

Mr. Jaeger, when qeustioned at the steel company's offices at 35 South Dearborn, admitted the taking out of the license, but declined to furnish further particulars. Even less information was forthcoming at the Birr home.

Louis G. Birr Jr., a brother, said he knew of the friendship between his sister and young Mr. Jaeger, but knew nothing of the license.

Mrs. Birr was likewise reticent. Miss Birr, it was said, was "not at home."

Veteran, Deserted by Wife, Shoots Himself

Daniel Turney, 1352 West Monroe street, war veteran, employed as a watchman by the Chicago and Western Indiana railroad at West Roosevelt road and Federal street, while despondent over desertion of his wife, fired a shot into his left side last night when at work. He was taken to the County hospital, where his condition is said to be serious.

Circus Lion, Locked in Box Car, Dies from Heat Wave

New York, Aug. 17.—When employés of the Long Island railroad opened a box car in the railroad yards today they found a dead circus lion. The animal had roared lustily late yesterday and employés, who opened the car and allowed more air to circulate in his cage, said the intense heat undoubtedly caused death.

TOLD TO GET JOB, WIFE PLUNGES IN LAGOON—AND OUT

Good Swimmer, Changing Her Mind Was Easy.

Frederick Tittman, a machinist living with his wife, Ida, 19 years old, in a little room at 608 Belden avenue, fought desperately to keep himself and his new bride from want on $32 a week.

Yesterday he gave up the battle. "You used to work in Czchecko-Slovakia," he told his wife, "and it won't be new to you. You want pretty things and I want you to have them, but I can't earn them for you. Why don't you go to work as a nurse?"

There were tears, but he went on to work. Last night when he came home neighbors told him his wife had gone to Lincoln Park lagoon with the intention of diving to her death.

By the time the frantic husband arrived at the lagoon it was all over. Ida had started to carry out her threat, but when the water closed over her she had a change of heart and started for the shore. Police helped her out.

"And the funny part of it is that she has a medal as an expert swimmer," mused Tittman, as he and his dripping wife went home.

SEEKS SIZE OF HIS INCOME TAX BEFORE WEDDING

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 17.—[United News.]—She seemed very shy and demure and guileless as she approached George M. Foots, deputy internal revenue collector here.

"I want to see the income tax report of Mr. James ———," she said.

"Are you related to him?" inquired Foots.

A series of the well known girlish giggles and then:

"Well—no, at least not yet, but I'm going to be if he's making as much money as he says he is."

Mr. Foots choked and regretfully refused the request.

"You horrid men will stick together, won't you?" she flung over her shoulder.

Freight Car "Looters" Prove to Be Only Tramps

Dozens of suburban and railroad police along the "Soo" line between here and Kolze, Ill., were rushed in special engines to River Forest and Forest Park late last night on a report that three freight cars had been looted of all their contents.

Investigation proved that a cab driver had seen tramps riding in the open door of an "empty" and had spread a wild alarm.

Convention Doorkeeper Troup Dies in Springfield

Springfield, O., Aug. 17.—Alonzo (Toppy) Troup, 72, local business man, who attended all of the Republican national and state conventions since 1876, serving officially as doorkeeper at them, dropped dead today of apoplexy. Mr. Troup gained a large acquaintance nationally through his attendance at the political conventions.

Pioneer Woman of Ann Arbor, Mich., Is Dead

Ann Arbor, Mich., Aug. 17.—[Special.]—Mary Sullivan, a pioneer of Washtenaw county, died here today. She was the mother of E. J. Sullivan of Chicago and P. J. Sullivan of New Orleans. Mrs. Sullivan was born in Castle Island, Ireland, in 1833.

4 CONVICTS FLEE; TAKE WARDEN AS BULLET SHIELD

First Stir Riot in South Dakota Prison.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Aug. 17.—[By the Associated Press.]—Warden George T. Jameson of the South Dakota penitentiary here, who was kidnaped by four prisoners who escaped from the institution late today, was left in a church near Crooks, S. D., tonight, his hands and feet bound. The warden was able to extricate himself after a short time and immediately reported to the penitentiary that he was safe.

The quartet had knifed Deputy Warden Arthur Muchow in a wild battle before they fled in a motor car parked by a tourist just outside the prison.

Several posses of state, county, and city officers, aided by members of the local post of the American Legion, immediately started in pursuit. Tonight the prisoners had not been overtaken.

Start Row in Advance.

The only trace of the fleeing men was contained in a report from Ellis, where they stopped and stole another car, presumably in hopes of avoiding detection.

The four men, whose names are Henry Coffee, Joe Foreman, Joe Teel, and J. B. King, were serving sentences for grand larceny. Coffee is colored.

The four men started a commotion in the tailor shop at the prison this afternoon and Deputy Muchow hurried to the room. The convicts attacked him with knives which they had obtained from some unknown source. He resisted and was badly cut up.

Force Warden to Lead Way.

Warden Jameson was in his office at the time and, hearing the noise in the shop, hastened down. The men overpowered him and at the point of their knives, forced him to lead the way through the prison gates to the outside after they had thrown Deputy Muchow and a guard into a cell.

Reaching the garden just outside the prison they leaped into the automobile and sped north. A guard on the wall, noticing them, fired a shot, but feared to aim directly at the occupants because of the warden's presence in the car.

WALSH CASE TO GO TO JURY LATE THIS AFTERNOON

The case of Roy Shields, Thomas Walsh, Frank Hayes and Patrick Kane, labor business agents, accused of extortion from builders and contractors, will go to the jury late today. It is expected final arguments will be finished by 5 o'clock. Judge Oscar M. Torrison in whose court the case is on trial, announced he would hold a night session tonight if arguments were not completed at the usual closing hour.

Yesterday's session was taken up with the testimony of character witnesses, both for and against the defense, and a few minutes by the state's rebuttal. Among witnesses who testified as to the character of the state's witnesses were Moses E. Greenebaum, president of the bank bearing his name, and George N. Neise, vice president of the Foreman Brothers banking company.

CURBING OF COAL PROFITEERING UP TO EACH STATE

Hoover Outlines Plan in Fuel Crisis.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 17.—[Special.]—Coal profiteering, which occurs with the states would be left to the control of state authorities, according to plans of the federal government, Secretary of Commerce Hoover announced today.

The coal price fixing legislation which congress will be asked to enact will extend only to fuel moving in interstate commerce, Mr. Hoover asserted. The best advices of the administration, he declared, are that the federal government might control the price of coal delivered to the state line, but that the restrictions on speculation, dealings on margins, and the operations of wholesalers and retailers must be accomplished by the states themselves.

States to Have Free Hand.

The devices to be adopted to fix coal prices until production reaches a point where control will no longer be necessary, he stated, would be left to congress, but with some machine created for federal control the way would be made clear for the states to handle their own problem within their boundaries.

With production in large proportions in the union fields, Mr. Hoover declared, it was probable that the voluntary price agreement now in effect would be foregone. There would then be, he said, between seventy-five and eighty districts to hold in line which would be practically impossible in view of the difficulties experienced with the small number of fields now under fair price maximums.

Good Showing on Price Fixing.

Nevertheless, Mr. Hoover asserted, the fair price agreements so far have resulted in a remarkable showing, as 75 per cent of the coal now moving was moving at fair prices of from $2.20 to $2.75 a ton at the mines. The other 30 per cent, he added, was causing the trouble and charges of profiteering, while the operators sticking to the fair prices were denying themselves between $8 and $10 a ton in order to continue their coöperation with the federal government during the emergency.

"With the resumption of mining," Mr. Hoover said, "the price situation will be quickly over. While there will be some control of distribution and prices necessary temporarily, the matter will quickly adjust itself."

Spencer Explains Coal Needs.

According to Federal Fuel Distributor Spencer, the country would require a weekly production of approximately 10,000,000 tons of coal, about four-fifths bituminous and one-fifth anthracite, to provide for its needs during the winter and enable some fuel to be stocked.

Indications that the coal settlement at Cleveland will soon be general were contained in a telegram to President Harding from New York last night by A. M. Ogle, president of the National Coal association.

Talk Peace in Anthracite Fields.

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 17.—[Special.]—Anthracite operators and miners met today, spent three hours chiefly in a discussion of arbitration and adjourned to meet again tomorrow, after President Lewis of the union had rejected the proposal of the operators that any agreement to be made here include an arbitration clause.

"There can be no arbitration," he said. "Our position on this point is definite and absolute."

The question of how long any agreement made here is to run was raised. The miners indicated an agreement running to April 1, as in the case of the soft coal miners, would not be entirely satisfactory, while the operators let it be known they would like an agreement "for a term of years," if "arrangements can be made for adjustments at reasonable periods."

PLUMB PLAN PUT FORWARD AGAIN IN RAIL STRIKE

Shopmen Use It as Basis of Wage Argument.

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

Why cut the railroad shopmen's wages to pay dividends on billions—not millions, but billions—of dollars of railway securities, which represent no actual investment?

The striking shopmen claim that is being done. They make the charge. They ask the question. They insist it is proper.

The query originated undoubtedly in the discussion of the Glenn E. Plumb plan for governmental ownership of the roads. The union employés of the railroads used this idea when the Plumb plan was first made public and they are using it now.

Claim Cut Unnecessary.

Some of them earnestly and conscientiously contend that if the Plumb plan had been adopted this wage cut would not have been necessary, and in addition, freight rates could have been reduced 5, 8, or perhaps 10 per cent. This could have been done, in their opinion, because under the Plumb plan it is "claimed that "the public will not have to pay dividends on watered stock." The saving has been estimated by the railway employés at more than $800,000,000 annually.

They pay cut was ordered by the federal railroad labor board. B. M. Jewell, for the shopmen, has told the railway executives that the findings of this board were and are objectionable. He went on: "They amount to nothing more than a proposal on the part of six members of the labor board that the employés should accept unjust and unreasonable wages as their acquiescence in the program of the Association of Railway Executives to pay returns on billions of dollars of railway securities, representing no actual investment, and to reimburse the railroads for losses caused by present and past inefficiency in operation and dishonesty in financial management, by denying to railway employés a fair return upon the investment of their life and labor in the transportation industry."

"Four Corners" of Plan.

While Mr. Jewell was a member of the executive committee of the Plumb Plan league, which is largely composed of the railway unions, it issued a pamphlet setting out "the four corners of the Plumb plan" as follows:

"Railroads are overcapitalized—hence freight and passenger rates are exorbitant, wages inadequate, and service unsatisfactory.

"Purchase the railroads for the actual amount invested to afford public service as determined judicially, recognizing no fictitious securities, no discounts, and no improvements paid for out of earnings or by the public.

"Substitute for the present Wall street control the unhampered management of trained officials and employés—the most intelligent and efficient transportation organization in the world.

"Pay capital a fair and fixed return on the dollars actually invested in railroad property and divide savings effected by economy and efficiency between the public and the operating organization—share and share alike."

"Penalties of Inflation."

This same pamphlet makes this further comment upon "the property investment account" of the railroads:

"It is a bookkeeping term used to cover up the billions of watered stock and billions of fictitious values upon which Wall street demands that labor and the public shall pay tribute. Inflated capitalizations, if officially recognized by congress, will call for inflated earnings. These can only be produced by higher (freight) rates or reduced wages and inferior service."

In discussing acquisition of the railroads by the government, the pamphlet asks, "Will the public pay for watered stock?" and then replies, as follows:

"No. The public will probably pay less than two-thirds of what the railroads claim as their value."

The railroad securities outstanding are about twenty-one billion dollars. But the Plumb Plan league uses a sum three billion less in its calculations, so the league thinks that the government could acquire the properties for twelve billion or less.

mand for cars, and in the face of this demand there is at the present time a record breaking shortage of good order coal equipment. The railroads will be required by urgent necessity to repair their coal cars in the shortest possible time."

TO GO BEFORE NATION

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., Aug. 17.—[Special.]—President Harding decided tonight to address congress on the industrial crisis confronting the country because of the railroad and coal strikes.

Having postponed delivery of his message one day to give the mediation conference at New York between railroad executives and brotherhoods officials a chance, the President decided this evening that his address would be timely, despite the New York negotiations.

Will Recommend Legislation.

Preparation of the President's address was completed tonight, and it was sent to the government printing office. It was learned this evening that the address would contain recommendations for congressional legislation. This caused some surprise.

It was the understanding that while the President would suggest legislative remedies to deal more effectively with the situation produced by the protracted strike of coal miners, he would confine his statement in regard to the railway strike to a review of the menace to the country's welfare through the hampering of the country's rail transportation.

At the same time the President has indicated all along that he believed the Esch-Cummins transporation act should be amended, at least to the extent of providing that the railway labor wage board, created by the act, should have its headquarters in Washington instead of Chicago.

In Closer Touch.

The President has expressed the opinion that in order to accomplish the purposes for which the wage board was created it was essential that its members should be in close touch with the interstate commerce commission and other governmental activities dealing with railroads.

Whether the President will go beyond this in his recommendation of congressional legislation has not appeared. He has felt that the wage board would be more effective if it had wide authority, although he has said nothing to indicate that he favored investing it with authority to make its decrees compulsory.

Board Has no Powers.

Under the transportation act the wage board has no power to enforce its rulings as to wages and the regulation of employment in railway establishments. All it can do is to hear both sides and ask them to accept its rulings.

In the President's opinion the voice of the wage board is the voice of the government and a moral obligation rests upon both railroad companies and their employés to accept its decisions.

MARY BAKER'S WEDDING ONCE MORE DELAYED

[Copyright: 1922: By The Chicago Tribune.]

LONDON, Aug. 17.—[By Tribune Wireless.]—The wedding of Allister McCormick and Mary Landon Baker has again been postponed. A TRIBUNE representative saw Mr. McCormick today at the Manor house, Abingdon, Oxfordshire, which has been hired for the summer by Mrs. Baker. He said the wedding would not take place before the end of September, but declined to discuss the reason for a further postponement.

Miss Baker and her mother are not at Abingdon, but are expected in London early next week.

It was generally understood that the much postponed wedding—once halted at a church altar in Chicago—was to have been solemnized today.

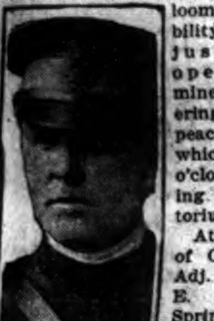
MAY CALL TROOPS TO GUARD COAL TRAINS IN STATE

Black Demands Reports on Outrages.

Calling out of state troops to patrol five of the large coal producing counties of the state loomed as a possibility last night just as Illinois operators and miners were gathering here for the peace conference which opens at 10 o'clock this morning at the Auditorium hotel.



ADJ. GEN. BLACK.

At the request of Gov. Small, Adj. Gen. Carlos E. Black, at Springfield, telegraphed the sheriffs of Jackson, Perry, St. Clair, Monroe, and Randolph counties demanding that they take immediate steps to stop miners and strike sympathizers in those districts from sidetracking and burning nonunion mined Kentucky coal en route to points in Missouri.

The demand of the adjutant general for immediate reports to the governor as to what steps are being taken by county authorities to prevent recurrence of interruption of coal traffic is taken to mean that troops will be called out if conditions are not changed.

Daugherty Sifting Case.

At Washington Attorney General Daugherty also announced he was "giving attention" to refusal of workers on the Chicago and Eastern Illinois railroad at Cypress, Ill., to move nonunion coal from Kentucky and Alabama, a violation of the interstate commerce laws. Gov. Small also notified the Missouri Fuel Distribution company of St. Louis that he would ask Attorney General Brundage to take steps to prevent interference with coal shipments from Illinois to Missouri.

The situation is said to be critical in the counties named where miners are reported not only to have set out cars of nonunion coal and burned them, but to have posted signs forbidding train crews to handle them. The Chicago and Eastern Illinois railroad is said to be practically out of coal on this account, according to officials. Trainmen are said to have refused to handle what nonunion fuel it has at Cypress.

Complaints were received by the governor from E. N. Norris, vice president of the Mobile and Ohio railroad; E. J. Wallace of the Missouri coal distribution commission, and E. L. Kimmel, assistant general manager of the Missouri-Illinois railroad.

The message sent by Adjt. Gen. Black went to Sheriffs James W. Gibson at Murphysboro; Thomas H. Thimmig, Pinckneyville; Ernest Leohr, Monroe county; James McGuire, Randolph county, and the sheriff of St. Clair county.

Hope for Settlement.

Although the views of the miners and operators appear to be widely divergent, both sides expressed the hope last night that a settlement of the controversy will grow out of today's meeting.

Although the operators, at a brief meeting at the Great Northern yesterday, reaffirmed their stand for arbitration, and Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois miners, has announced the union never will yield on this point, indications last night were that the operators may recede from their position if certain other considerations are granted by the men.

It is not believed, however, that the first meeting will result in an agreement. President Farrington has announced the miners will offer to accept a settlement on no other basis than the Cleveland agreement. On the other hand he has predicted that this agreement will be rejected by the Illinois miners when it is brought to a referendum vote.

Miners May Convene.

It is likely that if nothing is accomplished here at this time, a state convention of the miners will be called at which President Farrington will submit a report of what transpired at Cleveland and outline the situation as it stands in Illinois. If he is able to show the miners that no agreement can be reached in this state on the basis of the Cleveland conference, then the convention could authorize him to proceed with the negotiation of a separate state agreement along any plan that might be suggested.

President Farrington probably will preside at today's meeting and C. E. McLaughlin of Springfield, secretary of the operators' association for central Illinois, will act as secretary.

Dr. F. C. Honnold, secretary of the Illinois Coal Operators' association, refused to make any predictions concerning today's meeting or to comment on it at all until the operators are formally presented with the miners' proposition. W. K. Kavanaugh, president of the operators' association for the Fifth and Ninth districts, also declined to make any forecasts. He declared that too much already has been said by both sides and that it is better that operators and miners approach the conference with open minds.

Gov. Small let another day go by without appointing a committee to supervise the rationing of coal in Cook county. Robert M. Medill, state fuel administrator, continued to issue as many priority orders as he could pass upon personally. Already approximately 500 orders have been issued for some 300,000 tons of coal.

"How much of this we can get remains to be seen," he said.

CAN'T DRAFT MUSCLE OR INCREASE ARMY IN STRIKES, WEEKS TOLD

Washington, D. C., Aug. 17.—[Special.]—The President of the United States has no authority to draft citizens in time of peace for the purpose of operating the railroads, nor has the secretary of war any authority to recruit the army up to war strength, Secretary of War Weeks declared today.

The secretary stated this view was founded on an opinion rendered by the judge advocate general of the army upon the specific request of Mr. Weeks himself.

The war secretary denied, however, that his request for an opinion had any connection with a government plan for drafting men to operate and safeguard the transportation arteries of the country. No such plan was under contemplation by the administration so far as he was aware, he said.

The judge advocate general did not deliver an opinion as to the constitutionality of any law that might be passed by congress authorizing the President to draft men in time of peace.

Arbitration Big Barrier in Coal Conference Today

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

Arbitration is the chief barrier to settlement of the coal strike in Illinois, which mines over 15 per cent of the bituminous output of America. Separate state agreements between the producers and miners is a second preponderant issue.

Whether peace will emerge from today's joint conference of operators and union chiefs at the Auditorium, depends largely, so producers said yesterday, upon these two main questions:

1. Have the miners in Illinois won the strike as yet?

2. Will the general public with its coal bins empty and frost approaching, side with the miners and yell for acceptance of the agreement made at Cleveland Tuesday between the United Mine workers and producers of some 60,000,000 of tonnage?

Farrington's Proposals.

At the conference today, Frank Farrington, head of the Illinois miners, will ask the operators to make a state contract on the basis of the Cleveland agreement. The Illinois operators who did not participate in the Cleveland conference say they are in no wise bound to anything it did.

They point out that the Cleveland peace terms are against arbitration and separate state agreements, the two chief points on which Illinois and Indiana producers have insisted. What they want is permission for each state to deal directly in operators-miners' bargaining.

Farrington for Separate Peace.

Mr. Farrington since March has urged separate state settlements—this method has been followed five times in Illinois already, 1920 being the last time. The national policy committee of the miners has been against the Farrington idea. It has simply authorized the making of supplemental contracts by the district unions to carry out the Cleveland peace terms, which is something different from negotiating any real settlement by states.

Illinois operators point out that although the strike has been running twenty weeks, today will be the first opportunity they have had to lay down to the miners the counter proposals they formulated before April 1.

The proposition they made two weeks ago, to restore old wages and working conditions to April 1 and leave all the controversial matter to arbitration outside the industry, they say, was merely in accession to President Harding's ideas. As they view it, to sign on the dotted line of the Cleveland agreement would simply call the battle off until next spring, when it would break out again.

Contention of Operators.

The Illinois operators contend that now they are put under handicaps in competing against other states, even in the central field. They say 30 cents a ton could be knocked off the cost of mining fuel without any loss of earnings to the men if certain adjustments were made.

For instance, the machine differential is cited as one handicap. In most mines, undercutting of coal is done by machine. The operators provide the machine and the power and keep it in repair and for this are allowed only 7 cents from the pick mining rate, while in other states it ranges from 12 cents to 22 cents. Thus the Illinois operator has a handicap of 5 cents a ton on this item alone against his Indiana competitor and a setback of 15 cents as against some other sections.

Another item is that of "coal degradation" through excess screenings. Fifteen years ago, screenings at Illinois mines averaged about 25 per cent of the output. Now they run about 50 per cent, the operators say, despite the fact that in three-fifths of the mining solid shooting has been discontinued and the coal is under cut by machine.

COAL STRIKERS STONE TROOPS IN CANADIAN FIELD

Toronto, Ont., Aug. 17.—[Special.]—Now Canada has serious labor troubles which threaten its return to normalcy.

Cut off from large supplies of American coal on the threshold of a cold winter, such as always visits Canada, the chief domestic source of coal is tied up by a bitter strike.

Radicals Rule Miners.

The extreme wing of labor has triumphed among the miners of Nova Scotia. Not only have the miners refused to recognize a settlement arrived at between their executives and the British Empire Steel corporation, which operates the mines, but they have also defied the telegraphed admonition of John Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, and have refused to allow pumpmen to stay on the job to keep the mines from flooding.

Today is the third day of the strike, and already several of the largest pits are threatened with destruction by water. Since the rough handling meted out to a number of volunteer pumpmen from Sydney, N. S., the operators have been unable to man the pumps. The coal mines in Nova Scotia are owned by the provincial government, but operated under lease by the huge merger which controls both the coal supplies and the steel works of the maritime range.

Rush Troops to Scene.

In view of public property being menaced with destruction the federal minister of militia has authorized the sending of troops to the scene to protect volunteers working the pumps. Stones were hurled through the windows of the troop trains on their arrival at Sydney, but no further attempt has been made to molest the soldiers. In the meantime the operators are unable to secure volunteers to attend to the pumps.

Pit. No. 2, the largest coal shaft in the world, is in danger of complete destruction, while in Nos. 2, 4, 10, 22 and 23 water is steadily rising. The new executive of the miners elected this week and representing the "red" wing of the organization, now is in control, and there seems little chance of a peaceful settlement.

Rail Peace Seen.

The decision of the railways to follow the view of the government's lawyers and to rescind the cuts in shopmen's wages pending the conclusion of arbitration proceedings has eased the situation regarding the rail troubles.

Coal from U. S. Expected.

Montreal, Que., Aug. 17.—[Special.]—According to advices received by representatives of American anthracite mines in Montreal this afternoon the first consignment of anthracite coal from Pennsylvania will be received in Montreal on Sept. 1. One of the largest coal dealers in Montreal said this morning that he had been informed that the strike in the Pennsylvania coal fields would end this week and shipments of coal will start immediately.

ALDERMEN CLIMB 400 STAIRS TO MEET "BIG BEN"

Chicagoans Also See Scotland Yard.

BY JOHN STEELE.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
[Copyright: 1922: By The Chicago Tribune.]

LONDON, Aug. 17.—[By Tribune Wireless.]—"On the last lap of the journey and thankful for returning to dear old Chicago," is about the general feeling of the Chicago aldermen now that the day is nearing for their return home. They will leave Liverpool Saturday morning on the steamer Regina for Montreal.

THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE made it possible for the aldermen to visit the houses of parliament and lords and Scotland Yard today, obtaining the necessary credentials from the American embassy. The party had an enjoyable time climbing 400 stairs in order to reach the innermost works of "Big Ben," London's famous clock. The party saw all there was to see in the houses of commons and lords, including the crypts and underground passages.

See Hangman's Ropes.

The house of commons had no session, and therefore they were unable to observe the machinery, but they obtained a good idea of how the laws are made. The visit to Scotland Yard was engineered by THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE through Post Wheeler, councilor of the American embassy in London, who gave a letter to THE TRIBUNE, asking courtesies of the police for the aldermen.

The "black museum" was thrown open to the aldermen under guidance of an inspector, who told interesting stories about the various curios, including ropes which had hanged celebrated criminals, and tools used by famous lawbreakers.

Aldermen Buy English Suits.

The women of the party shopped today and strange to say, they patronized American shops in preference to English. Some of the aldermen bought suits because prices here are less than in Chicago, but they may have trouble in explaining the fit on their return to Chicago.

The party leaves tomorrow for Liverpool and will inspect the docks there.

SLAIN

ENVER PASHA.

MOSCOW, Aug. 17.—[By the Associated Press.]—Enver Pasha, former Turkish minister of war and recently chief antagonist to bolshevist rule in the Transcaucasus, was found dead on the battlefield in eastern Bokhara, the government here learned today. Enver Pasha was attitred in a British uniform when found. He was stabbed five times on Aug. 4 in fighting against the Bolsheviki.

Enver Pasha began his career as an agitator amongst the young Turks and was one of the triumvirate which dethroned Sultan Abdul Hamid.

He became chief of staff of the Turkish army in January, 1913. In a British government white paper he was blamed for Turkey's entrance into the war on the side of Germany.

In 1917 he became minister of war. After peace was concluded, he was forced to flee from Turkey, where he was accused of war profiteering and kindred activities.

Last January the soviets and the Turks accused him of betraying them. He has carried on a campaign in recent months against the Bolsheviki. His last effort was to become the emir of Turkestan.

SMALL WILL RUN FOR GOVERNOR AGAIN IN 1924

Seeks "Vindication" by the People, He Says.

BY E. O. PHILLIPS.

Gov. Len Small is determined to be a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor in 1924. He, his immediate family, and his political advisors, have reached the steadfast determination, it is learned on reliable authority, that he shall seek vindication at the hands of the Republican primary voters at the state primaries, now two years away.

"Gov. Small, while at the conference at the Michigan City cottage of Mayor Thompson, at which Fred Lundin was present, established it as a fundamental in laying out the political program of the state administration-city hall forces, that he is to be a candidate for renomination," was the statement made by a politician, thoroughly on the inside of the quiet moves within the Small-Thompson-Lundin camp.

Gives Ultimatum to Mayor.

"I want you, Mr. Mayor, and you, Mr. Lundin, to know that I shall be a candidate for governor again and that my friends will insist that this be a prime considertaion in all preliminaries for the state campaign, necessarily starting with the arrangements for the impending off year campaign," is the ultimatum Gov. Small is reported to have issued at Michigan City.

It was indicated, the information continues, that the city hall leaders were not overenthusiastic on the governor's position. There is a United States senator to be nominated in 1924, simultaneously with the gubernatorial primaries, and the prevailing feeling has been that Mayor Thompson, in case he is reëlected mayor in April, 1923, will be all set to go out again for the senatorship in 1924.

An added complication for the state-city machine is that Frank L. Smith, chairman of the Illinois commerce commission, is almost a sure starter for the governorship, even should Gov. Small persist in the course announced at Michigan City.

Democratic Committee Meets.

Democratic county executive committeemen were in session yesterday discussing the vacancy on the county ticket caused by the death of County Commissioner Albert W. Nowak. The best hunch available is that Mrs. Edward W. Bemis will be placed on the ticket. No action is to be taken by the board of county commissioners in filling the place now vacant on the board until late next week, following the return of part of the board membership from Europe.

Judge Timothy D. Hurley yesterday held that Municipal Judges Thomas J. Peden, Emanuel Eller, and Alberto N. Gualano hold their seats on the Municipal bench legally. The three had been nominated by convention as Republicans, instead of by primary.

GOLDEN YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tracy.

Fifty years ago last Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tracy, 6456 Ellis avenue, were married at Holy Cross church, 65th street and Drexel avenue. On their golden wedding anniversary the aged couple, both of whom came to Chicago with their parents from Ireland when they were small children, celebrated with a family reunion at the home of their daughter, Mrs. E. J. Pfeiffer. Mr. Tracy, who is a veteran of the civil war, has been employed at the Jackson park launch house for the last twenty years.

IRISH NATIONALS RETAKE DUNDALK, MANY PRISONERS

Rebels Retreat After Heavy Looting.

BELFAST, Aug. 17.—[By the Associated Press.]—The recapture of Dundalk by national army troops from Irish insurgents who occupied the town a few days ago, was confirmed in Belfast this afternoon. Hundreds of irregulars were taken prisoner.

The city, however, has not been completely evacuated by the republicans, who still hold several points in widely distributed places. The streets and barracks were evacuated by the irregulars only after everything portable had been taken away. Big scale looting occurred. Children were reported as wearing officers' belts. A clergyman declared that he had seen youngsters with their pockets full of bombs.

The three converging units of the national forces have closed in upon the irregulars. Airplanes are circling over the city. Care was taken by the advancing nationals because the roads were mined with powerful explosives.

Advices from Greenore, in northeastern County Louth, are to the effect that the Republicans have occupied Carlingford, the favorite summering place of Cardinal Logue, primate of all Ireland. The cardinal left before the attack.

Greenore, a mail port in County Loth, has also been occupied by irregulars, who have mined the harbor in expectation of the arrival of national forces. Ordinary passenger service on the railroad is running as usual.

Recapture Wireless Plant.

GALWAY, Aug. 17.—[By the Associated Press.]—The town of Clifden on the Irish coast, forty-three miles northwest of here, has been freed of Irish irregulars, and the Marconni wireless station there which was recently seized by the insurgents, has been rescued by national army forces. The station will be put into operation again within a few days, it was stated today.

Nationals Take Mallow.

DUBLIN, Aug. 17.—[By Associated Press.]—The troops of the provinicial free state government are continuing their successes against the irregulars. Latest reports tell of the capture of Mallow and Mitchelstown.

Irregulars forcibly removed the crew from a train five miles from Tralee today and sent the train crashing full speed into the Tralee station. The train was wrecked and the station was badly damaged. Only the presence of mind of a signalman, who diverted the runaway into a siding, prevented loss of life.

POINCARE HALTS ARRANGEMENT TO PAY DEBT TO U. S.

Recalls Mission Sent to Fix French Terms.

PARIS, Aug. 17.—[By the Associated Press.]—Premier Poincare has ordered the commission, headed by Jean V. Parmentier, sent to Washington to adjust the French debt to America, to return to Paris immediately, it was learned today.

M. Parmentier's negotiations at Washington have been closely followed by officials here, who have received frequent reports from him, the latest a few days ago, defining the situation before the American funding commission.

Premier Poincare's attitude was defined in a speech to the senate on the eve of M. Parmentier's sailing early in July. The premier said all the allies had profited equally by the use of the money borrowed from the United States. France does not repudiate her share, he declared, but if France is expected to pay fully, she in turn expects to be paid not only the sums she lent to other allies but also the reparations due her from Germany.

Wants General Debt Settlement.

The premier referred to the fact that the international bankers interrupted their recent deliberations concerning an international loan for Germany when France announced that she could not abandon any part of her reparations claims.

France, it was intimated by M. Poincare, tells that any settlement of the interallied debt situation must be a general one in which she is not the only loser.

It was explained at the foreign office that M. Parmentier's mission to Washington was merely to outline the present financial situation of France. He was not empowered to say when France could begin payment, it was said.

Awaits Reparations Action.

He probably will return to Washington only after the reparations crisis is over. By that time France is expected here to know how much money she can expect from Germany.

In well informed quarters it was stated that the results of the Parmentier mission are not as good as was expected. It is declared that there was considerable surprise and annoyance in official circles when M. Parmentier was requested by the refunding commission to name a definite date when France could begin to liquidate the debt.

It Wasn't Poison He Took—T'was Beer

MR. AND MRS. JOHN HALSTEAD.

HALSTEAD DOPED; DENIES HE TRIED TO END OWN LIFE

Discharged from the Speedway hospital as sane, and indignant over the embarrassment he and his wife were forced to undergo, John Halstead, overseas veteran and commercial artist, yesterday declared he had taken no poison voluntarily, nor had there been domestic discord in his family.

"I was poisoned, all right," he declared, "but it was in a glass of near beer in a Clark street saloon, not in tablet form. I had a roll of bills and somebody thought he'd roll me afterward, I guess.

"I got home, at 15 West Pearson street, and laid down on the floor, sick. They took me to the Polyclinic hospital and then to the Speedway. They examined me there and discharged me."

The only "disagreements" between him and his wife, Marie Louise, a pretty French girl, he said, was that she wanted to work to help him, and he didn't want her to do it. As for being "broke," Halstead said, he had $135 from the government every month.

GERMANS RUSH TO BUY; PRICES SOAR TO SKIES

Stores Fail to Replace Stocks as Mark Falls.

BY OTIS SWIFT.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
[Copyright: 1922: By The Chicago Tribune.]

BERLIN, Aug. 17.—Chancellor Joseph Wirth today summoned the national economic council, composed of employers and employés belonging to trade unions, to discuss the means for meeting the internal money crisis.

Prices are soaring skyward throughout Germany. Price tags on many articles have doubled in twelve hours. Frantic buying continues, and the people are anxious to hoard supplies before a further rise. Stocks of goods in many stores are exhausted. The merchants declare they cannot afford to replace them, as the profits in marks made by the sales are not sufficient to rebuy at the inflated prices.

Railroad freight rates have been boosted 50 per cent since Sept. 1. Telegraph tolls have jumped 100 per cent in the past three weeks. Construction of community homes for miners in the Ruhr district ceased today, as the cost of buildings has risen from 60,000 marks to 700,000 marks in the past year.

Papers Forced to Suspend.

"Süddeutsche Presse" has suspended publication as it is unable to pay expenses despite the fact that it is one of the most important papers in Bavaria. Other newspapers are suspending daily. Booksellers state it is cheaper to sell books according to the old 1918 price list than to print new catalogues at the present printing cost.

All workers in the salaried men's unions are demanding wage increases. They want 4,000 marks more monthly, while white collar men want 5,000 marks more monthly. Typical of Germany's money madness is the arrest of a 15 year old boy who forged checks in order to speculate on the bourse.

Extreme excitement continues to prevail over the breakdown of the London conference and the conservative Berlin Rundschau says in an editorial, "If we give in to France we become a mere French colony. Opposition to France is a duty of self-preservation. When the passionate wrath of a nation turns strongly against France we will restore internal harmony. Common misery draws us together."

Bavarians Oppose Berlin.

The people's voice of the Berlin Mittag suggests the only solution is to cease printing marks and print American dollars instead.

Declaring that Berlin is not making a sufficiently strong stand against bolshevism, Munich nationalists continued their demonstrations today against the Berlin government. Trouble is feared because of Gen. von Hindenburg's announcement that he will be in Munich Aug. 21 en route to south Bavaria. The nationalists are preparing a demonstration in his honor.

Seek Reparations Compromise.

PARIS, Aug. 17.—[By the Associated Press.]—A compromise settlement on the German reparations problem acceptable both to France and Great Britain was regarded as probable by reparations commission officials tonight following a day given over to two informal meetings during which at least two new plans for meeting the French position were discussed. It was authoritatively stated that the latest proposals would yield more cash than the measures prescribed by Raymond Poincare, the French premier, at the recent London conference.

Everything possible is being done by both the French and British members of the reparations commission to avoid a direct vote being taken on the question of granting a moratorium to Germany. The view is held that such a vote would create a breach between France and Great Britain.

The formal meeting of the commission, which had been set for today and at which the moratorium was to have been discussed, was postponed hurriedly when it was seen that real progress toward a compromise was being made.

HARDING CANCELS WEEK VISIT HERE OWING TO CRISES

President Harding is held tightly in Washington by strike conditions and has been forced to cancel his earlier arrangement to visit Chicago next week for a week's vacation as the guest of Fred W. Upham and Gen. Charles G. Dawes. Mr. Upham yesterday received a letter from the President saying that the national emergency is such he cannot depart from Washington.

"The President's letter said, however, that he will make his Chicago visit later, and so soon as the strike difficulties are cleared away we shall expect him," Mr. Upham said.

Cancellation of the Chicago engagements probably carries with it elimination of the plan for President Harding to visit Mooseheart next Thursday, as the guest of Secretary of Labor James J. Davis, who is head of the Loyal Order of Moose. It had been planned that Secretary Davis was to give a dinner for the President and his cabinet at Mooseheart—the first official cabinet dinner to be held outside of Washington, it is said. Secretary Rodney Brandon of the Moose, said last night, however, that he had heard of no change in the announced arrangements, and yesterday afternoon was in consultation with city officials of Chicago concerning police protection for the presidential party while in the Chicago metropolitan area.

THE TWILIGHT OF EUROPE.

Communists are in the German wheat fields. The farm workers are striking. This threatens Germany with famine. The refusal of Russian peasants to raise grains was responsible for Russian famine. Chancellor Wirth tells the newspaper correspondents that German society is dissolving. Its government may not be able to continue. The barrier against sovietism may be broken down. Central Europe may sink.

Vienna reports that even in its disasters it has pride enough not to continue to accept American aid for the feeding of its children so long as an insanity of prodigality possesses the few who can dance before the deluge. At Deauville Henry Wales finds a feverish season of drugged and alcoholized gambling and wantonness which in its intensity has sent royal personages on tiptoe into corners and has scared American millionaires away from the tables.

The financial systems of central Europe are wrecked. There is smoke in the chimneys of its industries, but the fires may be extinguished in a day and, if German fields turn Red, society is smashed. No part of Europe can keep out of that smashup.

Europe was the home of the world's great civilization. Even Russia was productive in arts, literature, and sciences and its fields and resources sustained the people in plenty, although its political system was medieval. Germany, France, and Austro-Hungary were producing art and literature and progressing in science and industry beyond American conceptions. Across the water from here was the heart of the world's finance, commerce, and culture and the achievements were the greatest known to man.

The German kaiser, mad, blind, or powerless, consented to or contrived the war, starting the search for the sun which put out the sun. Europe is beggared. Part of it has starved. Its finance, its commerce, its industries have been wrecked. What it left itself in war it broke to pieces in peace.

Greek civilization was swept away by the Peloponnesian war. The culture of the Mesapotamian valley was buried by men coming down the hills in sheepskins. Mankind often has built up a structure of society to have it leveled. Are the temples coming down again in Europe, where they were the proudest? Are the fields of central Europe to be ranged by starving, skulking men as they were after the Thirty Years' war? Is the twilight of the kings to be followed by the twilight of civilization in Europe?

SETTLEMENT OF SHOPMEN'S STRIKE.

A leader writer in the Manchester Guardian tells with much relish the story of a canny Scot "who had a bent penny returned with contumely by a tram guard," and thereupon appealed in indignation through two Scottish courts to the house of lords and won his case through the efforts of Lord Haldane, "who brought to bear upon the bent penny all the massive concentration he would have directed upon a squabble over half a million."

That is a fight for a principle. The English, according to the Guardian, would not make that fight, but they approve it. Americans will be amused, if not amazed. We do not go to law over a penny, and seldom over a principle. Our national antipathy to taking such expensive action in such a case for such an end may explain the apparent deadlock in the railroad strike. We are not accustomed to allowing principles, incidentally raised, to interfere with our comfortable habits.

Therefore it is difficult for us to sit by and see our prosperity impaired while the railroad executives and unions insist that they will fight out the issue of seniority. We are facing a principle. We are not accustomed to it. We resent it. We are stalled by it. Perhaps it is because we are somewhat doubtful which side is right, and therefore we seek compromise in order that our normal ways may be resumed. We cannot be absolutely certain whether we are right or wrong. It emphasizes our need of leadership in which we can have faith. President Harding is in the strategic position to provide such leadership. If he will assume it, and make the issue clear, we believe the country will follow him.

In the shopmen's strike, as in most labor controversies, there has been a great waving of banners. On some are inscribed the battle cries of the employés, the right to a living wage, the right to organize, etc.; on others the right to work, the right to free contract, the duty to transport. Sacred principles are sincerely held to be at stake—law, order, the sanctity of contract, the freedom of the individual, the right to combine for common betterment, the right to a fair share in America's prosperity.

But if the concrete differences can be composed, the struggle will not be carried on because of abstract principles, vital as these may be in the long run of human fate and social progress. Few men will make sacrifice for a principle unless it is weighed with immediate consequences to them. Compromise is therefore possible, and we move along by compromise. It is well that we do, for principles are conceptions of right or expediency which mankind modifies from time to time, and it is seldom they can be interpreted in terms of the conditions before us with such certainty as to justify a battle to the death.

Out of the shopmen's strike appear a number of important, even vital, principles. But what makes the contest is conflicting interest. Employers declare that the right to work is at stake. Strikers declare the right to combine, and to make combination worth while through the exercise of the right to suspend service, is at stake. If this were actually the situation there would be necessity for a struggle to a conclusion. But neither will admit that the other is right as to the issue at stake and as a matter of fact it is the interests of each party which sustain it.

At the present stage the strikers have agreed to go back on the wages fixed by the labor board, pending the rehearing provided for in the railroad act. That was the issue when the strike was called. It has been conceded by the strikers. But the seniority issue has sprung up to block agreement, and when this issue is examined we discover that it turns really on a question of saving face.

Common sense calls for peace and peace can be had now on terms which common sense will approve.

LEARNING OF SUBWAYS ABROAD.

Ald. John Toman, as spokesman for the committee of aldermen now in Europe tells THE TRIBUNE correspondent in each capital that the travelers have learned a lot which will be of great benefit to Chicago. The aldermen are on their way home now and they want it understood that the trip was not all beer and skittles. They say they do not need any arguments on subways. They want subways for Chicago.

We do not know what the trip will cost, but if the aldermen come home from seeing European subways and are determined to build Chicago subways every cent of the money was well spent. Chicago could afford to spend a million dollars to convince the city council that it should start subway building.

The hard hundred years are the years of argument with city administrations, pounding away on the obvious theme that a great city cannot progress as it should until it provides itself with rapid transportation.

Any city money spent to make the obvious stand out from the fog of politics is money which will bring a big return in public benefit. There is criticism of the aldermen for taking themselves at city expense to Europe to study subways, pavements and docks. The practical factor is not whether the aldermen had some fun but whether the city gets subways.

Mr. Thompson was given $250,000 by the council to make traction investigations. The only visible return on the investment was a pamphlet boosting Mr. Thompson's political scheme of a traction district. Ald. Schwartz, chairman of the local transportation committee could have dictated everything pertinent in the report within a half hour. Thompson spent $107,000 in lawyers' fees and $30,000 went to a brunette attorney who can help a great deal in carrying the Second ward.

These expenditures did not create a ripple of protest in the city. The city got nothing from them. If the money spent on the European trip brings home a group of aldermen firmly determined to construct a subway system the city will get something.

OUR FOREST PRESERVE INVESTMENT.

Announcement is made of the extension of Chicago's outer belt of woodland playgrounds by the addition of 162 acres purchased by the forest preserve district. That affords immediate satisfaction and eventually will bring profit to Chicago and Cook county. A trip to any part of our growing system of forest preserves on any day of the summer, and particularly on Sundays and holidays, will prove this point.

Thousands of city dwellers will be found absorbing new health and energy in these natural playgrounds at the city's door. There can be no doubt that such sources of energy and such inspiration to right living are a valuable investment. Not only that, but as their advantages are revealed and their fame grows the fame of Chicago and Cook county is extended throughout the country.

What this county can do, others can do. Lake county, for instance, has large tracts of land admirably adapted to the formatiton of forest preserves. Though they would have a smaller neighborhood clientele than the Cook county preserves, they would offer undoubted advantages to the townspeople of their territory, and if properly developed and extended would attract many summer visitors from more distant points. They offer a great potential source of income, direct and indirect, to the county which buys them. They offer a method of obtaining for Illinois some of the millions of dollars earned annually by Wisconsin, for instance, through its natural summer attractions for tourists and other vacationists.

We pay a very good price for these woodland districts now. It is much more than we would have been required to pay a few years ago. But it is much less than we will be required to pay a few years hence. They will never become cheaper. Delay in such purchases means loss. The extension of forest preserves in Cook county and other counties, therefore, should be pressed wherever possible.

Editorial of the Day

DEMOCRACY THE PROTECTOR OF AMERICAN LIBERTY.

[Translated from Narod—The Bohemian People.]

Government of the people, by the people and for the people—so Lincoln has defined democracy.

The people are sovereign. They have it in their hands to elect the representatives who make, execute and interpret the laws. But it is possible that the people will err, by electing representatives selfish and greedy, who will misuse the trust placed in them for their own benefit or that of a few persons, or who will in a cowardly way allow themselves to be influenced to assent to obnoxious laws.

When such laws have been enacted, they must be obeyed, for to disrespect them would invite disrespect also for good and useful laws. The liberty of the people would not be safe if every individual would be free to ignore such of the laws as he may deem not beneficial for the majority of the people. Thus the prohibition law should be observed while it exists. Breaking it is criminal. But we all know that the great majority of American citizens consider that law as unjust and unworthy of our great nation. So we should stand together in a lawful way to help elect honest, conscientious men, who will heed and voice our sentiments and ideas and will remove this law. Instead of confining ourselves to mere howling about the iniquity of this law, let us take firm and intelligent action, and we shall safeguard our liberty and vindicate the majesty of law in the very act of blotting out this prohibition law on the statute books.

A LINE O' TYPE OR TWO

How to the Line, let the quips fall where they may.

ABSENCE.
(To my wife.)

I heard the song of a lark, my dear,
As upward in gladness it flew,
And thrilled by its mystical music,
Beloved, I thot of you.

I looked enthralled on a red rose
And charmed by its radiant hue,
I loved my soul in its fragrance,
Beloved, longing for you.

I saw a wonderful sunset
In a sky of crystalline blue,
And there, 'neath the glory of heaven,
Beloved, I prayed for you.

I closed my eyes with the twilight
As softly descended the dew,
Serene in the bondage of slumber,
Beloved, I dreamed of you.

And so each moment that passes,
Each miracle God brings to view,
Each beauteous, glorious token,
Beloved, reminds me of you. P. D. Goo.

WHICH WILL IT BE, MURIEL OR MARY?

WHAT IS JAWN GOING TO DO ABOUT THIS!

"It was because I love you, dear," said Mary Brook as she nestled softly down into Harry Rasher Bacon's big, strong arms. "Mary, darling," said Harry Rasher Bacon as his eager lips sought those of the blushing girl, "I have loved no one else but you." And so they were married.

The End.

"It was because I love you, dear," said Muriel Lennard as she nestled softly down in Harry Rasher Bacon's big, strong arms. "Muriel, darling," said Harry Rasher Bacon as his eager lips sought those of the blushing girl, "I have loved no one else but you." And so they were married.

The End.

THE LINE O' TYPE, believing that Jawn's "Heir at Large," now approaching its end (thank God), is the biggest sporting proposition ever put before the American public, offers a grand capital prize of ten handsome, hand-tooled, vacuum cupped, ball bearing, oven fired, Russian tailless sardines for the best answer to this great question, Whom will Jawn make Harry Rasher Bacon marry?

WILL JAWN favor the haughty, artistocratic, social-butterfly Muriel, or is he still one of the great Common Peepul, and will he let our Mary Brook, the little stenographer, win out? True, Jawn was born of poor but honest parents, in a log cabin on the banks of the Wabash. But, remember, he has now a shooting box in Lake Forest, a liveried chauffeur on his Rolls-Royce, and his monogram on his cigarettes. The odds in the betting are now 8 to 5, with Muriel the favorite. WHOM, asks Vangie, laughingly, WILL JAWN MAKE HARRY RASHER BACON MARRY?

Oh, Isn't This Weather Just Stifling!
[From yesterday's Trib.]

SEEK MAN BEHIND
GIRL'S END HERE!

ELSA, B. K., PEGGY, M. E., BEEGEE, J. M. C. P., BILL RYAN, EDGAR ELY, AND MANY OTHERS.

We've a Weak Chin but Our Eyes Are Kinda Nice, and Where Do You Get That Unkie Stuff!

R. H. L.: I say, aren't you weakening just a little? Seems as tho' all you have to do to m. t. l. is to throw you a little smoose about how handsome you and Vangie were on the roof. I don't think you are so darn good lookin' that I'd leave my job for you—anyway, you're married, aren't you, Unkie Dick? PAULA.

And Things Are Not Just What They Seem.

R. H. L.: Let Marie Kay have her own way about bond salesmen, but even she won't deny that the insurance vendor is unmistakable. He looks so grand and collegish striding into your office (doesn't he, Marie?)—so simple and manly—just your ideal man, that when he leans over you and gives you a long, eloquent look that's nothing less than tender, and you think he's going to murmur "Please little girl, just one!"—then it's rough listening (isn't it, Marie?) to hear him say "I wanna see Mr. Whichwhat on a purssonal matter—I'm gonna insure his dog!" VERONICA.

THE LIBERTY BELL.

To speak the joy of men,
I rang so loud and long
I lost the power of song,
And may not ring again;
But even a sight of me
Shall keep a Nation free.
So wrap me round with stars
And let my fame increase,
Until the last of wars
Has blossomed into peace.
LAURA BLACKBURN.

BREAKING IT GENTLY.

[From the Humboldt, Kas., Union.]

Rev. Homer A. Turner from Walcott, Ind., a candidate for the pastorate of the Christian church, preached Wednesday and Thursday evenings. Dr. Turner is said to be quite proficient on the cornet.

Maybe This Is a Personal Letter, but, Anyhow, It Got Mixed with the Others.

Dear Dick: Home again, leaving New York flat. Julian and Percy, The Beautiful and the Damned, remitted regards. Julian won't ride in the Subway. Too crowded. Percy can't. Does Vangie know about the sheep in Texas? C. B.

MY WORD! THAT'S CLEVER!

R. H. L.: If a compliment is bestowed upon you—say with downcast eyes an' a shy lil' smile—"It's nice of you to say so anyway!" You're welcome! PRAIRIE PRUE.

P. S. Will you please recommend me to Snowshoo Al? Tell him I am NOT a nice girl! I hate "nice girls"—don't you? P. P.

THE KANKAKEE.

Beautiful Kankakee
Rolling contentedly
Out toward the far-off sea,
We love you fondly.

River you are and more,
Singing in happy glee;
But what on earth you're for
Is quite beyond me. JACK CORALINE.

YES, UNTIL THE PLEBISCITE IS TAKEN.

Dear R. H. L.: My passport bears on the inside of the back cover the words, "The enclosed document is an American passport" in nineteen of the official languages of the world, including Yiddish. I am c. to k. whether Yiddish is the official language of the new Zionist state, or whether passports are required of an American in New York. LOKI.

YOU SEE, Loki, it's this way. The west bank of the Hudson is occupied territory, America never having withdrawn her troops.

HOBOKEN AND JERSEY CITY are as much a part of the United States as West Hammond, Ind., and South Chicago.

NEW YORK CITY demands to be recognized as a republic, but a good many of its citizens are willing to accept the dominion form of government, such as Canada and Australia have.

UNDER THE PRESENT treaty the United States has a corridor to the sea extending down Broadway and ending at Battery park.

DURING THE WAR New York sided with the Allies and as a reward was given the privilege of the plebiscite, which will be taken as soon as New York finds out what it means.

BUT, WHY go to New York? See America first. R. H. L.

TRAGEDY OF COUSINS.

MRS. R. E. writes: "I was interested in what Mrs. J. H. said of cousin marriage in her family. With us, the results have been different, and you may care to print them for what they are worth.

"My mother, 'A,' has two sisters, 'B' and 'C.' 'A' married extraneously, and had two children, normal in every way. 'B' and 'C' both married first cousins, and out of the five children born to the two families four were deformed and the fifth is 'queer,' though physically sound.

"'B' married the son of her father's brother, and produced: 1. A son with club feet and hare lip. 2. A son with hare lip and cleft palate. 3. A daughter with congenital cysts and a series of tumors which recur after excision. Both sons died.

"'C' married the son of her mother's brother and produced: 1. A son who lived to the age of 10 without moving legs or arms. Mentally acute, he was ahead of normal children in the branches of school work he was able to do, and his body grew to normal size, but he lay in a cradle all his life and was fed with a spoon. 2. The daughter I have mentioned as 'queer.' Her voice is pitched like a rusty gate and she neither looks nor acts like a child. She is 7 and seems 37.

"With the coöperation of the eugenics record office, I made a careful research into the ancestry of those cousins and myself. To be sure, I found a great deal I wasn't looking for; among other things, the fact that my esteemed ancestors were not given to paying their bills, and so must have had severe wear and tear on the conscience, but there was no instance of physical degeneration or especial susceptibility which would obviously predispose their descendants to deformity.

"They, too, were sturdy tillers of the soil [I nearly said 'honest'] and they died largely by Bright's cerebral hemorrhage late in life, and in several instances by untimely conflict with the schedule of the Nickel Plate railroad.

"They also died of pneumonia, cancer, and of something described as 'female complaint.'

"Have you, and have those who share your tolerant, amiable views on the subject, any definite, tangible standards for the ancestry of cousins contemplating marriage? Are these standards sufficiently definite to be intelligible to people in love?

"I think you owe it to eugenics and to your readers to state plainly the ancestral disqualifications in cases of this kind, or else oppose, as the most dispassionate eugenist does, the institution of consanguineous marriage.

"What you have said about it is so vague as to be worthless."

REPLY.

The eugenics laboratory having had all available family records, and finding no inheritable traits in the stock, and having no explanation of the facts, I am sure I would likewise fail.

They had more facts than I have, and their opinion is better than mine, independently of their larger knowledge of this family history.

The defects in the family of "B" are generally held to be inheritable. The relation of heredity to the defects in the family of "C" is not so certain. I suggest that the daughter be carefully studied as to the condition of her ductless glands.

The best study of inbreeding of which I know is that by East and Jones.

SMOTHERED IN GLAD RAGS.

A Grandmother writes: "After reading your valuable column daily I feel you have overlooked such an important subject as dress for infants and small children on hot, also cool, days and I know that by jogging your memory you can give the best information that will reach thousands, and thereby doing a great act of charity for those innocent little sufferers.

"So many of our young mothers, whose only aim is to be the envy of their friends, also young mothers, put silk bonnets and silk coats and fancy coverings on carriage and parade in hot sun, wearing themselves to a frazzle trying to pacify baby.

"I was in an elevator in a loop store. A neatly dressed mother, with a baby about a year old, who wore a crochet bonnet and ear laps, could not understand why the child cried. I asked her how she would like her ears tied up. She said she had never thought of that and quickly removed the bonnet.

"I also saw a woman on a busy street walking leisurely with a crying child about 3 years old. I could not refrain from asking why the child wore a velvet coat. She thought it kept the sun off the child's back, and did not remove it. I mentioned to her that she wore a thin waist, but of no avail.

"Why not stretch a large canvas across our busiest street and instruct those selfish mothers in the first principles of humanity for babies?"

SWIMMING AFTER MEALS.

C. V. C. writes: 1. I hear that castor oil and epsom salts if used very often for constipation are harmful.

"2. What is a good remedy for constipation? I am 16.

"3. Is very much candy good for any one?

"4. How long should it be before or after meals before bathing?"

REPLY.

1. They are.
2. Eat whole wheat bread, bran, vegetables and fruit. Drink more water.
3. No.
4. About half an hour before; two hours after.

LITIGATION AGAINST HUSBAND.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—1. If a man and his wife own a piece of vacant property in both their names and they sell it has the husband the right to spend all of the money without the wife's consent?

2. If he does this, what can she do to recover her share? L. E. M.

He has no such right.

She should employ an attorney.

TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

POISON IVY.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—1. Is there a law in this state which compels a property owner to keep his property rid of poison ivy?

2. If a person is severely poisoned by this ivy on an open lot is the owner of the lot liable for damage to the person poisoned? J. F. W.

1. We find no such law.
2. Depends on facts bearing upon the responsibility of such damage. Try reporting the owner of the lot to the department of health.

A READY MADE FAMILY.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—If a man marries a lady with seven children and after a few years leaves her does he not have to support her? How much would he have to give her from his salary of $35 a week? D. B. S.

He is still obliged to contribute to her support. One-third of his income is the usual amount.

MICHIGAN DIVORCE LAWS.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—I want to find out the Michigan laws on divorce. How long must one live in that state before he may file application for divorce? How soon after the divorce is granted may one remarry and live in that state? G. S.

Residence requirement is one year. Remarriage depends on the wording of the divorce decree.

TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

PROBABLY EMERGENCY.

Chicago, Aug. 14.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—1. Is it lawful for a duly licensed attorney from another state, who is now a resident of Illinois, to issue cards and use letterheads bearing his name and designation as "attorney and counselor at law, Chicago, Ill.," before he is admitted to the bar of this state?

2. Is it not unlawful for owners of private automobiles or trucks to engage in the transportation business for profit without a license, as in the case of the last car strike? M. E. M.

1. No.
2. Technically, yes.

TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

CORRECT SIGNBOARD ADVICE.

Chicago, Aug. 16.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—I noticed in a recent issue of your paper that a person complained of a signboard having been placed near his property, in fact, in the same block with him. Your answer was that you could suggest no legal remedy. I think you will find that a city ordinance requires the signatures of all the people in the block, consenting to erection of a signboard before it can be placed. Please advise. V. H.

Section 707 of the City Code prohibits billboards in any block in which one-half of the buildings on both sides of the street are used exclusively for residence, without the consent of the majority of the frontage.

The letter you mention, as we recall it, referred to a case where the majority had consented to the signboard, but the person complaining had not consented.

MEMORY TESTS

1. Who is in charge of all trade and commerce affairs of soviet Russia? Leonid Krassin, soviet trade commissar.

2. What two historical towns in Illinois have entirely disappeared? Kaskaskia and Cahokia. Kaskaskia, the first settlement, had the commerce and society of a capital under the French and British. Its site has been partly washed away by encroachment of the Mississippi. Cahokia was a large settlement when St. Louis was founded by Laclede in 1764. It was between Belleville and the present East St. Louis.

3. Where was gingham cloth originated? In Guingamp, France.

4. Who wrote "The New World Symphony"? Antonin Dvorak, a Bohemian composer.

5. What is the all red cable? The name given to a cable route from England to Australia, touching only soil belonging to Great Britain, completed in 1902.

LESSONS FROM ST. LOUIS.

Chicago, Aug. 8.—It would seem anomalous for Chicago to go to St. Louis for progressive ideas, yet St. Louis adopted one way streets in the congested district some years ago and finds the plan works admirably. St. Louis arouses from her lethargy once in a while and does something to make her neighbors sit up and notice. She has a wonderful free bridge over the Mississippi river which cost $7,000,000. Now, the average St. Louisan never goes farther from home than the low water mark on the levee. They overlooked the fact that the east end of the bridge would be in Illinois and made no arrangement for approaches. The result is that no trains or street cars have ever been able to use the bridge.

Not long ago it was deemed necessary to have an elephant for the zoo. The city fathers looked upon it as a piece of extravagance, so the children of the public schools chipped in their nickels and dimes and bought a female elephant. Not being able to find a name suitable for an elephant of that sex, it was named "Jim," which, of course, answers all purposes.

In the zoo is a very intelligent monkey. After long and serious consideration, he, she, or it was named Henry Kiel, after the mayor. J. S. G.

"BOSS" LA FOLLETTE.

Chicago, Aug. 10.—The lambasting that Bob La Follette is getting in Wisconsin does me good. That pestiferous politician has been turned upon by his former teammates, and, prohibitionist as he is, has had to jump into the Victor Berger camp of wets and Socialists and soreheads, where he should miserably perish.

Democratic votes have kept him in office for years through tricky use of the primaries, and he has played politics with one nationalist element after another, has set up straw trading county tickets all over the state, broken faith with his own creation, the primary law, by holding secret pre-primary conventions.

Now they have run him into a beer barrel, but if they don't stand ready with clubs and watch the bunghole day and night he will wiggle out and slip back into the stream. Not since the days of the Athenian demagogues has there been a more dexterous political juggler. L. B. RING.

THE ROOTS OF THE SHOP STRIKE.

Colfax, Ia., Aug. 10.—Is it any wonder we see continued and increasing trouble with organized labor after our government, under Woodrow Wilson, submitted to the railroad brotherhoods, granting their request—a request, or rather a demand, made under threat (be it said to their shame) when our country was in peril and when it needed and had a right to expect and should have had the loyal support and hearty coöperation of every true American?

I do not mean by that that I do not believe in unions or that many of their complaints are not well founded. They are fully within their rights when, if not satisfied with the conditions or pay, they quit, but they are criminally outside their rights when, if not willing themselves to work, they say no one else shall work. But what can we expect when organized labor as such is imposed on and actually robbed by many of its own leaders? W. H. SCOTT.

TO PREVENT COAL STRIKES.

Marion, Ind., Aug. 10.—Permit me to suggest a remedy for future coal strikes. Let the government acquire sufficient coal land in every coal producing state for its own use in government buildings and running government machinery, but do no commercial business except when employer and employé disagree and cease to produce coal for commercial use.

In that case the government may furnish coal, first to state institutions and then to all those needing it, and continue to do so until the mine owners and miners have given satisfactory proof that their differences have been adjusted and they are again ready to enter the commercial field. J. M. DE FOE.

INDIRECT LICENSING OF BROTHELS.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—I have just finished reading "Health Rules Advocated by Dr. Bundesen," health commissioner of Chicago, and wish to enter a vigorous protest against his suggested program.

Why should the city of Chicago, through Dr. Bundesen, virtually admit the necessity of brothels in this enlightened era, and further, to coöperate with houses of ill fame by establishing prophylaxis stations in them?

It is only reasonable to guess that the next step the administration will take will be to license disorderly houses, perhaps on a commission basis. The Thompson party must have funds to remain in power.

If the administration is really looking out for the welfare of the people they will get at the root of the social problem, and not encourage it by the program outlined by the health commissioner. ROY M. WAR[illegible]

THE MEDICAL VIEWPOINT.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—I beg to send you a line of commendation on your frankness and fearlessness in publishing the article about Dr. Bundesen's new program, particularly in calling venereal diseases by their right names, also, in describing the conditions that exist. You have probably stirred up a hornet's nest, but the purpose is highly salutary.

JAMES W. WALKER, M. D.

CONGRATULATING BUNDESEN.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—Dr. Bundesen is to be congratulated upon the stand he has taken with reference to the control and treatment of the sexual diseases. His frank attitude should receive the support and coöperation of every citizen who has the welfare of the community at heart. There is nothing to be gained through secrecy in trying to combat these great evils, and a frank, open policy is the only one that can hope to accomplish results.

The doctor's suggestions for instituting measures of prophylaxis at the source of infection are to be heartily indorsed, and if properly followed out will strike an effective blow at the root of the plague that now menaces such a large per cent of our population and involves such a tremendous burden of expense to society. PHYSICIAN.

STRIKE VIEWS OF THE SUFFERING MAJORITY.

Echo, Wis., Aug. 15.—I am not a striker, a railroader, or coal operator. But I am an American citizen, law abiding, and believe in the observance and enforcement of the law.

Has the time really come when the striker and operator are larger than the government? Or, in other words, has the time come when a small minority—about 5 per cent of the population—shall dominate the other 95 per cent as to the policy of what we call free America?

Has the supreme hour arrived when a few shall say who shall work and who shall not?

Why should the quarrel between the operators and strikers paralyze the business of the entire country? The 95 per cent must do the suffering and pay the immense cost of increase in coal, etc. Why should the suffering public be compelled to endure such harsh treatment? Why cannot congress pass laws forbidding strikes? Let's have peace if it does take the strong arm of the American republic to bring it about. The big stick would soon end the strike. L. A. J.

DUTIES ON DYES "HIGH ENOUGH TO EQUAL EMBARGO"

Senate Doubles Tariff Rate Formerly O. K.'d.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., Aug. 17.—[Special.]—Duties on dyes were boosted by the senate tonight so high as to be practically equivalent to an embargo, according to Republicans who protested against the action.

An amendment of Senator Bursum [N. M.], which in effect more than doubles the duties previously approved in the McCumber bill, which were much higher than existing duties, was adopted by a vote of 38 to 23. Seven Republicans voted against the amendment, while five Democrats supported it.

The new duties are 10½ cents a pound plus 75 per cent American valuation on intermediates and 10½ cents a pound plus 90 per cent American valuation on finished dyes. The duties in the McCumber bill were 7 cents a pound plus 50 per cent, foreign valuation, on intermediates, and 7 cents a pound plus 60 per cent, foreign valuation, on finished dyes. It is provided in the Bursum amendment that the flexible tariff provisions should not be applicable to the dye duties, which prevents further increase in rates by executive order.

Senators Smoot [Utah] and Moses [N. H.], who have been leaders in the fight against a dye embargo, led the attack against the Bursum amendment. Senator Smoot described the proposition as "even more vicious than an embargo." He insisted that the duties in the McCumber bill would provide adequate protection.

Cutlery Duties Stay High.

Amendments proposing that duties on cutlery should not exceed the equivalent of 100 per cent ad valorem were rejected by the senate today. The duties in the McCumber bill, it was charged by Senator Lenroot [Wis.] will in some instances amount to as much as 445 per cent.

Senator Lenroot made a futile effort to obtain the adoption of maximum limitations on three cutlery paragraphs. He proposed a maximum of 60 per cent on table, hunting, kitchen, and similar knives, duties on which, he estimated, would be equivalent to from 145 to 200 per cent. The senate rejected this amendment by a vote of 28 to 36.

Senator Lenroot then proposed a 100 per cent maximum limitation on duties on scissors and shears, duties on which, he said, would range from 165 to 445 per cent. This was defeated by a vote of 29 to 33. Finally Senator Lenroot proposed a 100 per cent limitation on duties on pocket knives, duties on which, according to his estimate, would range from 120 to 300 per cent. This met defeat by a vote of 26 to 33.

Senators in Warm Debate.

Senator Lenroot said his purpose was to place senators on record so that the American people might know what kind of protection they stood for.

The senate without roll call struck out a retaliatory proviso applying to both the newsprint and wood pulp paragraphs in the free list. Under the provision the President was authorized to apply a duty of 10 per cent when any foreign country or province imposed export restrictions on wood pulp such as are imposed by Canadian provinces which prohibit the exportation of pulp wood from crown lands.

Senator Oddie [Nev.], offered amendments striking out the proviso and substituting a different form of proviso. Senator Walsh [Mont.], offered a substitute amendment eliminating the proviso entirely. This was accepted by Senator Oddie. The Walsh amendment was adopted after Senator McCumber said he would offer no objection to it.

Senator Oddie endeavored to have rotogravure paper taken from the dutiable list and added to the newsprint paragraph on the free list. The senate refused to take this action after Senator Smoot [Utah], opposed it.

N. Y.-RIO PLANE FINISHES FIRST LEG OF VOYAGE

Manteo, N. C., Aug. 17.—The giant seaplane Sampaio Correia, in which Lieut. Walter Hinton left Jamaica Bay, N. Y., this morning for Rio, Brazil, safely completed the first leg of its long flight this afternoon and landed here for the night.

The aviators passed beyond this point during the afternoon, hoping to make a longer flight but were forced to return because of squalls in Pamlico sound. They expect to leave tomorrow for their next stop, which probably will be Charleston.

The crew includes, besides Hinton, E. Pinto Martins, lieutenant commander Brazilian navy, retired, assistant pilot and navigator; John Wilshusen, mechanician; J. T. Baltzell, motion picture camera man, and George T. Byer, reporter.

AIR CHIEF TAKES BIRD'S-EYE VIEW OF MIDDLE WEST

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., Aug. 17.—[Special.]—Traveling by airplane approximately 3,000 miles, Gen. William Mitchell, assistant chief of air service, has returned from an inspection of air service activities in the middle west, visiting McCook field, Dayton, O.; Selfridge field, Mount Clemens, Mich.; Culver, Ind.; Milwaukee, Chicago, and Cleveland.

On his trip between Milwaukee and Culver Gen. Mitchell encountered wretched weather conditions, being forced to struggle through severe rainstorms and heavy clouds. From Chicago to Selfridge he ran into the worst thunderstorm he had ever seen and was forced to fly for about fifty miles around the edge of the storm.

Lieut. Paul C. Wilkins, army air service, left Bolling field at 5:05 this morning on his flight across the continent. He expects to spend thirty days on his trip.

Landing Field Expert.

The chief of air service approved Lieut. Wilkins' application for this flight in view of his excellent work in investigating landing field facilities for the airways section.

His trip westward will be via Dayton, O.; Scott field, Ill.; Fort Riley, Kas.; North Platte, Neb.; Cheyenne, Wyo.; Salt Lake City, Utah; Elko, Nev.; Reno, Nev., and San Francisco. From North Platte to the coast he will follow the aerial mail route.

Will Take North Route.

On his return trip Lieut. Wilkins will take the northern route, traveling along the aerial mail route to Salt Lake City and then proceeding northward to Casper and Sharon, Wyo.; Miles City, Mont.; Bismarck and Fargo, N. D.; Minneapolis, Minn.; Chicago, Dayton, O., and back to Washington.

While on his aerial journey, Lieut. Wilkins will make a study of landing facilities en route.

SUN TAKES STEP TO HELP CHINA'S REORGANIZATION

Parliament Refuses to Act with President.

BY CHARLES DAILEY.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
[Copyright: 1922: By The Chicago Tribune.]

PEKING, Aug. 17.—The Chinese parliament decided today not to act further under President Li Yuan Hung, whose resignation is pending. The parliament awaits the arrival of Eugene Chen, personal representative of Dr. Sun Yat Sen, who is bringing a copy of his manifesto expressing willingness to accept as acting president whomsoever is proper to function until parliament chooses a president for United China.

This announcement definitely removes Dr. Sun as a further obstructionist to the Peking government. Gen. Chang Tso Lin confirms his willingness to support Tsao Kun, a powerful Tuchun, for president, but it is a certainty that the latter is not acceptable to a large part of parliament or the people.

Wu Avoids Sun.

Shanghai reports of the conference between agents of Dr. Sun, Gen. Chang, and Gen. Wu Pei Fu prove to be untrue. Gen. Wu is not willing to meet Dr. Sun until the latter comes to Peking to acknowledge the sovereignty of the Peking government, while he certainly will not meet Gen. Chang.

Despite Dr. Sun's manifesto, China appears to be approaching further provincial independence, through the actions of the various military governors, making the perils to the present government so great it cannot last long.

Money Is Chief Need.

Kao Lin Wei refuses to leave Tientsin to assume the duties of finance minister, having found the treasury empty and practically no means to obtain funds for military and administrative expenses. Premier Wang Chung Hui has told the president that the obtaining of money immediately is the sole solution of China's problem, and, therefore, it is useless for him and the other ministers to attempt the impossible while China faces bankruptcy.

TRUE BILL VOTED IN NURSE'S DEATH BY AUTO, REPORT

True bills charging manslaughter are reported to have been voted yesterday by a grand jury in investigation of the death of Mrs. Mary Brown, an aged nurse, who was struck and fatally injured Aug. 8 in Jackson Park by an automobile owned and driven by George G. Florentine, 6959 South May street.

Florentine was exonerated by a coroner's jury at an inquest conducted by Deputy Coroner Michael G. Walsh. As the result of evidence collected by several clubwomen, friends of Mrs. Brown, who claimed that Walsh had favored Florentine at the inquest, the deputy coroner was suspended by Coroner Peter M. Hoffman and the minutes of the inquest were placed in the hands of First Assistant State's Attorney Edgar A. Jonas.

40,000 Immigrants Enter U. S. in Last Seven Weeks

Washington, D. C., Aug. 17.—Nearly 40,000 immigrants have entered the United States since July 1, the majority coming from Italy, Russia, the United Kingdom, Germany, Greece and Czecho-Slovakia, the bureau of immigration announced today in a summarization of the status of aliens entering this country under the 3 per cent restrictive immigration act. About 320,000 more can enter during the remainder of the fiscal year.

~have Resinol ready for scalds and burns

The tormenting, insistent pain of a burn or scald is quickly subdued by Resinol Ointment. Its cooling ingredients remove the inflammation, and hasten the healing. Cover the burn well with Resinol and bandage with soft gauze. In severe burns or scalds covering a large surface always send for a doctor.

Resinol products at all druggists.

Mrs. James Bell. James Bell.

It was 4:30 in the morning. "Well, dad," says Mrs. Jimmy Bell of Abrams, Wis., "guess I'd better be about milking those seven cows before I get breakfast ready." And that was exactly the program for opening the day for Mrs. Bell, who's 106 years old. "Dad" is 108 years old and still wielding a mean plow. They recently celebrated their 89th wedding anniversary and there isn't a divorce in sight, they maintain. Their grandson is Maj. Edward Schultz, 2202 Northwestern avenue, Chicago.

BREAKS CRUTCH ON PULPIT AFTER CURE BY PRAYER

Mrs. Elsie M. Burton, 1658 West 14th place, broke a crutch yesterday over the pulpit at the evangelistic meeting being held at Car Men's hall, Ashland avenue, declaring she had been miraculously healed through the prayers of the evangelist, Raymond T. Richey.

Mrs. Burton, it was said, had been an actress for years and was injured in a fall through a trap door.

Both legs were broken in the fall. She stated that after prayer she walked five miles unaided and had no more use for crutches.

HELD TO GRAND JURY FOR "CON GAME."

Ira Walker, alias Frank Evans, was held to the grand jury on $4,000 bonds on confidence game charges yesterday by Municipal Judge Joseph W. Schulman. He was accused of fraudulently obtaining $320 by posing as a government agent.

BUNDESEN DENIES VICE RECOGNITION IN HEALTH DRIVE

room—exhorting the men in a shrill voice:

"Come on, boys," she piped again and again; "come on, boys; pick a girl."

Cort Hotel a Brothel.

The Cort hotel—which is a wide open house of prostitution and not a hotel—is at 206 East Twenty-third street. It is an old red brick three story building. A ring at the bell brings a comely colored "maid," who sits on a chair just inside the door, to her feet. She opens and one enters into a dimly lighted corridor.

The corridor leads straight back to a short stairway at the head of which is a well lighted "reception room." It is not a large room, but it is not bare like the room at the "Four Deuces"; it is furnished comfortably with upholstered chairs and davenports and "rockers," like a middle class home.

Eight girls sat about among a dozen men and boys. The girls are extremely young, most of them looking to be under 20 years. A lean-faced authoratative colored woman is in charge. The girls call her Mary.

All payments, which in most cases are $2, are made to Mary; Mary takes the money and the girl gets a brass check from Mary. Later, it is understood, the girl gets a dollar for each check—the girl's share of "protection" money is deducted fom her net receipts.

During the half hour that the investigators staid in the Cort hotel, twenty-one men entered and left the place.

Building Given Over to Vice.

Less than a block from either the Four Deuces or the Cort hotel, at 2311 South Wabash avenue, is a three and one-half story building entirely given over to prostitution. There is a colored maid at the door and one on each floor. The investigators enter here into a large room, off the hall. It is an austere room; worn carpets are on the floor and four massive oak davenports, leather covered, are against the walls.

Three girls were sitting in here as the investigators entered. Others come down from upstairs, nine in all appearing. A colored housekeeper watches over the destinies of this establishment.

House of "Madame" Ellis.

"Madame" Ellis operates a busy bawdy house at 121 East 30th street. It is rather a tumbledown frame building, dark from the outside, but with a constant stream of men entering and leaving.

"Madame" Ellis is a white woman of the buxom type, with a severe, white, square face.

Eight girls were in "Madame" Ellis' place. The reception room is much like that of the Four Deuces, benches all around the walls on which the patrons sit. Against the door jamb hangs a slate on which one girl keeps records of the other girls. Twenty men were in this place when the investigators entered. Thirteen new patrons came in and as many left during a twenty minute visit.

Will the Dinosaur Lead to The Oldest Man in the World?

The Half-Million-Year-Old Java Man Restoration by J. H. MacGregor

THEY'VE done it. A band of gifted scientists have crossed the earth and put their finger "on the spot." The "spot" is the great centre of all life, in the heart of Asia. From here, science has long held, the animal life of America and Europe started its great migration. Man himself, science believes, began his evolution upward in this same "spot," hundreds of thousands of years ago.

Roy Chapman Andrews and his expedition, sent by the American Museum of Natural History, ASIA, and the American Asiatic Association, to find the origins of primitive man—with their caravan of seventy-five camels crossing the great Desert of Gobi—have just made a discovery that turns theory into reality. They have found in the heart of Mongolia dinosaur fossils almost identical with those in our own Rockies. And President Henry Fairfield Osborn of the American Museum of Natural History, declares it establishes once for all that our animal life migrated from Asia; that Asia is the great "mother of continents."

Thus at the very start of the Expedition's five years' work, one of its chief objectives is achieved. But the quest is still on for the biggest game—for man himself—for fossil remains older than the 500,000-year-old Java man, "the oldest man in the world."

Read Professor Osborn's interpretation of the world-wide significance of this discovery in the September

ASIA
The American MAGAZINE on the Orient
50 Illustrations Special insert of remarkable photographs

ASIA is a richly illustrated cross-section picture of the life and humanity of the Great Continent from which our civilization sprang and which today is at the threshold of profound influence upon the United States and the western world.

IN A PIT WITH A WILD LEOPARD

Frank Buck, one of the ablest collectors of wild animals, snakes and birds for zoos and circuses, starts this installment of his adventures mildly enough with a tea-party. He winds up in a pit with a black leopard, the fiercest of its kind. More thrilling than fiction. As valuable as a book on natural history.

ARMS AND THE MEN IN CHINA

China today lies in the hands of one man, Wu Pei-fu, General of the Third Division, a man whose hands and feet are as small as a woman's, whose modesty and bashfulness are astounding. An article on world affairs, by Rodney Gilbert, important because it gets at the heart of power in China today—important because peace or war in China affects America's international future more than we can measure.

The adventure of living together

This is the reason why 1,800,000 of us buy THE AMERICAN MAGAZINE every month. In its pages you discover me, and I discover you.

I AM YOUR WIFE. I have lived with you for a dozen years; yet underneath all our intimacy, eluding our grasp, there is something in you I don't quite understand; something in me you can't explain.

One day, in a book or magazine I am struck with a sudden ray of light. "Why didn't I think of that before?" I exclaim. And thereafter your lives and mine are different, because of what I have read.

"What God Hath Joined" is a ray of light. In THE AMERICAN MAGAZINE for September.

I AM YOUR FATHER, fifty-eight; and you are twenty-five. No matter how deep our affection, there hangs between us the eternal veil that separates age and youth. Now and then the veil is lifted a bit and I see you as you are.

"What I think and feel at 25." By F. Scott Fitzgerald. In THE AMERICAN MAGAZINE for September.

WE ARE FRIENDS who stand in sorrow beside an open grave. No one can answer fully the question that is crying in our hearts, but how eagerly we snatch at anything that promises an answer even in part!

Conan Doyle's interview, and the spirit picture of his son—published for the first time—in THE AMERICAN MAGAZINE for September.

I AM YOUR PARTNER, sharing the same office. But what do you really know of my hopes and fears, my jealousies and secret doubts—of the things I think about when the door between us is closed?

McIntyre and Heath (of Georgia Minstrel fame) have been partners for forty-eight years. And when they talk about themselves it is you they are talking about, and me.

"Partners and Friends for Forty-eight Years." In THE AMERICAN MAGAZINE for September.

So for every human relationship THE AMERICAN MAGAZINE has its message. It is not a magazine in the ordinary sense. It is life; it is us—you and me; your husband and mine; your partner and mine; your spirit and mine—in the old, new, endlessly thrilling adventure of living our lives together.

MAIL PLANE OFF ON NONSTOP TRIP TO WASHINGTON

Pilot Page Gets Sendoff by Pageant Crowds.

Today's Program at Pageant of Progress

Pageant of Progress program for Friday:

10 a. m. to 1:30 p. m.—Concert, White Wing band. West plaza.

2 to 6 p. m.—Scull races and aquaplaning, by members of Lincoln Park Boat club. North basin.

3 p. m.—Women's springboard diving championship for C. A. A. U. title.

3 p. m.—Folk dances of all nations, direction Mrs. Agnes Nering. Congress hall.

3:30 p. m.—Exhibition of flying by pilots of United States air mail service.

4:15 p. m.—Stunt flying and aerial acrobatics by Dick Cruikshank.

4:30 p. m.—Exhibition of gymnastics by Dick Seal on wings of airplane.

5 p. m.—Parachute drop of 3,000 feet by Ethel Dare.

5:30 p. m.—Attempt by Miss Chicago to break ten mile speed record.

5:45 to 7 p. m.—Single, double and four oared shell races by members of Lincoln Park Boat club.

6:30 p. m.—Concert, Elks' band, in march from club house to pier.

7:30 p. m.—Exhibition matches of horse shoe pitching by John Hogan. Bridge, near West plaza.

8:15 p. m.—Concert, Swedish Singers, director, Oscar C. J. Carlson. West plaza.

10 p. m.—Night flying by Jack Miller in lighted plane.

10:15 p. m.—Fire dive, by Jack Turner.

Leaving the Municipal pier promptly at 1 o'clock yesterday, in the sight of thousands of visitors to the second annual Pageant of Progress, an air mail plane, piloted by Randolph Page of Checkerboard field, started on its attempt to shatter the existing nonstop flight between Chicago and Washington, D. C.

At various points along the journey officials at fields passed by the plane will check the time. If the attempt succeeds, postal authorities may be led to consider that a new era in mail transmission is on its way.

Uptown Chicago Day.

The departing ship, however, shared in interest with exhibits from uptown Chicago, to which the day was officially dedicated. Merchants and families from the northern part of the city thronged the pier during the day and night.

Afternoon visitors got the thrill of their lives when Dick Seal, aerial stunt artist, and Capt. G. J. McGowan, both of the Sheldon Air school, changed seats in the plane they were riding—a trick, it is said, never accomplished heretofore. Seal performed other feats, as standing on his head on the wing of a plane and diving off a ship, grasping a rope ladder, and climbing back to his seat.

Elks Day Today.

The Elks will take over the pageant today, which has been set aside in their honor. Members of the B. P. O. E. will parade from their Washington street clubhouse to the pier in the evening. The Elks' band and folk dances of various nations, given by students under the direction of Mrs. Agnes Nering, in Congress hall, will be other features of today's program.

Rear Admiral William A. Moffett, former commandant at Great Lakes Naval Training station, will be among the visitors at the pier Sunday.

GIRLS MAROONED ON RANCH TRAVEL ON STAGE COACH

A report—an erroneous one—was flashed over the wires to a ranch at Walden, Colo., that the Overland limited was the last one to Chicago before a general railroad strike.

MISS JOSEPHINE HUMMELL.

MISS MARIE SHANAHAN.

MRS. J. W. JONES.

At the ranch were Miss Josephine Hummell, 831 North Francisco avenue, and Miss Marie Shanahan, 3545 West Thomas street. Their visit wasn't up, but they didn't like prospects of staying indefinitely in Colorado. The nearest stop of the train was Laramie, seventy-five miles distant, a trip that no automobile would make.

A stage coach, vintage of 1850, was the only vehicle at hand, and it was forthwith pressed into service. Over the mountains bumped the coach, arriving at Laramie with its passengers half a dozen hours before the train. The girls, none the worse for the rocky ride, reached Chicago yesterday.

Mrs. J. W. Jones, 919 West Sixty-eighth street, was at the Northwestern station yesterday to meet her aged mother, who was not, however, aboard the train.

LEGION NOTES

Harold A. Taylor post has suffered its first casualty in the death of Harvey C. Dennis, past vice commander. The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in Holy Name cathedral.

Advertising Men's post is giving a beach party tomorrow afternoon at Fort Sheridan. An elaborate program of entertainment has been arranged.

The three uptown Chicago American Legion posts—North Shore, Lake View and Rogers Park—will hold a joint picnic at Foss park, on the north shore, Sunday. Contests, bathing exhibitions, and a baseball game will be features. The public is invited. Take the North Shore Electric line or motor by way of Green Bay road or Sheridan road. Special trains will leave Wilson avenue elevated station at 9 and 10 a. m.

VAST THRONGS PAY LAST HONOR TO NORTHCLIFFE

BY JOHN STEELE.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

[Copyright: 1922: By The Chicago Tribune.]

LONDON, Aug. 17.—[By Tribune Wireless.]—No greater crowd ever thronged Westminster Abbey for a royal function than assembled to pay the last honors to Lord Northcliffe, noted British journalist, at the funeral service this morning. Every seat was taken and great crowds waited outside, unable to obtain admission.

It was a crowd chiefly of newspaper workers of all grades from editors of Lord Northcliffe's great journals to delivery boys, and the mourning was heartfelt, for no one ever did so much to raise the status of English journalism from the ground of the street to an honorable well paid prefession as did Lord Northcliffe, who was known as the most generous employer among British newspaper owners.

Newsboy Pays Homage.

One little incident while the hearse was on the way from his home in Carlton Gardens to the abbey illustrates this. A newspaper delivery boy on a bicycle going his rounds met the procession, doffed his cap and fell in beside the hearse, riding bareheaded to the abbey.

In addition to newspaper workers many distinguished people were present, including the American and French ambassadors, the Serbian minister, and representatives of many other embassies.

Lloyd George Represented.

Sir Edward Grigg represented Prime Minister Lloyd George. Brig. Gen. Cotter represented the Prince of Wales.

The service was conducted by Canon Carnegie, subdean of Westminster Abbey, and at its close the body was taken to Marylebone cemetery in north London, where Lord Northcliffe had expressed a wish to be buried.

ELECTROCUTED BY LAMP.

Emil Greiner, 4718 North Spaulding avenue, was electrocuted yesterday afternoon at the National Beverage plant, Lincoln and 18th streets. An extension lamp became short-circuited.

Truth about Lord Northcliffe

Just returned from his triumphant trip around the world, the richest and most powerful newspaper man in all Europe engaged in one last bitter dispute with the British Premier. Lloyd George, who is by no means the first statesman Northcliffe made—or unmade—will certainly be the last. Though he actively managed nearly a hundred publications—ranging from the famous London "Times" and "Daily Mail" with 2,000,000 circulation a day to the "Children's Encyclopedia," Lord Northcliffe's greatest strength never lay in his newspapers. WHERE? Read the real facts in Hearst's International for September. More fascinating than any novel—an intimate personal study of an astounding man, by Norman Angell, for ten years one of Northcliffe's trusted editors.

A Fight in St. Bartholomew's

WHAT would happen next Sunday morning if Christ, himself, with a few lowly followers, walked up the aisle of our most fashionable church? Read what did happen in Upton Sinclair's new and sensational novel "They Call Me Carpenter!" Read how differently the different newspapers reported the disturbance. Read in Hearst's International for September how "John Doe Carpenter" was ejected from his own church and thrown into the city prison as an anarchist!

The Better Wife

A Novel of a Woman Who Found Herself

SHE felt like other women, thought like other women—and yet her terrible past, cruelly forced upon her—would not down! This is only one of the three great novels—by Gouverneur Morris, Upton Sinclair, and Sir Gilbert Parker—in Hearst's International for September. You will find also seven sparkling short stories. As a magazine of Fiction alone Hearst's International should go at the very top of your reading list. Try it this month!

Henry Swallows Old Bait

HENRY FORD'S whole PROOF of a world-wide Jew Conspiracy was founded on a certain Protocols. Did you know these costly documents were: (1) complete forgeries. (2) discredited in four languages before reaching Detroit. (3) copied out of a 60 year old book that had nothing to do with the Jews. For the silliest folly of all the JEW-MANIA, read the latest of Norman Hapgood's sensational series in September Hearst's International.

Is Your Country Club Immoral?

IS your Country Club more immoral than a Broadway Dance Hall? Is it worse for your young son or daughter than an uptown Cabaret? Down to Frank Ward O'Malley on his quiet New Jersey farm came the news that the world was getting wickeder and wickeder. Naturally he could not withstand the temptation to go onto Broadway and see for himself. What he found in New York's Night Life he tells you in "SINNING IN SILKS and SANCTITY" in Hearst's International for September. In the same great number, read "Peggy," "In the New York Manner," "When a Girl's Thirty," and "The Gioconda Smile," four of the seven unusual short stories to be found only in this magazine.

WORKING with Norman Hapgood to make Hearst's International the most distinguished magazine in the world is Will Bradley, famed for his skill in design. In the September number he has created in picture, type, and brilliant colors a magazine to delight your eye.

Can You Trust Your Doctor?

WITH nearly fifty thousand remedies to choose from, no wonder all but the soundest doctors fall into handing over—as a personal prescription—some skillfully exploited patent cure! No wonder hundreds of thousands of people prescribe for themselves across the drug counter.

Nothing in your life is more important than the choice of a doctor. Whether you choose for your family an alert up-to-date physician or a respectable quack may mean the difference between happiness and utter misery!

DOCTORS and DRUG MONGERS—the first of a series by Dr. Paul R. de Kruif, in Hearst's International for September, tells in clear, simple language the exact principles that will guide you safely in the choice of a doctor. And every mother or father, every responsible guardian, every man or woman, who must know how his doctor measures up, will find this article absolutely beyond the value of money!

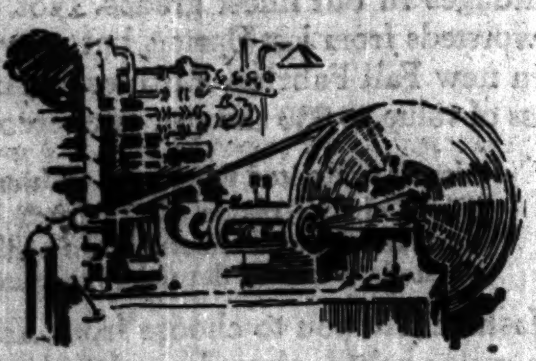
It's COOL In The Tribune's Want Ad Store



TO enhance the comfort of its Want Ad patrons and to increase the efficiency of its service rendered there, The Tribune has installed, at the cost of many thousands of dollars, a refrigerating and ventilating system in its Want Ad Store on the main floor of The Tribune Building at Madison and Dearborn Streets. No matter what the temperature may be outside, a thermostatic control maintains it at 70° in The Tribune Want Ad Store, where the atmosphere is constantly being replaced with washed, cooled, purified air at the rate of 8,000 cubic feet per minute, which means that patrons of The Tribune Want Ad Store transact their business in an atmosphere that is cool, wholesome, and invigorating.

SARAZEN TO PLAY FRENCH IN "PRO" GOLF MEET FINAL

BY JOE DAVIS.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Aug. 17.—[Special.]—Gene Sarazen, national open golf champion, professional at the Highlands club, Pittsburgh, birthplace Rye, N. Y., and Emmet French of the Youngstown Country club of Ohio, a native Philadelphian, are finalists in the annual tournament of the Professional Golfers' association.

BOB CRUICKSHANK [TRIBUNE Photo.]

In the semi-finals at Oakmont Country club today Sarazen defeated Bobby Cruickshank, Shackamaxon club, New Jersey, 3 and 2, and French won from John Golden, Tuxedo club, New York, 8 and 7. The crucial match tomorrow will be for the title purses of $500 and $250, the champion getting a doamond studded medal and the runner-up a gold medal.

Sarazen Match Features.

The meeting of the two little giants of the links, Sarazen and Cruickshank, each ranging skywards about 5 feet 4 inches, was the star attraction of the day, and the medium of another round of superlative golf by the Pittsburgh professional.

Those who suggested that Gene's hard game against Jock Hutchison Wednesday might have taken the edge off his game were off in their guesses, as he played super golf on the first nine holes, turning in a card of 32 and taking a lead of 4 up. The fighting spirit of his Scotch ancestors was running in Bobbie's veins, however, and after Sarazen had won the tenth hole, the little Scotchman won back four straight holes and rehabilitated his position.

Sarazen's Play Strong.

The youngsters are making the old adage, par golf is winning golf, a little weak in the knees. The weather again was ideal but extremely humid in the afternoon. After such a great battle in the morning the afternoon duel was looked forward to with interest, but Cruickshank got off to a poor start by losing the first hole. Then, fighting gamely every yard of the route he halved six holes in succession, but lost the short eighth by missing a three foot putt. Fortune favored him at the ninth where he overplayed his approach putt and then came back and laid Sarazen a dead stymie and got a half in 5. This left Sarazen 4 up with nine to play.

Cruikshank got a horse shoe half at the tenth, for after pulling into a trap and getting a short out, he shot his third into a wagon at the right of the green. Referee Fownes permitted him to drop out, and he pitched his fourth dead, and got a half in 5 when Gene took three putts.

Sarazen Forfeits a Hole.

A nine foot putt gave Bobbie a birdie three at the eleventh, reducing the lead against him to 3. There was even a prospect of a tight finish when Sarazen, after a badly pulled second at the long twelfth, pitched into a trap near the green. Bobbie had a three feet putt for a win in 5 and missed it. They halved the thirteenth, but at the fourteenth Bobbie was trapped on his tee shot, losing 6 to 4.

An unusual happening came at the next hole where Sarazen was trapped. After he had holed a twelve foot putt for a 5 Bobbie claimed Gene had soled his club in the trap after making his shot. Referee Fownes allowed the claim, and the hole went to Cruickshank. This delayed the end, but a half in four at the sixteenth settled the mach. Cards:

French Outplays Golden.

French outplayed Golden most of the day. The loser was one of the players who finished in the money at the open championship at Skokie, and is regarded as a good money player. In the morning he was hitting his tee shots badly.

FITZGERALD IS LOSER IN STATE GOLF TOURNEY

W. A. Fitzgerald, Jackson Park, joint medalist with Walter Crowe of Briergate in the qualifying round of the Illinois amateur championship tournament at Columbus park, and later winner of the playoff, expired yesterday in the second round of match play. Crowe advanced to the third round, which will be played today.

Two rounds will be played today, which will make the deciding contest in the championship flight tomorrow a thirty-six hole affair. Summary:

TWO TIME VICTOR

Miss Mercedes Bush of Westmoreland for the second time in three years wins the women's western junior golf championship over the home course.

WOMEN'S JUNIOR GOLF TITLE TO MISS BUSH

Playing over the home course, Miss Mercedes Bush yesterday at Westmoreland won the women's western junior championship title for the second time in three years. Her previous victory was at Beverly in 1920 in the inaugural event.

Miss Bush defeated Miss Virginia Wilson, Onwentsia, 4 and 2, in a match that was featured by fine driving on the part of both, good putting by Miss Wilson, and Miss Bush's final burst of speed rounding the turn, where she won three holes in a row, the tenth and eleventh in women's par and the twelfth in men's par. The match ended at the sixteenth green.

Miss Bush assumed the advantage at the seventh, where Miss Wilson drove out of bounds, but lost the eighth by driving into spaded ground near a tree, for which no local rule had been made. At the ninth Miss Wilson missed another short putt and turned 1 down, with a medal card of 49 against Miss Bush's 48.

It would have taken a seasoned champion to outplay Miss Bush on the next three holes. She equaled women's par at the tenth and eleventh, Miss Wilson being one stroke over at each. At the twelfth Miss Bush played the hole in men's par, while her opponent played in perfect figures for women. This gave the new champion a commanding lead, although she lost the thirteenth by driving out of bounds.

After halving the next two, Miss Wilson lost her last opportunity by driving out of bounds at the sixteenth.

Miss Bush also won the prize for putting in the second day's play and the low qualifying medal. She will probably pass from the junior ranks this fall, as she expects to compete in the women's western tournament next month at St. Louis. The cards:

Miss Bush, out......	6	5	5	4	5	5	6	5	5—46
Miss Wilson, out.....	5	6	5	4	5	7	8	3	6—49

WILLIE HUNTER NOT INELIGIBLE

New York, Aug. 17.—Officials of the United States Golf association are waiting for W. I. Hunter, former British amateur golf champion, to enter the forthcoming United States national amateur tournament before ruling on his status as an amateur, it was learned today. He has not yet been declared ineligible, it is stated, but officials of the association confirm reports that the entry of George Von Elm of Salt Lake City in the national amateur tournament has been rejected.

Hilda James Breaks 400 Meter Swim Record

New York, Aug. 17.—[Special.]—Miss Hilda James, English swimming star, set an American record in the 400 meter race at the weekly swim at the Madison Square garden pool under the auspices of the Metropolitan Athletic association tonight. Her record breaking time was 6 minutes 18 3-5 seconds.

ON LOCAL LINKS

E. A. MAGINNIS of the home club, shooting four of the most consistent rounds of the year, emerged yesterday with 73—71—73—78—295, for low gross prize in the Edgewater annual Hy Jinx tournament. Kenneth H. Burns of Glen View, with 79—76—75—73—303, won the prize for second low gross score at seventy-two holes. Other winners:

Low gross Thursday afternoon—H. O. Bartholomay, Edgewater, 79; low net, George Nixon, Edgewater, 66.

LAKE SHORE.

Eddie Loos, professional at the Lake Shore Country club, yesterday smashed the course record two strokes, having a 67 against the 69 negotiated several years ago by Jim Barnes in a Red Cross exhibition match. Loos was paced by Harold Fordman, holder of the club title.

OLYMPIA FIELDS.

Olympians and their guests finished the annual Olympiad tournament yesterday, Ralph Hoagland winning the prize for low gross at fifty-four holes, with rounds of 74, 78, and 75, for a total of 227.

Kenneth Hisert, a club attaché and recent winner of the western junior championship title, was the sharpshooter yesterday, winning low gross prize for thirty-six holes, with 72—76—148.

Lee Thiltges, holder of the club title at Calumet, was second with 36—37—73.

Other prize winners in the event were: First low net, thirty-six holes—L. J. Flood, 133; second low net, Morton Cahill, 134; third low net, B. C. Ackley; fourth low net, Arthur Howell, 138.

Low gross score over the No. 1 course—E. B. Harwood, 78.

Low gross score over the No. 2 course—F. T. Bangs, 75.

GOSSOON WINS FIRST LIPTON CUP HONORS

BY HUGH FULLERTON.

Gossoon, perfectly sailed and skippered, won the first honors in the Lipton cup races yesterday, beating Yank by almost a minute in one of the most closely contested races in the history of the classic.

Sari, outfooted and beaten in the jockeying at several turns, was third, and the two regularly rigged R boats—Rainbow and Colleen—followed them home, less than fifteen minutes separating first and last yachts to cross the line.

In the prevailing light airs the first day's contest over the triangular course off Belmont harbor, the old leg of mutton sails, rechristened Marconis, showed a vast superiority over the two R class boats using the old style sails, and they were favored by wind and weather.

Test of Sailing Skill.

As a sailing contest the race, twice around the triangular course, was beautiful. With the winds light and in the southeast, the sea almost level, it was a test of skill and sailing ability in which the honors went largely to Gossoon and Rainbow.

By winning the first race, Gossoon leads in the score, with two more days of racing over changing courses left to decide the event and Yank's title as champion.

The start, delayed for half an hour by a fierce squall of rain and wind which swept the harbor, was perfect, Rainbow, handled by Hank Rubinkam, shot across the line a second ahead of Yank, but immediately Yank, outfooting the entire fleet, piled up a lead, with Gossoon hanging on, but being outfooted so much that its effort to blanket the leader was futile.

Yachts Separate at Turn.

Half a mile out Sari came about and in the light winds the yachts separated, but within a few minutes all came about and followed Yank. Rainbow stood off to the north looking for wind, which was its only hope against the Marconis. Gossoon stood off to the south, picked up a breeze and boiled past Yank, leading around the first buoy by fifty feet.

Gossoon was slowed in throwing out its jib and lost ground, but on the southward leg gained steadily, only to be outsailed at the end of the leg. They hooked around the second buoy with Yank not more than six feet ahead. Gossoon then lost headway, but in running north gradually wore down Yank and turned for the second round five boat lengths to the good.

Yank Gains Some Ground.

Starting around the second mark the second time, Yank gained largely by refusing to jockey with Gossoon, which was fourteen seconds ahead. Gossoon soon lost its advantage, and a few hundred yards past the mark Yank crossed its bows.

But from there on it was a struggle, with Gossoon outsailing its rival. The two yachts were within a few feet of each other at the final turn, and when Gossoon, swinging around the mark twenty feet in the lead, broke out its light canvas faster than its rival and started the run for the home stake, outfooting Yank in the last mile, winning by thirty-nine seconds.

The second race of the Lipton series will be held this afternoon. The course will be windward or leeward, three miles and twice around. Summaries of the race, with the start at 2:30 o'clock:

Boat—	Finish.	Elapsed time.	Points.
Gossoon	5:28:53	2:58:53	100
Yank	5:29:32	2:59:32	80

900 ENTRIES MADE IN PET STOCK SHOW AT FAIR.

NINE hundred entries have been made by pet stock breeders of Cook and adjoining counties in the Great Chi-Cook fair at Maywood, Aug. 26 to Sept. 4. Many more exhibitors are expected to enter their rabbits, pigeons, and cavies before the entries close Saturday, Aug. 26. Bert E. Rogers, director of the pet stock show, says he can supply breeders with entry blanks at the fair's offices at 31 West Lake street, Chicago.

The Chicago Rabbit club and the National Rabbit club have both indorsed the rabbit exhibit and offer prizes in twenty-one rabbit classes.

Among the entries already listed is a shipment of Belgium hares now on the way from England belonging to William J. Barnes, a Chicago rabbit breeder at 6909 South Robey street. This will be one of the choice exhibits, according to G. W. Turner, superintendent of the rabbit division. More than 300 entries of rabbits have been made by Chicago breeders and breeders in Cook and adjoining counties.

The American Cavey club rules will govern the judging and entries in the cavey division which is being supervised by H. H. Bussian, who will give a cup to the best type of Silver Agouti.

Bob Joos, director of the Chicago kind in the country at this time of the year. Cash premiums amounting to more than $350 are offered in the Pigeon club, says that from present indications the Maywood fair will have the largest exhibit of pigeons of its pigeon division.

FOUR TEAMS SURVIVE IN WOMEN'S DOUBLES

Forest Hills, N. Y., Aug. 18.—Four teams advanced to the semi-finals round in the women's national doubles tennis championship on the turf of the West Side club today.

Through today's victories, Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, New York, and Miss Edith Sigourney, Boston, will meet Miss Clare Cassel, Elberon, N. J., and Miss Marie Wagner, New York, and Mrs. Marion Z. Jessup, Wilmington, Del., and Miss Helen Wills, San Francisco, will meet Mrs. Bundy, Los Angeles, and Miss Helen Hooker, Greenwich, Conn., tomorrow.

Mrs. Bundy and Miss Hooker had a difficult time overcoming Miss Gladys C. Hutchings, Bermuda champion, and Miss Katherine Gardner, Boston, in a three set match, 6—3, 7—9, 6—4, but Mrs. Bundy's superior all around game was too much for the less experienced combination.

In their match against Mrs. Harry Bickle Toronto, and Mrs. Frank Godfrey, Boston, Mrs. Molla B. Mallory, and Miss Edith Sigourney, had an easier time, though they were hard put in the second set. The score was 6—2, 6—4.

Thorpe to Head All-Indian "Pro" Eleven at Marion, O.

Marion, O., Aug. 17.—[Special.]—A check for $1,000 has been forwarded to the head of the professional football league at Dayton, by the Marion Athletic association to insure this city's representation in the National Football league for the coming season. Marion's team will be made up entirely of Indians, headed by Jim Thorpe.

Entry Blanks Out for Open City Tennis Title Tourney

Entry blanks are being distributed for the annual open city tennis tournament which starts at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, Aug. 27, and the junior track and field meet for boys and girls under 19 years old, scheduled for 1:30 on the same afternoon. Both events are under the sponsorship of Jewish Peoples institute, 1256 West Taylor street, where entries will close Aug. 24.

JOHNSTON, KELLEHER IN CASINO NET FINAL

Newport, R. I., Aug. 17.—"Little Bill" Johnston of San Francisco, winning advance to the final round of the Casino singles tennis tournament today, found himself facing H. G. Kelleher, New York, a few years out of Harvard, in the final round tomorrow.

Kelleher's advance to the final was the result of good play against players of fair standing, and was the result, too, of the collapse of the seeded scheme in the lower half, due largely to the default of R. Norris Williams II. Kelleher's qualifying match in the semi-final round was with N. W. Niles, Boston, the scores being 7—5, 3—6, 6—3.

"Little Bill" was in his best stroke of the season, playing H. O. Kinsey, also of San Francisco. In the two sets, decided 6—2, 6—3, he was kept busy by the dexterous top spin player, but finished off with telling points in the pinches.

Three of the foreign players were finally eliminated from the tournament by defeats in the doubles play. Andre Gobert and Jean Borotra of France, went out together in the liveliest match of the tournament, defeated by their own compatriot, Henri Cochet, and N. W. Niles. It was a straight set result, 6—4, 7—5, but full of sparkling shots in which all shared. R. C. Wertheim of Australia, playing with H. C. Johnson of Boston, made a serious bid to gain the semi-final round, but after winning, 6—4, they were turned back in succeeding sets by H. O. Kinsey and R. Kinsey of San Francisco, 6—4, 6—3.

AUSTRALIA AND SPAIN DIVIDE IN DAVIS CUP PLAY

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 17.—Australia and Spain broke even today in the opening matches of the final round of Davis cup play. Gerald L. Patterson, the Antipodean tennis ace, defeated Count Manuel de Gomar, 6—3, 3—6, 6—3. Then Manuel Alonzo brought Spain prominently into the picture, defeating Pat O'Hara Wood in a sensational comeback, 2—6, 3—6, 6—2, 8—6, 6—1.

GERALD PATTERSON. [Und. & Und. Photo.]

The victory of the lithe Spaniard carries the final decision over until Saturday, since a win for either nation in the doubles match tomorrow will still leave the standing one contest short of a decisive result.

Patterson Easy Winner.

It was Alonzo who furnished the thrills this afternoon. Patterson always held the control in the match with De Gomar and showed but flashes of his best form. He was clearly superior to his Spanish rival, and in the third set appeared to actually loaf at times.

Sparks began to fly, however, as soon as O'Hara Wood and Alonzo crossed racquets. The Spaniard was as active as a cat and refused to concede a single shot until he had tried desperately for a return. O'Hara Wood had remarkable control of his shots and service in the first two sets and although every exchange was fought to a finish, he appeared to always have just enough in reserve to pursue the winning point.

Alonzo Increases Speed.

Alonzo, however, grew faster and surer as the play progressed and, although O'Hara Wood did not appear to be particularly worried when the Spaniard won the third set, he became distinctly upset when Alonzo fought him to a standstill in the crucial fourth, which went to the Spaniard at 8—6.

It was in this session that Alonzo reached tennis playing heights which would have done credit to the foremost ranking American player. He stood up before the fastest drives and service of his opponent and turned them back with a speed and precision that brought round after round of applause from the gallery of more than a thousand spectators.

O'Hara Wood tired visibly in the fifth set and faded out of the picture rapidly. At the conclusion of the match Alonzo ran over to his opponent and embraced the Australian in true Latin fashion.

TRIBUNE DECISIONS

Decisions of Tribune boxing representatives are:

At Newark, N. J.—Gene Tunney beat Charlie Weinert [12].

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

FLOYD FITZSIMMONS.

Michigan City, Ind., Aug. 17.—[Special.]—Whether the boxing match between Jack Dempsey, white heavyweight champion, and Bill Brennan of Chicago will be permitted to take place in Floyd Fitzsimmons' bowl here on Labor day probably will be determined tomorrow, when a delegation of Michigan City business men call upon Gov. McCray and attempt to show him the match will be strictly a ten round boxing exhibition and not a prize fight.

Contrary to reports, no instructions have been sent to Sheriff Anstiss of Laporte county by the governor to stop the contest. Neither did Floyd Fitzsimmons call on the executive in Indianapolis. Promoter Fitzsimmons accompanied Bill Brennan to Anderson, Ind., last night when the challenger gave a boxing exhibition before the American Legion.

Think Governor Has Been Misled.

Business men of this town appreciate the severe strain which the governor has passed through in the coal and rail strike. They are taking into consideration the many anonymous letters he has received threatening his life because he called out troops in the southern part of the state.

On top of this they maintain the boxing situation in Michigan City has been misrepresented, and for this reason they intend to call on him tomorrow to submit the facts in the case.

The delegation will be fortified with resolutions adopted by the Michigan City chamber of commerce, Rotary club, and Elks, and a petition signed by the leading business men of the city of the dunes. Members of the delegation will attempt to show the state executive how the merchants have laid in supplies to take care of the many out of town visitors who are sure to see the exhibition. If the contest is canceled the merchants will suffer a loss on their goods.

Former Shows Well Conducted.

The business men and merchants will also try to show the governor that no excess charge has been made for meals, rooms, or anything else at any of the former contests. In fact, the town was placarded with posters stating that any overcharge should be reported to the police or the chamber of commerce. The shows have been well conducted and there has not been a semblance of the disorder which has characterized some of the larger boxing matches held throughout the country.

This little city on the south shore of Lake Michigan is trying to get on the map. The leading citizens are loyal athletic fans and are eager to support anything which will be of help to the community. Authorities claim the last two shows have been held within the law and have been a credit to the city.

No Orders from Governor.

Sheriff Anstiss stated today he had received no instructions from the governor to interfere with the show, despite reports to the contrary. He asserted the last two shows have been conducted well within the law and he sees no reason why the coming match cannot be handled likewise.

The mayor of Michigan City and other local authorities are keen for the match. In fact, the mayor has sent a personal letter to the governor informing him that the last two shows were among the cleanest exhibitions of any sort held in the city during his term of office.

At any rate, some sort of definite answer which will settle the question one way or other should come out of Indianapolis tomorrow. The local delegation does not intend to force the issue. It will place the matter before the state's chief executive in a clean, above board manner and it then will be up to the governor to act.

Boxers Are Not Worrying.

Dempsey and Brennan are not worrying a great deal. Managers of both boxers have informed Promoter Fitzsimmons they do not want a penny for training expenses if the show is stopped. They realize such pressure is generally brought to bear upon governors before all important exhibitions, and when the pending contest is presented in its proper form tomorrow they believe the governor will permit the exhibition.

GOVERNOR'S ATTITUDE

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 17.—[By the Associated Press.]—Gov. McCray made official announcement today that the match between Jack Dempsey and Bill Brennan, scheduled for Michigan City, Ind., on Labor day, will not be held.

"The fight will not take place," the governor said.

Whether the bout will be called off by the promoters or direct action by the governor will be required has not been determined. If Laporte county officials have not acted by tomorrow afternoon, however, the governor is expected to send a letter to Sheriff W. E. Anstiss directing him to stop the bout.

When told that Sheriff Anstiss and Earl Rowley, Laporte county prosecuting attorney have announced they will take no action in regard to stopping the bout, the governor said:

"They have not heard from me yet."

Statements of promoters of the bout that the affair is a boxing exhibition and not a prize fight are not taken seriously by the governor.

MARTIN ARRIVES TODAY FOR BOUT WITH SCHMADER

Bob Martin, A. E. F. heavyweight champion, who will meet Andy Schmader of Omaha, Atlantic fleet titleholder in the main event of the second show of Jim Mullen's four day boxing carnival which starts at Aurora Tuesday night, will arrive in Chicago today and work at the Arcade tomorrow.

This match has stirred up a lot of interest among ex-service men and it will be the first good heavyweight match staged in Aurora this summer. It will be the army against the navy and indications are the largest crowd of the carnival will be on hand to see the big fellows.

Sammy Mandell of Rockford, who will meet Frankie Garcia of Memphis in the main bout of the opening day's show, is working daily at the Arcade. Joe Burman and Eddie Anderson, principals in the windup of the last day's show, are also hard at work at the Arcade, while Champ Ross and Harold Smith, who trade punches on the third day, are in training at different gymnasiums.

According to Promoter Mullen, the show is attracting a lot of attention, and with the many boxing fans who will attend the fair, the promoter expects to show to capacity crowds on each night.

BROWNS WIN IN NINTH.

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 17.—[Special.]—Bill Gleason put his two star hurlers to work today, but got nothing in return. In the first half of a double bill with the Red Sox, Urban Faber, despite a great effort, took a ten round trimming, 3 to 2, while in the afterpiece Gorham Leverett was crushed under a 5 and 1 count.

The first game was distressing to behold. The Chicagoans exploded base hits with reckless abandon off Herb Pennock's offerings, but nothing happened. Altogether fourteen blows were uncorked against the left hander, whereas Faber permitted only seven, and was beaten. However, Gleason's men didn't get any breaks, the Red Sox making lucky stabs of drives just about the time a flock of runs seemed imminent.

Ferguson Hurls 5 Hit Game.

In the second affair the visitors were decidedly docile. All they could collect off a punk pitcher like Alex Ferguson was three hits. On the other hand, Leverett was clouted all in a bunch in the sixth, when he gave three passes and helped the foe to four runs. Hodge arrived to finish the inning, and in the eighth was frisked for Boston's remaining tally.

The pale hose got away with a one run lead in the first game by scoring in the opening inning on a double by Mulligan, a force out, and Sheeley's single. This lead was good only until the third, when a pass to Walters and Faber's mental lapse on Pennock put two on with none gone. They scored when Burns doubled.

Breaks Go Against Sox.

The Sox tied it again in the sixth on a pass to Sheeley, a couple of scratch hits and Schalk's fly. They should have had more in the seventh. With two on and none out, Burns came in to get a possible bunt. Hooper crossed him and swung. The ball shot at Burns, who got it in his glove, although his only aim was to protect himself. Collins was doubled off first on it. They also should have scored in the ninth when Collins singled and Hooper doubled. The former could have gone home, but stopped at third and the next two batters couldn't help him.

Just as in the first game, the Sox inaugurated the scoring in the afterpiece, getting a run in the second on Hooper's double and McClellan's fly. After that they were through, and Boston clinched it when Leverett fell to pieces in the sixth.

IN the WAKE of the NEWS

TURF REMINISCENCES.

"JACK SHEEHAN'S Selections for a dime! All the winners today for ten cents, if you want to back 'em," was a familiar call around Chicago racetracks twenty years ago.

Printed on a green card were two selections in each race, with instructions to play the second horse if the first one was scratched. The boys took the proceeds of their sales as soon as they had enough to make a bet and followed their own dope.

One day, at Harlem, Sheehan picked five of six winners, his selection in the first race finished third, and the others won at prices ranging from 4 to 5 to 4 to 1. Coming in on the train, one kid touched me for supper money.

"You surely are not broke tonight," I said.

"Clean," he answered. "I bet the works on the first. Slim put in four bits with me on the next and we rode along until I had twenty bucks to bet on the last. Cartwright [Marcus] laid against my horse, Ruth, and held out Grey Goose and bet a chunk on him. Think of me falling for a tout like that. I went to Grey Goose. Ruth won by three muddy lengths."

I gave him supper money, for I'd done just such things myself.

The Tipster's Reason.

In the days of racing, The Wake once attempted to be facetious with a tipster by asking him why he gave the public the benefit of his selections (for a consideration) instead of playing them himself and thus getting a better price (the latter being fine irony on our part).

"Well, you see," he replied, "if I took the bankrolls from all the bookies, there wouldn't be any more bookmaking, and then my tipping business would go to smash."

The logic was lacking, but it was as good an answer as any.

Remedies for Hay Fever.

Dear Harvey: H. M. sends out a cry for hay fever cure. Having used cures for many years, I offer this:

Of serums strong I've been jabbed full,
Twelve seasons have I tried them.
Hay fever cures I hear about,
And go right out and buy them.
You ask for something that is good,

BY FRANK SCHREIBER.

After fooling around for six innings, during which time they gathered only one run and four hits, the Bears put across their usual big inning yesterday, scoring six runs in the seventh, enough for a 7 to 2 victory and a clean sweep of the series with the Boston Braves. The victory shoved the Bears up another notch, into a tie for second place with the Cardinals, who were defeated by Brooklyn at St. Louis.

Joe Oeschger, Nappy Mitchell's big right hander, was on the slab for Boston and Oeschger was right for six innings. Two two baggers, one by Grimes in the second and one by Krug in the fifth, went to waste, while two singles and a sacrifice scored a lone tally in the sixth. Oeschger blew up higher than a kite in the seventh and six Cubs felt the rubber.

Stueland Pitches Good Game.

George Stueland, the Sioux Falls, S. D., lad, started for Killefer's klan and turned in a good job, although touched for two runs in the seven innings he worked. He was yanked to let Barber bat for him during the big attack and Percy Jones wound up the fray. During Stueland's reign the Braves put across their seven hits, Jones holding the Beantown athletes hitless in the eighth and ninth.

Sparkling fielding on the part of the Bears helped turn back the Braves with regularity. Capt. Hollocher was a speed artist in cutting down hard drives, while Arnold Staatz covered more than his share of the outfield. Staatz's perfect throw to the plate in the fourth cut off a Boston run and sent Mitchell into a near fit. The Braves gathered three hits in this frame but nary a run.

Braves Off in Lead.

The Braves hopped off to a one run lead in the second through two singles and a sacrifice. They added their second tally in the seventh on Terry's boot of Oeschger's grounder and Kopf's triple.

Singles by Staatz and Hollocher and a squeeze play, put over by Zeb Terry's perfect bunt, gave the Bears their first marker in the sixth and then came the big inning.

Heathcote opened with a single. Friberg sacrificed and Krug singled. O'Farrell was passed and Barber, batting for Stueland, slapped a sharp one down to Holke, who muffed, and Heathcote counted. Then Oeschger heaved wildly and Krug scored. Staatz walked and Hollocher was hit, forcing O'Farrell across. Terry singled, counting Barber and Staatz scored when O'Neill missed the throwin. Hollocher counted the final run on Grimes' scarifice fly. Six runs, "nuff sed."

All set for the pace setting Giants today at 3 o'clock.

"SHUFFLING PHIL" SHUFFLES HOME; DODGES NEIGHBORS

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—[Special.]—Phil Douglas, pitcher, barred from organized baseball because of an alleged offer to "throw down" the Giants, returned to his Washington Heights home tonight. He brushed past friends and neighbors and shut himself in his apartment. Mrs. Douglas declared, after Phil's return, that she thought he had been the victim of a "frameup," and that she and Phil's friends were conducting an investigation.

GIANTS BAT HARD TO BEAT PIRATES, 6 TO 3

Pittsburgh, Pa., Aug. 17.—Savage hitting gave New York a 6 to 3 victory over Pittsburgh today. McQuillan was hit hard, but received glittering support. Carey and Russell hit home runs inside the field. Carlson was put out of the game in the ninth by Umpire O'Day for protesting a decision and Glazner finished the game. Score:

DOUGLAS EXPOSE MAY MEAN BRAND NEW B.B. SCANDAL

Pittsburgh, Pa., Aug. 17.—[Special.]—With the sudden departure last night of Baseball Commissioner K. M. Landis for Chicago and President John Heydler of the National league for Cincinnati, the latest scandal brew in baseball over "Shuffling" Phil Douglas simmered down to a quiet boil today.

There were sensational rumors flying about, but few facts on which to hang them. Heydler went to Cincinnati, there to investigate further the story sent out recently by a press association that the National league race had been "fixed" for Pittsburgh to win and New York to lose. The league president, during his stay here, interviewed every local baseball writer in an endeavor to find out if the story came from this city and, if so, who sent it out.

Theory of Douglas Case.

Heydler's activities here and his departure for Cincinnati gave rise to the following theory of the Douglas case: That Douglas approached, or was approached by, a player or gambler with the proposition that he (Douglas) quit the Giants. In some manner, it is said, this matter came to the knowledge of a Pittsburgh writer, who communicated the facts to the news association, which sent out the story. President Heydler, investigating the report, stumbled over the clew to Douglas, notified the New York club, and the exposé followed.

In some quarters credence was placed in Douglas' assertion before leaving here last night that he had been approached first in the affair and had a letter to show to Commissioner Landis as proof of this. If true, this would indicate that outside interests, probably gamblers, took steps to get Douglas out of baseball.

Another Scandal Brewing.

Should Douglas prove this to Landis, a widespread scandal, such as followed the "black sox" exposé, might take place, involving interests similar to those which corrupted the 1919 world series.

It was held by some today that Douglas had been "double crossed" by gamblers, who got him to write the letter and then exposed him to the baseball authorities, thus forcing him from baseball without having to pay a cent to Shuffin' Phil. In any event, Douglas' act of writing the letter showed simple ignorance rivaling that of the "black sox" players who were "double crossed" by gamblers.

Treasurer Sam Dreyfuss of the Pittsburgh club denied today that the club or any of its players were involved in the scandal. The belief is growing that it may have been a Cincinnati player whom Douglas is alleged to have approached.

With the explosion now twenty-four hours old, followers of the Giants began figuring the damage done to the team's pennant chances. Nehf is McGraw's only reliable pitcher; Scott and McQuillan are uncertain prospects, and Ryan and Jess Barnes are in and outers. If the Giants win it will require supreme generalship by McGraw and careful juggling of his available slab men.

A REITERATION

"There isn't much to say about the Douglas case," Commissioner Landis said last night when approached on the subject of the dismissal of the big New York pitcher from organized baseball.

"Douglas has been placed on the ineligible list by the New York team," the commissioner continued, "and this action by the New York club ends the matter. Douglas' case as it stands now does not call for any action from my office. If, however, Douglas comes to me with any additional evidence to that presented to me in Pittsburgh, I will give him an audience. We must keep the game clean."

HEARST FIGHTS "AL" SMITH FOR GOVERNORSHIP

New York, Aug. 17.—[Special.]—William Randolph Hearst and Mayor Hylan today complicated further the already very much mixed Democratic gubernatorial situation—Mr. Hearst in a statement to the newspapers offering to support Hylan for governor, and the mayor by declining the offer.

The publisher, in his statement, began an open fight on Al Smith and all "conservative Democrats" in response to the challenge flung at him by the former governor in his letter of Tuesday to Franklin D. Roosevelt offering to accept the nomination for governor if the Syracuse convention tendered it to him.

Hylan Drafted by Gotham.

Mr. Hearst suggested Hylan for governor and said he would run for any office on the Hylan ticket if asked to do so by the mayor. Hylan replied that he would not accept a state nomination "under any circumstances," and repeated the statement he has made several times that he is "under contract to serve the people of New York city for four years."

The mayor refused to commit himself on Smith's candidacy, saying that was for the people of the state to decide.

With Smith and Hearst in the open, fighting each other, and the upstate leaders lining up behind them as local conditions warrant, the situation is more than ever squarely up to Charles F. Murphy. So far nobody knows where he stands, and every statement as to his attitude is said by leaders who are in his confidence to be purely guesswork.

What He Thinks of Smith.

The outstanding features of the Hearst letter follow:

1. Smith is spoken of as a strong, conservative candidate, satisfactory to the "great interests behind Gov. Miller."

2. Hylan is praised as a man who has represented the fight of the public against the interests.

3. No promise is given to support Smith if he is nominated at Syracuse, and the declaration made that Smith could not have won in 1918 except with Hearst's support.

4. Absolute and final refusal of Hearst to run for United States senator on a ticket with Smith, but agreement to run for any office on same ticket with Hylan.

5. Threat of a third party if the Democrats fail to name Hylan or some other candidate satisfactory to Hearst. The threat is implied rather than stated, but is unmistakable.

"POOR RICH BOY" HAS TO ASK COURT TO GET RADIO SET

Pity 12 years old Raymond Clarke Ashby Jr., "poor little rich boy" who, before he could spend a few dollars from his $1,000,000 estate for purchase of a radio set, was compelled to seek permission of Probate Judge John Burns yesterday.

The boy is sole heir to the fortune left by his grandfather, N. B. Holden, founder of the Holden shoe stores, and lives at 3409 South Oak Park avenue, Berwyn.

A petition filed by the boy's father, asking authority to purchase a set costing $336.70, recites that Raymond "has evinced a great interest in mechanics, and, deeming it advisable to foster such an interest, Mr. Ashby has employed Montraville M. Wood, inventor and radio expert." The petition was granted.

New Features in New Frocks

Attractively Priced, $55

GIRDLES, for instance, are always interesting, but their importance is paramount this season. On a satin-back Canton crepe Frock, the girdle is a novel compromise between metal and fabric. Small weights covered with the material are faced in a contrasting color and wired together in a double row to form a flexible belt. Plaited panels of the material and fagoting on the bodice and sleeves give this Frock additional charm. Other distinctive Frocks are similarly priced.

The Subconscious Courtship

BY BERTA RUCK.

SYNOPSIS.

A second after Clover Elphinstone gave Major Harry Carmichael that searching, all appraising glance, the first night she met him, she makes up her mind that she will ask him to marry her. She knows that he is the Major Carmichael, who had that thrilling escape from the Turkish prison camp, that he is indifferent to women, and that he is the inventor of a mooring mast for aeroplanes.

Clover is a remarkable girl. At twenty-three she is at the head of the firm of Elphinstone Brothers, one of the largest importing concerns in England. At nineteen she had started with the firm as a typist and at twenty-one had become, in one day, the bride and widow of its proprietor, John Elphinstone.

Clover would have been perfectly content to have remained unmarried but for the fact that she is surrounded by unwelcome suitors and has a host of followers whose chief interest in her lies in the fact that she is able to do things for them. She is a prey to unscrupulous persons with wild schemes to be launched. She is so distracted by these financial buzzards that she is afraid of losing her precious flair for turning over a profitable deal at the psychological moment.

That is why Clover asks Harry Carmichael to marry her. She doesn't want a husband, neither does he want a wife. What she wants is a barbed wire fence to keep off the social disturbers. Major Carmichael, of course, refuses to entertain her proposition.

The first installment of this delightful love story was published Monday. Start reading it today.

INSTALLMENT V.
THE MOORING MAST.

But it was no use cursing; also no use admiring the courage of a girl who had, by her preposterous suggestion, insulted him. He had made a slip in insisting upon her crossing the T's and dotting the I's of that insult, but she deserved that. She was a futile, calculating iceberg of a woman who imagined that a man's self-respect was among the things money could buy. The sooner she was disillusioned the better. He took up his hat.

"Before I go, will you let me say I'm sorry for the last thing I said, Mrs. Elphinstone? I think perhaps it was because you took me rather by surprise. And . . . Er . . . Thank you for the compliment. Shall we let it go at that? Good-by."

She stood up, the fingertips of one hand resting upon that acre of desk. The other hand had taken from the glass a violet, and held it to her nostrils. Over the flower once more she looked at him with that oddly mingled glance of anger and of approval—unconcealed approval of those qualities that she coveted to use. For if he could be such a pig to her (as the girl mentally expressed it) he could be a worse pig to those others.

His back was towards her, he had spoken over his shoulder, his hat was half-way to his head, his hand on the knob of the door.

Before the door opened she spoke again: "Major Carmichael——"

Then with barely a pause she brought out her trump card: "How is the Mooring Mast going on?"

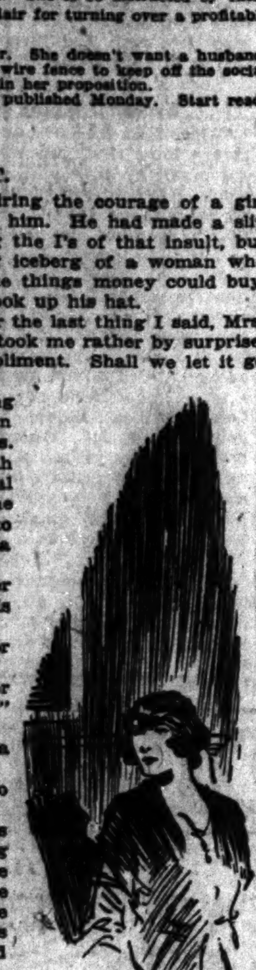
His Mooring Mast!

His single purpose in life, his new model of a mast! Ah, how that got him?

What had his Mooring Mast for airships to do with her, or she with it?

For this—his design for a Mooring Mast—was his passion, his child, his mistress. To get the thing recognized and adapted by his country was the whole of his ambition. There lay all his dreams. To see his country Mistress of the Air! To know that the Carmichael Mast was as necessary to her skyliners as were her lighthouses to her ships that plowed her sea!

It all existed in his dreaming brain. A good deal of it existed already on paper. But—unless something unlooked for turned up—on that paper it seemed likely to stop. Vision was not enough, nor ambition, nor research, nor passionate love of the work, nor even the knowledge that it was well and truly done.



"I know certain things about you."

Money was wanted to make that mast go. In half a dozen words this strange young woman at the desk had reminded him of that.

He flushed, with the vivid boyish red of the very fair complexioned man. For in that furious moment he felt that she had offered to him the last insult of all.

Him, she could not buy. Not Harry Carmichael himself, the needy, skilled engineer, fallen on the market at its lowest ebb. She had been made to realize that she couldn't buy him. But Harry Carmichael, trustee of an invention for his country's use—Harry Carmichael; the jealous slave of his Mast, who must see all his toil go for nothing unless something that was not his were supplied to help him—— That was a different Harry Carmichael, perhaps?

Supposing she had been a man! Supposing a man had offered a bargain with his Mast as one of its terms! Supposing a man had said "I want you out of this country. Go and live in Australia for the rest of your life and I'll give you the money you want for that mast of yours——" Carmichael would have called that man a coward and a bully for thus getting under his guard. But you can't say these things to a woman. . . . That made it all the more unworthy, on her part. He despised her for getting in that thrust. . . .

His Mooring Mast.

"I didn't know you knew anything about my mast," he said coldly from the door.

"You seemed rather surprised," she returned quietly across the length of the office. "But I do know it's all you think about."

"Holt's been talking?"

"Oh! I hear a good deal of what is going on."

Then Carmichael found himself ready to say more things for which he would be sorry. This girl's insolent belief that her sickening money could do anything came over him again like a wave. She had been making sure of her ground beforehand, then. She had even found out that there was no one he wanted to marry. ("You," he'd said, "I know don't want a wife.")) Insolence!

He turned away from the door again, stood with his back to it, faced her still with the big office between them. He rapped out icily: "So you've been making inquiries before you—did me this honor?"

"I do know certain things about you."

"I see. From—private agencies, perhaps? Simmons? Pierpont? Maud West?"

That, he thought, would be likely to hurt.

But either she was cleverer than he in concealing her feelings or was not hurt at all. Women, who are made miserable by what men consider trifles, have a way of remaining immune where a man would be goaded. A smile, actually a smile, lifted the corners of her mouth as she looked at him and said: "Need we take it in quite such deadly earnest?"

At this quick change he was taken aback. He could not be expected to know that at home on Richmond Hill, where this young woman with the absurd flower-name was not regarded as "Elphinstone Brothers," nor as a calculating female iceberg with a flair for business, but merely as Clover-who-had-always-lived-with-them; one of her cousins was wont to declare that Clover could turn the quality of Charm "on" or "off" like the steam heat in a railway carriage, and that Clover, with Charm "off," was positively unrecognizable from the same girl with it "on." He could not possibly have known that often this turning of a psychological tap was purely involuntary on Clover's part, nor that certain people had the effect upon her of causing a wish to charm them. Nor could he guess that for her own ends she now turned Charm slightly but deliberately "on." Possibly he would not even have known that this was "Charm." Only he found himself just a trifle less ruffled. (He took in another sniff of that violet scent; it was an amusing anomaly, here in a room that should only have smelt of ink and leather.)

Here came a small interruption; music soared up faintly from below in that foggy street. The sound of a penny whistle, piercing and bouyant as a lark's song—

"O, ye'll tak' the high road
An' I'll tak' the low road,
An' I'll be in Scotland before ye!
But me and my true Love
Will never meet again
On the bonnie, bonnie banks of Loch Lomond——"

To the shrill treble of the pipe a piano-organ pulsed an accompaniment.

Two wounded soldiers!

"They always come round on Fridays," said Clover Elphinstone, and she took up the black satin handsack and emptied it of small change. She rang again. She handed the little pile of coppers and sixpences to the boy who entered.

"Take that down for the men who play, please. . . . Now, excuse my having broken off like that. What was I saying? O, yes. This so called marriage, Major Carmichael——"

His frown smoothed out a fraction; he listened less impatiently as she continued quickly, reasoningly, "Suppose it was not called marriage? Would you then have taken it so much amiss? Suppose it began and ended in this office——"

"M'm," he said, doubtfully. With her words his point of view began just faintly to shift. . . . He was bound to admit that she had had the honestly to say she didn't want a husband in the usual sense of the wprd. Cut out that side of it, what remained?

Convenience; a business arrangement; something for something. Was it, after all, the insult that he had at first considered it. . . .

Call it—not marriage at all, then. Call it a partnership, the aims and ends of which could be drawn up in black and white in a lawyer's office. The only connection it had with marriage was the appearance, and the fact that it would prevent either of them from marrying anybody else.

She (obviously) didn't want to marry anybody else; nor him.

He—Lord, he didn't want to marry. She was right, there. . . . All this softened the "insult" aspect of it, although it made no difference to what he would do; refuse, unconditionally.

The little silver clock chimed from the monumental mantelpiece.

"One!"

"Major Carmichael," said Clover Elphinstone suddenly, and conventionally smiling, "I can't expect you to ask me out to lunch, can I? And, after what I said to you about those others and about my always having to pay for their lunches in the long run, I can't invite you. Couldn't you come out with me now as man to man? Each paying for our own?"

WIVES COSTLY, SO NEW N. U. PROFS CAN'T HAVE 'EM

Salaries Too Small for Evanston, Dean Says.

Northwestern university yesterday put up a barrier against married instructors hired from now on, unless they have independent means. In a statement by Prof. Roy C. Flickinger, dean of the college of liberal arts, it was explained that the $35 to $40 a week average salary of instructors is too little to support families in the expensive Evanstonian atmosphere.

Salaries at Northwestern are as high as in other universities, Dean Flickinger said, but the cost of living in Evanston is far higher than in most university towns and the social demands, with their attendant expense, are greater.

The result is, according to the dean, that wives of instructors have sometimes been forced to clerk in Evanston stores to make both ends meet.

Worries Interfere with Work.

So the word goes out that married instructors are not wanted at Northwestern for the coming semester. This does not apply to those already on the teaching staff.

"It is a great hardship and an injustice to ask a young instructor to support his family in Evanston on the salaries we can afford to give," said Dean Flickinger. "We are discouraging applications of married instructors because such men cannot give their best to the training of our students when they are continually burdened by financial worries. They have to do tutoring on the side and have even been forced to allow their wives to work in order to maintain their families in the expensive way Evanston demands.

"Only men with independent means will be considered among the married men. Even a bachelor has a hard time of it on the $1,600 minimum and $2,500 maximum salaries. The adage that 'two can live as cheaply as one' is all wrong so far as it concerns instructors in Evanston.

Would Have Them Wait a Bit.

"I am decidedly opposed to marriage for men who expect to make college teaching their life work. It should be delayed, at least until they get their doctor's degree and are assured of sufficient income to support their families and thus be able to give their entire time and thought to their important duties."

Both instructors and professors at Northwestern have recently been given 25 per cent increases in their salaries.

When Dean Flickinger came to the university as an instructor, in 1905, he got only $800 a year.

And he was married.

WITH ANY OTHER NAME HE WOULD NOT BE IN JAIL

Tony Krikscontis, 3434 South Lowe avenue, is going to change his name as soon as he gets out of jail. Since June 20 he has been an inmate of cell 363 and it wasn't until yesterday that it was discovered that he shouldn't be there. And it's all because his name is hard to spell; at least that's the only explanation officials can give.

Tony was arrested last March and charged with burglary. He was released on $5,000 bond and held to the grand jury. But the grand jury didn't think the evidence sufficient and voted a no bill. That's where the mistake came in; for his name on the grand jury minutes was Theodore Kuksonitis, and his bondsman wasn't notified.

On June 20, the bondsman came in before Judge Michael L. McKinley and surrendered Tony, who was remanded to jail. And there he has been ever since—under the name of Toney Kritsonitis. This morning, however, Attorney John J. Byrne will appear before Judge Kickham Scanlan to ask for a writ of habeas corpus for Tony's release.

Wax Dummy in Street Reveals $10,000 Fur Theft

Police are looking for burglars who stole furs worth $10,000 from the shop of Nelle Diamond, Inc., 650 North Michigan avenue, late Wednesday night.

When the burglars fled with their loot they took with them a wax dummy which they dropped at Rush and Chestnut streets. Discovery of the dummy led to finding the broken windows through which the robbers gained entrance.

The same band is blamed for theft of furs valued at $3,000 from the store of Charles Glanz, 59 West Austin avenue.

[Spaulding Photo.]

BEG PARDON!

In last Sunday's edition of THE TRIBUNE a picture was described as that of Miss Helen Johnson, daughter of Capt. Johnson, U. S. N. The name should have been Miss Helen Thompson, daughter of Capt. Frank Thompson (Ch-C), U. S. N.

In yesterday's issue THE TRIBUNE stated that funeral services were expected to be held for Levy Mayer next Wednesday. This was error. The date for the services and all arrangements await the arrival in Chicago of Mrs. Mayer, who is now on board the steamship Majestic on her way home.

IGOE LAYS VICE CONDITIONS AT CITY HALL'S DOOR

Women members of the ward and precinct organizations of the regular Democratic organization gathered yesterday at the Tinley Park farm of Miss Sara Hopkins. Several hundred women listened to an attack against the city hall organization by former State Representative Michael L. Igoe, who charged the city administration with responsibility for vice conditions in Chicago.

"If the woman of Chicago and Cook county will enter the forthcoming campaign determined to resist the blandishments of politicians and concentrate their power upon the performance of the task of giving city and county a moral cleansing that will clean, they will have justified the success of their long fight for political equality," Mr. Igoe said.

CITY WILL SELL $8,095,000 BOND ISSUES SEPT. 14

4 Per Cent to Be Rate of New Securities.

Arrangements are being perfected by City Controller George F. Harding to sell $8,095,000 of 4 per cent city bonds on Sept. 14.

In addition to being one of the largest offerings of municipal bonds in the city's history, the sale will be featured by a reduction in the interest rate almost to that offered for money in pre-war times. During the war and a few months following the armistice the city paid as high as 6 per cent for money on water certificates.

In voting $5,400,000 of the bonds to be offered next month, the voters authorized interest rates of 5 per cent. Changing conditions, according to Mr. Harding, make it possible to offer the bonds at 4 per cent. The saving in interest over the twenty year period will be about $540,000, according to Mr. Harding.

These Bonds to Be Offered.

The bonds to be advertised in the next few days are the following:

Ogden avenue widening and improvement	$2,695,000
Street lighting	2,000,000
Bridge and viaduct	3,400,000

"We have found by experience that it is not wise to ask investors to buy bonds at a premium," said Mr. Harding. "If these bonds were sold at 5 per cent they would bring considerably more than par, but the market for them would be much narrower than at 4 per cent.

"I predict that even at the lower interest rate the city will get par or very nearly that for the entire $8,095,000 which we have for sale."

Cities' Debts Compared.

A circular comparing Chicago's per capita debt with that of twenty other American cities will be distributed to every large bank and investment house in the United States in connection with the advertisement of the bonds. The tabulation shows that the per capita debt of St. Louis is the lowest among the large cities. The figure is $19.42. Chicago is next with $32.31. At the top of the list are the following cities.

Cincinnati, $190.06; New York, $182.93; Seattle, $180.12; Omaha, $112.04; New Orleans, $109.52, and Pittsburgh, $107.91.

Suicide Verdict in Death of Lovelorn Key Expert

A verdict of suicide while temporarily insane was rendered by a coroners' jury yesterday investigating the shooting to death of Terence Kepler, also known as Terence O'Rourke. Miss Olga Stobbe, for love of whom Kepler killed himself in the doorway of the Manor apartments, 1520 Berteau avenue, Tuesday, was the principal witness.

The Inquiring Reporter

Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

The Tribune will pay $5 for questions which are accepted for the Inquiring Reporter to ask. Send in your name and address with your questions to "The Inquiring Reporter, Chicago Tribune." No questions will be returned. For today's question Mrs. C. E. Collier, 913 Forest avenue, Evanston, Ill., was awarded $5.

The Question:

Are the summer vacatons too long for school children's best good?

Where Asked:

At the Pageant of Progress.

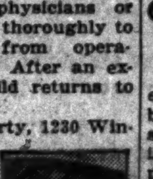
The Answers:

Miss Anna Luning, 532 Kosciusko street, New York City, public school teacher—We have ten weeks' vacation in New York City, the same as you have here in Chicago, and I do not believe it is any too long. High temperatures affect the mental capacity, and it is hard to keep children interested. They can accomplish much more on a cool day.

Hugo Krause, Ambassador hotel, superintendent Municipal pier — That depends upon the nature of the child and the nature of the vacation. Some children will learn more under proper vacation supervision than they would under improper school conditions. After all, a child is always learning and imbibing information, whether in or out of school.

Mrs. A. C. Smith, 1044 Winona avenue—Children living in the tenement districts probably would be better off in school, say for half a day, than playing on streets. A street is a poor recreation center. Ten weeks of mental rest and physical exercise is none too much, but it should be spent amid healthful surroundings.

C. W. Davis, 3616 North St. Louis avenue, sales manager—I don't believe their summer vacations are too long. It gives ample time to have small children properly cared for by physicians or for them thoroughly to recover from operations for tonsilitis, etc. After an extended vacation the child returns to school full of vitality.



Mrs. Michael E. Moriarty, 1230 Winnemac avenue—I don't think they are too long. Children should have a nice long vacation for health's sake. They study better after a good vacation. The school period is their growing period, and with good health one can do almost anything.

LIFE INSTITUTE HEAD EMPLOYS A NAUGHTY WORD

Moore Has No Fear of Legal Troubles.

"What the hell good is it until it's been through the courts?"

Thus, unclerically, did Albert J. Moore, head of the Life institute, 162 East Ontario street, address a class of disciples at their headquarters yesterday afternoon, but a few hours after he had stood in the Chicago avenue court charged with mulcting several thousand dollars out of women for "treatments."

The court action and the resultant newspaper publicity, Mr. Moore said, despite many falsehoods in the latter, are of untold benefit. From now on services and classes in the "economic religion" will have to be held out of doors, he predicted, as the temple won't be able to house 'em all. Incidentally Moore said he objected to being dubbed "Doctor."

Big Plans Under Way.

More than that, he continued, plans are already afoot to make Chicago the one religious center of the universe, a city of 10,000,000 souls. Millionaires will contribute half a million dollars; with this as a nucleus, $50,000,000 more will be subscribed by others, and the vast sum used in broadcasting the true principles of the Life institute to the suffering world.

A building containing all the joys of a club, a hotel, and a church, will be erected, he assured his listeners.

As for That Suit.

As for the suit against him, brought by Mrs. J. H. Cartwright, wife of an associate justice of the Illinois Supreme court, of Oregon, Ill., and W. W. Talcott, 632 Marquette road, it will be dropped before it comes to trial again next Tuesday, Mr. Moore predicted. The two bringing suit are too much in need of aid from the benefits of the institute to hold out against it, he insisted, with a smile.

The defendant was arrested three days ago. When the case came to trial yesterday morning, Mr. Moore's attorney, George C. Otto, asked for and received a continuance from Judge John Richardson, despite strenuous protest from City Prosecutor Louis Piquett.

One Hurt, Many Shocked, by Bombing of Building

One person was cut by glass and several others shaken up early yesterday by a dynamite bomb in front of a three story brick building, occupied by Italians, at 1161 Cambridge avenue. The police do not know whether the Black Hand or labor trouble is back of the bombing. Peter Ferra, owner of the building, admitted receiving Black Hand letters, but he and two other men living in the building are nonunion glaziers employed by Tyler & Hippach, where the glassworkers have been on a strike for some time.

The damage to the building is $1,500.

CROWE SUMMONS VICTOR LAWSON IN SCHOOL PROBE

Calls Four Editors of the Daily News Also.

Subpoenas for Victor F. Lawson, owner and editor of the Chicago Daily News, and for four members of his staff were issued late last night on the personal order of State's Attorney Crowe. The summons require the newspaper men's presence before the grand jury this morning to explain an article in yesterday's issue of the News dealing with the grand jury investigation of the school board.

Those subpoenaed with Mr. Lawson are: Charles H. Dennis, managing editor; Henry Beitler, city editor; Harry Smith, News editor, and Gregory T. Dillon, Criminal court reporter.

The article to which the state's attorney takes exception was headed, "See Lid Clamped on School Graft Probe," and contained quotations purporting to come from club women, who yesterday appeared before the grand jury, saying that they had been restricted by Assistant State's Attorney George E. Gorman in their desire to give evidence in regard to school board affairs.

Women Deny Charges.

In reply to the article the women immediately sent a special delivery letter to Mr. Gorman, stating that they had been "treated in all fairness by the prosecuting attorney," and that "the jurors were allowed to ask questions." The letter was signed by Mrs. Flora S. Cheney, Mrs. Helen Heffernan, Mrs. Caroline M. Hill, Mrs. Helen W. Cooley, and Mrs. Ada Briggs Schurchardt. The names of Mrs. Harry J. Ilett and Mrs. F. W. Webber were later added to the list of signatures.

On hearing from Mr. Gorman of the receipt of this communication, State's Attorney Crowe ordered the subpoenas issued.

Others Before Grand Jury.

Beside the clubwomen there appeared yesterday before the grand jury: Harry Brackett, auditor for the school board; Joseph McGrady, superintendent of repairs; Mrs. Pauline Struwing, former trustee; Dr. B. Klarkowski, trustee; James Brady, former assistant superintendent of repairs, and James Offligter, superintendent of construction.

This morning's session will be occupied in hearing further evidence from Hart Hanson, insurgent member of the board, and testimony from Dr. Sadie Bay-Adair, Francis E. Croarkin and J. Lewis Coath, trustees. Four school engineers are also expected to appear.

BOY IN AUTO DIES AS TRUCK HITS TONNEAU

Raymond Rigg, 13 year old son of J. G. Rigg, Wood River, Ill., was killed yesterday when a truck driven by John Callahan of Waukegan crashed into the rear of his father's car near Gray's Lake.

Six others in the Rigg car escaped with severe bruises. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Rigg, they were Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Larke and their son, Victor, of 3327 West End avenue, Chicago, and Carl Johnson, 4108 West Lake street.

An auto driven by David Kelley, 4357 Kenmore avenue, struck John Padlik, 12 years old, 1602 Fullerton avenue, at Fullerton and Clybourn avenue last night. The boy died in Alexian Brothers' hospital.

Michael Randt, 1303 South Sangamon street, was fatally injured yesterday when hit by an auto driven by Morris Haywood, 151 West 30th street. Haywood was arrested. Injuries received Aug. 11 yesterday proved fatal to John Crowley, 65 years old, 2732 West Madison street.

Rosalyn Springer, 19 year old daughter of Coroner's Physician Joseph Springer, 7251 Crandon avenue, received internal injuries yesterday when she was run down by a Yellow cab while crossing 63d and Woodlawn. The cab, driven by John Brasus, didn't stop, according to Leon Frank, 1454 East 69th street.

MOVIE DREAMS GIRL'S UNDOING; TWO MEN HELD

Marjorie Morgan, 16 years old, ran away from her South Bend, Ind., home last week to come to Chicago and learn to be a real movie actress. Yesterday afternoon two policewomen found her weeping at North Clark and Chicago avenue, her tragedy complete.

When the girl came to town, she told Chicago avenue police, she answered an advertisement for magazine solicitors with the added lure that girls hired would be taught to become actresses. She went to the offices of a publication called Associated Printers of Chicago and met Melvin Levy. He hired her and got her a room at the Grace hotel, 75 West Jackson boulevard.

Two days later, when she reported for duty, she alleges, Levy attacked her. Later, she says, he took her to the home of John Pieser, 4858 South Michigan avenue. Pieser is employed by the Pieser-Livingston company, wholesale flour concern, 1527 South Halsted street. The girl alleges that the men got her to pose in the nude while Pieser photographed her.

Both men were arrested last night and will appear today, charged with contributing to the girl's delinquency. Pieser, it is said, admitted photographing the girl, but said he paid her $ for her services as a model.

One Attorney Arrested at Instance of Another

K. B. Czarnecki, an attorney with offices in the Ashland block, 155 North Clark street, was arrested yesterday afternoon on a warrant charging disorderly conduct sworn out by A. Howard Langert, another attorney, with offices at 6 North Clark street.

Snappy Movie Treat as Herb Rawlinson Acts in 'Don't Shoot'

DON'T SHOOT

Produced by Universal.
Directed by Jack Conway
Presented at the Randolph.

THE CAST.

James Harrington Court	Herbert Rawlinson
Boss McGinnis	William Dyer
John Lysaght	Harvey Clarke
Buck Lindsay	Wade Boteler
Mrs. Van Deck	Margaret Campbell
Velma Gay	Edna Murphy
Archie Craig	George Fisher
Jim	Tiny Sanford
Pete	Duke Lee
Mrs. Ransom	Mrs. Bertram Grassby
Police Officer	Fred Kelsey
Larry the Dip	J. L. O'Connor

By Caroline Krum.

"Don't Shoot" is a nice, snappy little picture, with a nice, snappy little cast. If you like Herbert Rawlinson—and I don't see any reason why you shouldn't—you'll have a good time watching him in this. As usual, he takes the part of a crook, and, as usual, he looks much more like a well bred boy with a happy home and a good job selling bonds or insurance.

Because of his light fingers, he is one of the most important tools of a certain Boss McGinnis, and seems to be perfectly content with his work and life in general. That is, he likes it until, as he is out pearl hunting one night in another man's house, something entirely unexpected and unbelievable happens to change the whole course of his existence. I'm not going to give away the story by telling you what it is that happens. If I did, there wouldn't be any kick. Now, would there?

But I will tell you about a hunch I have. And that is that Edna Murphy isn't very far from stardom. Just about two hops and a skip would put her there. She's pretty, she's graceful, and she's a capable little actress. Watch and see if you agree with me.

The direction and photography are fine. Taken all in all, I'd advise you to see "Don't Shoot" if you want an entertaining and cool hour or two.

CLOSEUPS

We've just heard that Mahlon Hamilton is going to play opposite Laurette Taylor in "Peg o' My Heart." Russell Simpson is also in the cast.

Unless the railroad strike prevents him, Thomas Meighan expects to leave for the east soon, to make "Back Home and Broke," by George Ade. On his way, Mr. Meighan plans to visit the Ade home in Indiana.

Theodore Roberts is deserting the movies for a little while. He is going to tour the coast in vaudeville, but he promises to return to the screen immediately afterward.

Frank Mayo's next picture is to be "The Altar Stairs" by G. B. Lancaster. His wife, Dagmar Godowsky, is in the cast, too. Louise Lorraine will have the feminine lead.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

Affected with Myopia.

I am nearsighted, and as a consequence often get into embarrassing situations. One in particular greatly mortified me.

I had started out bravely to sell books and it was my first attempt at salesmanship. As I stepped onto a shaded porch out of the bright sunlight, I stood for a second waiting, somewhat dazzled. A diminutive figure appeared on the opposite side of the screen door.

Thinking the person a child, I asked, "Is your mother in?"

Imagine my confusion when I discovered the person to be a man about 70 years of age. H. S. P.

Known to Each Other.

I find it most difficult to remember names, and, this failing, often gets me into trouble. At a dance one evening I was introduced to a charming girl, who was standing by the door of the ballroom waiting for her partner. We stood talking for a few moments, when an acquaintance came up to talk to me, and I, starting out glibly to introduce the two, realized I had completely forgotten the girl's name.

"I beg your pardon. I would like to present Mr. Wilson, and I am afraid I have forgotten your name," I remarked apologetically.

"That's perfectly all right," she answered. "He's my husband."

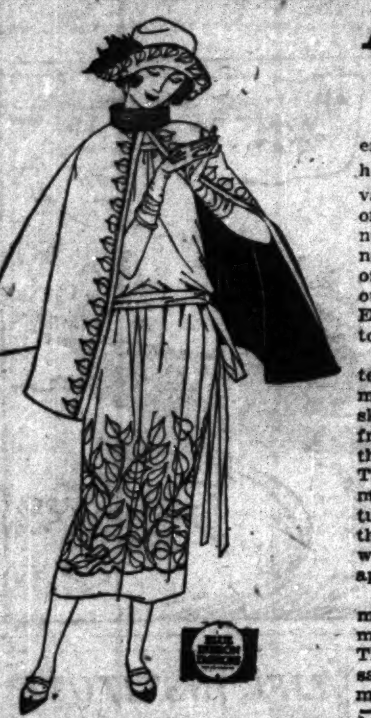
The School Girl Retains the Shorter Skirt



by Corinne Lowe

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—The knee plus ultra skirt is here to stay, and as the summer advances we are getting more and more of the ultra. It is no uncommon thing nowadays to find the skirt of an afternoon frock touching the instep, and only the suits and sports clothes reflect our former inclination toward brevity. Even these have responded somewhat to the law of gravitation.

However, the schoolgirl in her late teens and early 20s has not obeyed so meekly the dictate regarding longer skirts. And for her suit and every day frock she continues to choose something ten inches above the ground. This is the length observed in today's model—a charming cape frock costume, which is made of kasha cloth in the popular light brown. The feature which distinguishes this model is an applique of leaves in green kasha cloth.

The cape is lined with green satin to match, and a military collar of self-material is stitched in green thread. The hat of matching duvetyn has the same effective applications of trimming.

TRIBUNE COOK BOOK

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

Savory Cooked Celery.

The French call one of the most sophisticated of the dishes of cooked celery "celeri au jus," which simply means celery cooked in meat juice of soup stock. The finer the meat stock the finer the dish, all things considered, but one can cook celery in the same way using water and butter for the fat, although salt pork is excellent.

To make this dish to perfection, use firm centers of celery stalks, or about four of the inner stems attached to the root. Cut off tops about where the antler of the third outer stem divides—the word antler for this description of the knot of the stem where it divides is from Dickens—getting little clubs about five or six inches long. Wash and brush before cutting off the tops, unless there is a great deal of bush. The leaves of the two inner stem are quite delicious cooked, whether in this way or in meat stews or bean stews or egg plant stews.

Drop the prepared clubs into boiling water for five minutes, drain, and rinse with cold water. Put into the bottom of the cooking pan or kettle a bed of two or three sliced onions and a small slice of salt pork. Do not add any other salt. Arrange the clubs of celery on these. It takes at least two for each individual served. When the clubs of celery are nicely fitted in cover them with meat stock—about a cup for half a dozen—add a tablespoon of sugar, and cook until the stock is all absorbed or until the water has evaporated. The celery will be brown and tender or it may be left lighter and in a gravy.

Whole tomatoes steamed done on top of the celery and somewhat glazed by the meat stock make a handsome and palatable garnish. They make the whole especially palatable when water is used in the combustion of salt pork, etc.

You need flavor even in a health food

If a food has a pleasing flavor it's actually better for you. It is more readily digested, does you more good.

Many thousands of people have for a long time recognized the merit of Malted Milk as a health food. But if there was one thing about it which they haven't always liked it has been its flavor. They've added Chocolate or some other flavor to make it palatable.

That's why we have made a Malted Milk already mixed with Chocolate. No more trouble in serving. All the ingredients are there, the full nourishing, healthful qualities of Malted Milk with the chocolate flavor in addition. Just add milk or water—hot or cold—and you have a fine food beverage, just as appetizing as the fountain drink.

It's good for the children—good for grown-ups—it's a food you'll like that is good for you. At meal times—as a light lunch—or for that all-gone feeling.

You can now have Chocolate Malted Milk for the home in convenient form. Made by the Borden Company, you can be sure of its quality.

Your grocer or your druggist has it.

BEAUTY ANSWERS

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

PEARL E.: IF THE ELECTROLYSIS work is done by a specialist of standing and experience and skill there should be no scar. Inefficient work, however, will leave a number of troubles. So don't economize on the work. Go to the best operator there is, even though the charge be double, for your one and only face is going to remain with you some time and you can afford to take no chances with it.

BEBE: DON'T KNOW, BEBE, how you could darken blonde hair without using a hair dye? Don't know why you would want to do it, anyway. Natural blonde hair is at a premium, and my mail is filled with pleas for suggestions on how to retain it. I guess it is just the contrariness of the human wishing for what she hasn't got that is your trouble. Greasing the hair lightly with vaseline, sweet almond oil, or olive oil, is recommended for the dry spells of which you complain.

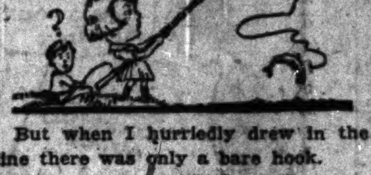
"I got a bite! I got a bite!" sang out the tiny girl member of a fishing party.



But when I hurriedly drew in the line there was only a bare hook.

"Where's the fish?" I asked.

"He unbit and dive," said the youngster. E. T. H.

Newell went with his parents to visit Uncle Reb, who lived in a suburb. The gardener was trimming a large hedge, and Newell was fascinated by the performance.

At dinner a large platter of chops, garnished with parsley, was brought to the table. The host busied himself serving, and carefully put a bit of the green on each plate except Newell's.

The child spoke. "Uncle Rob, you didn't put any of the hedge on my plate." F. M.

I have some artificial flowers in a vase.

One day David said, "Gee, won't those flowers ever die?"

Before I had time to answer, Ruth said: "Why, David, don't you know they're dead now? They was always dead. Why, they was even dead when they started." C. S. C.

DAILY HOROSCOPE

Doris Blake Says!

TODAY IS LUCKY FOR THE WORKER.

Mercury and Saturn are in benefic aspect today with highly favorable disposition toward commerce. In financial affairs Saturn gives steady results commensurate with labor. Those whose birthday today is have the augury of a successful year; particularly those in employment may look for promotion. A child born on this day should be popular and respected and may succeed best in the employ of others. A birthday trait, according to astrology, is a great fondness of travel and moving about, but you are a useful person and a dependable one, as far as imposed duties are concerned. You have a nature that fits you for almost any condition, for as a general thing whatever you find to do you do with all your might. Not that you cannot indulge in repose or relaxation that may be marked by perfect abandon, but you only do this after you have earned the right to such indulgence. You are loving in your home and show it, too.

Extend Helping Hand.

"Dear Miss Blake: I am writing this in the hope that you can help me. I am madly in love with a fellow that works down in my place of business. He talks to me. He tells me everything that happens to him and that he likes, and that he wants, and he does anything that I ask him to, but he has never asked to take me out, or he has never told me that he loves me, or even that he likes me. I know that he is bashful, but he is not bashful around me. I do not know what to do. I must know if he at least likes me. Can't you please help me? He does not go to any parties. He has never gone out with any girls. I have never asked him to come to my house because I think he would refuse because he is so bashful outside of business. Can't you please help me, Miss Blake. "HEARTBROKEN."

Try him on the invitation to your house. He exhibits all the ear marks of a deep interest in you, and if he is so bashful, you must extend the helping hand.

"I'm Afraid She'll Win Him"

A riddle and the answer

"My girl friend and I are in love with the same man. He's going to choose soon, and I'm afraid she'll win just because her hair makes her seem more attractive. Mine is only ordinary—dull chestnut. How can I make the most of it?" —MARIE.

THE key to woman's beauty is her hair, and the key to beautiful hair—blonde, brown or brunette—is "a touch of henna" in the shampoo. Give your hair a "touch of henna shampoo", and see it made radiant in an hour—aglow with glints and sparkles. HENNAFOAM Shampoo contains "the touch of henna", scientifically treated and in just the right quantity. In HENNAFOAM, by a new formula, "the touch of henna" is blended with pure, cleansing vegetable oils. With every HENNAFOAM shampoo you give your hair cleanliness, health—and bewitching Beauty.

Chicagoans Helping to Make Gay Season for Beverly, Mass.

A letter from Beverly, Mass., brings news of the Chicagoans summering on the fashionable Massachusetts north shore. From now until Labor day the social season there will be at its liveliest and there will be a continual round of gayeties at the club's cottages and hotels. There was much interest shown in the open air concert given recently at the estate of Mrs. T. Jefferson Coolidge for the benefit of the Elizabeth Peabody Settlement house. Mrs. Hendricks Hallett Whitman (Adelaide Chatfield Taylor) and Mrs. George H. Swift were among the patronesses.

There promises to be a most interesting Chicago colony at Ipswick, where Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Crane Jr. of 1550 Lake Shore drive have one of the finest estates on the north shore. Mr. and Mrs. William Franklin Barrett and Mrs. Grace A. T. Davidson are among the Chicagoans who have taken residences in Ipswich for next season. Miss Florence Crane presided at the cake booth at an exhibition of colonial and modern handicraft held last week at the historic Whipple house at Ipswich for the benefit of the Historical Society building fund. Many of the old homes on the shore contributed family heirlooms for the exhibition.

Mrs. Henry W. Farnum of 2834 Prairie avenue, who is at her country place at Magnolia for the season, has gone to South Casco, Me., to visit her daughter, Helen, who is at the Luther Gulick Camp there. Miss Farnum is to take part in the annual August water carnival at the camp. The Farnums had as recent guests Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Cudahy of Lake Forest, who have been enjoying a motor tour through picturesque New England.

Mrs. Finley Barrell of Lake Forest has been visiting Mrs. Marguerite M. Sheriff of 1200 Lake Shore drive at Magnolia. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lee Taft of 805 Fullerton parkway, who have been motoring through the White and Green mountains and the Adirondacks, are now at the Essex County club at Manchester, where they plan to spend the balance of the season. Their son, Oren Taft III., is with them and they are doing much entertaining for him and his young friends.

Miss Mary Lee Gough of 547 Arlington place is at the New Fountain inn at Marblehead for the remainder of the season. Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Wardwell of 5423 Hyde Park boulevard have returned to their country place at Chatham after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. James C. Kenney at Beverly.

The Rev. Russell Boynton, pastor of the Bryn Mawr Community church, Chicago, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Andrew K. Cressy of Beverly. Dr. Boynton, who served as a chaplain in the navy during the war, officiated at the wedding of Capt. Andrew E. Cressy, U. S. M. C., to Miss Ruth Layton, both well known in the younger set along the north shore.

Mrs. Howard Linn of Lake Forest did not sail for Europe with Mr. and Mrs. David Adler, as reported several days ago, but has left to spend about six weeks visiting at Watch Hill, R. I.; Southampton, L. I., and White Sulphur Springs, W. Va.

Count and Countess Giulio Bolognesi are at the Ambassador hotel for a short stay. Count Bolognesi is the new Italian consul general at Montreal.

Miss Camille Henry of the Shore Crest hotel has returned from a seven months' trip abroad. She took the Mediterranean cruise and then spent eight weeks at Oxford university, in England, where her brother, Robert L. Henry, was a lecturer last year.

Miss Maud C. Nash of 5219 Harper avenue announces the engagement of her niece, Maud Munger Berger, to Royal Cushman Murray, son of Mrs. Willis Grant Murray of 1051 East 47th street.

A FRIEND IN NEED

BY SALLY JOY BROWN.

Wants a Dog.

"Has any one a Boston or fox terrier puppy to place in a good home? We own our home, and have a large yard. I want a short haired dog, so I can have it in the house. I can furnish excellent references, if any one requires them. L. W. H."

We'll ask, and we shall see.

"I am 21 year old and I work, but don't make much. I have all I can do to pay my board, buy my clothes, and save a little for a rainy day. I wonder if there is some one who has books to pass on to one who would appreciate and enjoy them. C. G."

If you have books for C. G., I have the address.

ANSWER TO ETIQUETTE PROBLEM.

"An official letter begins "Sir" and ends "I have the honor to remain your obedient servant." A social letter begins "My Dear Mr. President" and ends "I have the honor to remain most sincerely yours."

BETROTHED

Miss Elizabeth Anne Parker.
[Gibson, Sykes & Fowler Photo.]

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Elizabeth Anne Parker, daughter of William Parker of 7244 Merrill avenue, to Dr. Lester E. Garrison, son of Dr. and Mrs. Henry L. Garrison of the Plaisance hotel. The wedding will take place Sept. 20.

Event to Aid Soldiers' Widows.

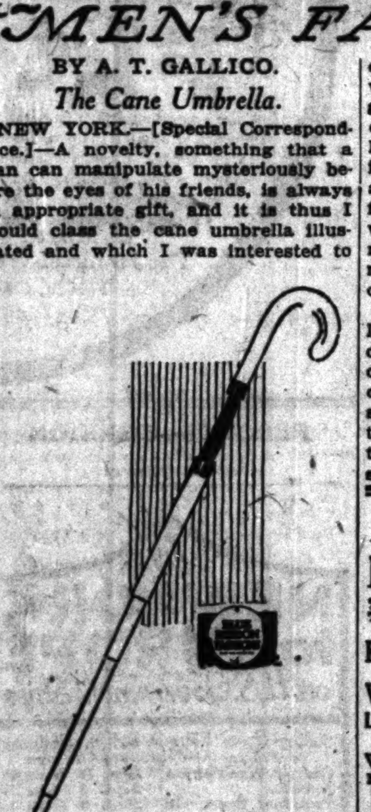
A lawn fête, chicken dinner, and sale will be held today and tomorrow from 6 to 8 o'clock at the Maywood Home for Civil War Soldiers' Widows.

MEN'S FASHIONS

BY A. T. GALLICO.

The Cane Umbrella.

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—A novelty, something that a man can manipulate mysteriously before the eyes of his friends, is always an appropriate gift, and it is thus I should class the cane umbrella illustrated and which I was interested to note at a manufacturer's the other day.



I should say that it was a little dubious as a practical proposition, as few men would have the patience, after once having withdrawn the umbrella from the cane part, to undertake the struggle to get it back. Due to the fact that the umbrella must be folded so as to slip smoothly into an extremely narrow space, it can have no button, but must be folded back in the exact creases, and fastened with a rubber band. Also it must be dry before you put it back.

However, the cane is a handsome affair, of a light tan color, made of applewood, and the fact that there is an umbrella concealed inside makes it an intriguing gift. And if but once you can, when caught in a sudden shower with your best suit or girl, with a grand motion produce the umbrella out of the cane and save the day it will have fulfilled its function. And there is another advantage. Whereas no amount of persuasion might be sufficient to send you out of the house with an umbrella on a morning that merely looked like rain, you might be more willing if it were artfully concealed in your walking stick.

As the handle is crooked or shaped like the ordinary umbrella handle, you can, if the mechanics of the thing become overpowering, always discard the cane part and use the umbrella. It should be mentioned here, however, that due to the necessary lightness of the material in the umbrella part it should not be intrusted to a deluge.

Spanish Ambassador to See Net Matches

Washington, D. C., Aug. 17.—[Special.]—Mme. Riano, wife of the ambassador of Spain, returned today after a fortnight's visit at Hot Springs, Va. The ambassador and Mme. Riano, accompanied by the counselor of the embassy, Señor de Cardenas, will go to Philadelphia Saturday to see the Spanish players who will take part in the Davis cup tennis tournament. Señor de Cardenas will return immediately to the embassy, but the ambassador and Mme. Riano will proceed by motor to the north shore, where they will make a series of visits.

Dr. Alfredo Gonzales Prada, secretary of the Peruvian embassy, and his bride, who was Miss Elizabeth Howe of Washington, will sail next Wednesday for Europe aboard the Paris, and will tour France, Spain, and Italy before returning to Washington in December.

NEW YORK SOCIETY

New York, Aug. 17.—[Special.]—Mr. and Mrs. George D. Widener, who were at their apartment in the Carlton house for a short time, have returned to Newport.

Paul Rainey gave a luncheon party in the roof garden yesterday at Delmonico's before his departure for Chicago.

Miss Clara Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Charles Martin of this city, will become the bride of Henry Archibald Tucker of Boulder, Colo., on Saturday next in the chapel of the Church of the Intercession. A reception will follow at the Waldorf Astoria.

William B. Osgood Field and his two sons are leaving High Lawn house, his summer home at Lenox, Mass., today for a hunting and fishing trip in the Canadian Rockies.

OBITUARY.

Hold Funeral Today for Dean Salisbury

The funeral of Dean Rollin D. Salisbury, who died Tuesday evening, will be held this afternoon in Mandell hall, University of Chicago, at 3 o'clock. The faculty of the institution will attend. Members of the Geographical Society of Chicago, of which Dean Salisbury was first president, will also attend. Dean Salisbury was one of the best known geologists in the United States. In 1881 he made a trip into Greenland with Lieut. Robert E. Peary to determine the so-called insularity of that country.

"There's MY lunch! I tell you, fellows, there's nothing like Kellogg's Corn Flakes and cold milk when the thermometer's high! Kellogg's make it possible for me to hustle all day because they digest so easily! I've cut out the heavy stuff, YOU BET!"

Give your stomach a chance!
Eat Kellogg's CORN FLAKES
extra-refreshing with fresh fruit!

Agree to eat lighter foods this summer and you'll feel a lot cheerier and work and think a lot better! Heavy, greasy foods in hot weather dull the mind and slow you up physically as well as mentally! Every man, woman and child would enjoy better health if they ate sustaining, easily digested food such as Kellogg's Corn Flakes.

And, eat Kellogg's liberally—all you want; let the little folks and the old folks have their fill, for Kellogg's Corn Flakes are not only beneficial, but with Kellogg's you use plenty of health-giving milk! And, you never tasted more delicious food than Kellogg's Corn Flakes, particularly when eaten with luscious fruits now in season!

Think of Kellogg's Corn Flakes as the perfect breakfast cereal; as the cooling, refreshing lunch for the hottest day and for the daintiest, most satisfying dessert for the evening meal served with fresh fruit and cream!

Also makers of KELLOGG'S KRUMBLES and KELLOGG'S BRAN, cooked and krumbled

Insist upon Kellogg's—the kind in the RED and GREEN package that bears the signature of W. K. Kellogg, originator of Corn Flakes. None are genuine without it!

SHORT COVERING LIFTS GRAINS TO HIGHER LEVELS

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

A wave of short covering swept over the grain markets and found little opposition to an advance. The recent break materially strengthened the technical position and sentiment became rather bullish as values sought a higher level. Closing trades were at net gains of 2¼c on wheat, 1⅛@3½c on corn, ⅜@⅞c on oats, and ⅜@1½c on rye.

Lowest prices for wheat were made at the opening when there was scattered selling on a bad break in Liverpool, where values were off ⅜@2½d on liquidation induced by the continental financial situation.

Corn Shows Strength.

While there was considerable change in sentiment and some bullish news in the way of smaller receipts and prospects that the crest of the movement had been witnessed in the southwest the bulk of the buying throughout the day was in the way of short covering. The strength in corn had some effect. Owing to a partial failure of the Japanese rice crop some export business in wheat is expected at the Pacific coast.

A drought scare of considerable proportions has developed in corn. Damage complaints were received from South Dakota, Minnesota, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, Illinois, Indiana, and Ohio and offerings in the pit were light. Some stop orders were uncovered on the way up. September led the advance with cash houses persistent buyers in small lots. Offerings to arrive increased and found buyers anxious to take hold. Premiums on spot were firm.

Strength in other grains was the main influence in oats. Trade was largely of a local character and prices held within a range of about ⅝c. Southern bids in central Illinois were reported as relatively 2@3¼c above those from Chicago.

Higher Market for Rye.

Fair buying of rye by houses with eastern connections with a letup in hedging pressure from the northwest made a higher market for rye. Sales of 25,000 bu were made here for the season. The two northwestern markets received 348 cars. No. 2 on track sold at 1@1½c over September.

Weakness in hogs had a depressing effect on provisions. Lard closed 7½c lower to 2½c higher, and ribs were unchanged. Fresh meats were in good demand. Strength in Liverpool was offset by large hog receipts. Prices follow:

WORLD'S·GRAIN MARKET·NEWS

Grain traders paid more attention to constructive news and the markets had a better tone with more two sidedness on the part of many large local operators. Those who have been bearish of late were in some instances off that side for a turn, while operators who sold wheat the two previous days at around $1 were covering. Those who held off in buying until the last hour covered at the close at around the best prices of the day. The disposition is to look for a more two sided set of markets with lighter arrivals here and possibly a higher and irregular range for a few days.

Reviewing the wheat situation for a year past and comparing the present conditions with those of a year ago, Siebel C. Harris of Cross, Roy and Saunders, who was bearish on wheat during the past 15c decline, says in part that the market is getting into debatable ground and that the action of prices is likely to be more two sided from now on. Public participation has almost been totally lacking in the market, but there are signs of a distinct broadening of public interest in the stock market, attesting to the improved financial conditions and to the ability of the public to speculate in the market with the proper incentive. He sees nothing in the present situation to cause any sharp or sustained upturn in prices.

Increasing complaints of deterioration in corn are coming from a wider territory, covering sections of practically every big state in the west. In Minnesota it is so dry that corn has been damaged. Dry pastures are being complained of and in Minnesota the government weather crop report says stock has to be fed. Unless there are good general rains within a few days the hot wave will make pastures worse than at present.

A Lakefield [Minn.] grain firm estimates that the crops of grain in that section are the largest in forty years, in the aggregate, and expects that the elevators there will handle 2,000,000 bu.

Buying of corn and selling of wheat has been on of late, some of the largest operators spreading liberal lines. Should there be good rains over a wide territory it might result in selling of corn and buying of wheat. A drought scare market is always an uncertain one as reports of showers invariably induces selling and breaks. There were reports of scattered showers in northern Illinois yesterday, but they were without more than a temporary effect.

Oats are down to a point where specialists say that 90 per cent of the trade is spreading between the different futures. There is believed to be little money in selling them short, and country traders are taking both corn and oats on the belief that they will not have to see much of a decline, while eventually they expect to see a higher average of values.

CASH·GRAIN N·E·W·S

Exporters who have wheat sold for deferred shipment abroad are now covering their sales, and around 750,000 bu were reported at the seaboard during the day, following purchases estimated at 1,000,000 bu at the gulf Wednesday. Practically no fresh business was put through owing to the break in Liverpool and weakness in continental exchange. Chicago handlers sold 600,000 bu wheat, partly at 6¼c over September, c. i. f. Buffalo, 150,000 bu corn, and 50,000 bu oats.

Domestic shipping sales at Chicago were 10,000 bu wheat, 110,000 bu corn, and 190,000 bu oats. Charters were for 550,000 bu wheat or corn at 2½c to Buffalo and 2@2¼c to Georgian bay, the inside price to the latter being for special unloading terms.

Premiums on cash wheat here were about unchanged. A local miller was a good buyer of red winter and expressed the belief that prices were low enough. No. 2 red sold at 1½@2c over and No. 2 hard at 2½@3c over September, with choice bringing more. Receipts, 233 cars. Dark No. 1 northern sold at 15@16c over.

A better milling and shipping demand was noticeable in the southwest, where cash wheat was up 2@4c at St. Louis. Omaha and Kansas City gained 1@3c. At Minneapolis premiums were unchanged to 2c higher, latter on medium quality grain. New No. 1 dark northern sold at 9@18c over September, with some old elevator dark northern at 45c over.

Cash corn was 1c higher early and 2½c higher at the close. Basis was firmer, with a good demand. No. 2 mixed and white sold at 2½@3c and yellow at 3½c over September. Receipts, 108 cars. Outside markets unchanged at 2c higher.

Offerings of cash oats were fair. Sample values ½c higher. No. 2 white brought 2½@3c and No. 3 white September to 1c over. Receipts, 161 cars.

New York shippers were the life of yesterday's cattle trade, paying $10.95 for 1,407 lb steers, with several other loads, averaging 1,285@1,488 lbs, at $10.90. Prices advanced 10@15c on the better grades, with strictly fancy beeves quotable at the $11.00 mark. Competition was lively early, but after urgent orders were filled the market finished weak, late bids being 10@25c below best time of the morning. Butcher stock and calves ruled steady.

A marked increase in the supply of sheep and lambs forced values off 10@25c, best lambs stopping at $12.85, with bulk at $12.40@12.75. Some Montana aged wethers sold at $7.40. Washington lambs sold to feeders at $12.40.

Hog Run Is Excessive.

Twice as many hogs arrived yesterday as were received the previous Thursday, being beyond trade requirements. Prices declined 10@40c with lightweights off most. The top dropped to $9.80, the lowest since the first week of last February. While the top stood 30c below a week ago, the general average was same as a week ago at $8.65, against $8.90 Wednesday. Closing trade was lowest of the day.

Receipts at Chicago for today are estimated at 5,000 cattle, 17,000 hogs, and 10,000 sheep, against 2,341 cattle, 14,489 hogs, and 8,663 sheep the corresponding Friday a year ago.

PRODUCE MARKETS

Butter prices were ¼@½c higher in Chicago and ½c higher in Boston and Philadelphia, and ½@¾c better in New York. Receipts were lighter all around and the demand better.

Cheese is moving out fairly well in small lots and prices held firm.

Hot weather had a bad effect on potatoes in cars on track and holders were more disposed to sell held stock, while for fresh arrivals former prices were asked. Arrivals were 34 cars with 193 cars on track.

Eggs and poultry met a fair sale with prices unchanged. Arrivals of eggs were 7,460 cases, against 10,318 cases last year. Receipts of poultry were 2 cars and 940 coops.

Hot weather helped the melon trade and stock moved off faster. Arrivals were 8 fresh cars in and 87 cars on track.

NEWS OF THE CROPS

Government and private reports confirmed deterioration in the condition of the corn crop in various parts of the belt. A summary of the private returns showed that rain was needed in South Dakota, Minnesota, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, Illinois, Indiana, and Ohio, and some damage has already been done in these states. Numerous showers were reported in Illinois and Indiana after the close, but no general breaking of the drought was suggested by the forecast.

The Dakotas, Minnesota, and Montana have a durum wheat crop of 80,000,000 bu this year, according to the report of the Van Dusen-Harrington company of Minneapolis, while the crop of bread wheat is 126,000,000 bu. The Dakotas raised about 71,000,000 bu durum and an equal quantity of bread grain. Harvesting in the northwest is almost completed. Dry weather favorable for cutting and threshing, and the best crop since 1918 has been secured. Damage from black rust was not great. Hot weather has caused considerable damage to corn in various sections.

Iowa corn is ten days to two weeks later than last year, as shown by the weekly weather and crop report. The earliest fields are just beginning to dent, while the latest are just tasseling.

"Wheat improves coming east from Saskatoon," wired George M. Le Count to Stein, Alstrin & Co., from Melville, Sask. "Crop is very good here and harvest getting well under way. Quality good."

Exports of foodstuffs from Jugo-Slavia have been prohibited until further notice. Corn is being damaged in the Danubian countries, Italy and Hungary by high temperatures. Extensive floods prevail in the Bengal district in India, and the government has started relief work. German agricultural workers are striking in many districts.

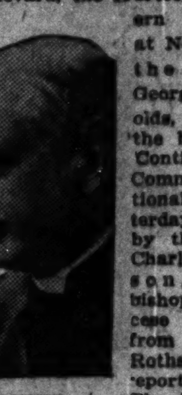
BISHOP ANDERSON BUYS RESIDENCE ON DREXEL BLVD.

BY AL CHASE.



BISHOP C. P. ANDERSON.

One of the finest residences on Drexel boulevard, the fourteen room modern stone house at No. 4512, once the home of George M. Reynolds, chairman of the board of the Continental and Commercial National bank, yesterday was bought by the Rt. Rev. Charles P. Anderson, Episcopal bishop of the diocese of Chicago, from Daniel M. Rothschild, for a reported $25,000. The land is 36½x250. James J. Parker & Co. negotiated the sale.

Mr. Reynolds sold the house to Tracy Turner of S. B. Chapin & Co., who later disposed of it to Mr. Rothschild, a member of Rothschild Bros., wholesale jewelers at 12 North Michigan avenue. Mr. Rothschild, who purchased it three months ago, also through Parker & Co., found it too large for his needs and sold it to Bishop Anderson. The new owner is now living at 1612 Prairie avenue.

Ellis Avenue Sale.

The apartment building on the west side of Ellis avenue, 112 feet north of East 54th place, has been sold by Emil Pirson to Max Shapiro for an indicated $140,000.

Harry L. Levinson has purchased from Neil J. Kyle the three stores and twelve flats at the southeast corner of North Clark and Winona, 78x125, for an indicated $55,000.

Samuel Come has sold to Benjamin I. Morris and Benjamin Drell the three story store and flat building at 900-08 Belmont avenue for an indicated $72,000, subject to $40,000. Sontag Bros. were brokers.

Hilma to Hilma.

The six apartment building at 1430 Thome avenue was sold by Hilma Hillstrom to Hilma M. Lind for a reported $35,000, subject to $10,500. The Lake View Real Estate exchange represented both parties. The buyer gave in part payment the two flat building at [illegible] Winona.

The southwest corner of Hamlin and Hirsch, improved with one store and six apartments, was sold by J. A. Wendell to James Osgood for a reported $35,000, subject to $13,000, through the General Realty company. The same brokers report selling the southwest corner of Madison street and Central avenue, vacant, 100x140, for Tony H. Constantine to James Arado for $30,000, subject to $15,000.

Building Permits

Thirty-two permits, totaling in value $1,300,000, were issued yesterday, among them being the following:

Report Gulf Oil Co. May Declare Big Dividend

New York, Aug. 17.—[Special.]—Directors of the Gulf Oil corporation will declare a 200 per cent stock dividend in the near future, according to reports in Wall street today. Announcement is expected to be made at the time action is taken on the next quarterly dividend on the capital stock. It was also stated that the directors contemplate splitting the present stock of $100 a share par value into stock of $25 a share par, so that after the stock dividend is declared the stockholders will have twelve shares of new stock for each share now held. Whether or not this is a preliminary step to merging with the Standard Oil Company of Indiana could not be learned.

SLOWER MOVING FREIGHT SHOWS BUSINESS LETUP

BY O. A. MATHER.

Some slowing down in the general business of the country due primarily to the coal and railroad strikes is evidenced in the decline in the freight movement on the railroads. Aside from coal, however, traffic is holding up remarkably well and business is much better than a year ago.

Loading of revenue freight in the week ended Aug. 5 totaled 851,351 cars, a decrease of 8,383 cars from the preceding week, but an increase of 65,173 cars over the corresponding week last year, despite the fact that current coal loadings were 66,849 cars below last year. During the week coal loadings increased 2,872 cars, compared with the preceding week. Surplus freight cars showed a decrease of 28,395 for the week, the total being 174,927.

Decrease in Gasoline Stores.

Further reduction in the country's stores of gasoline was reported by the American Petroleum Institute. July was the third consecutive month to show a decrease, the decline being 441,930 brls for about two-thirds of the country's refinery operating capacity. There was an indicated net decrease of 558,588 brls of all liquid stocks held at refineries. Pipe line and tank farm gross domestic crude oil stocks increased 7,210,000 brls.

The daily average gross crude oil production in the United States increased 5,050 brls for the week ended Aug. 12, totaling 1,504,150 brls, compared with 1,499,100 brls for the preceding week. Although there have been incipient movements among oil producers to reduce production because of the recent successive and drastic price cuts, such proposals would appear thus far to be ineffective.

Reserve Shows Even Keel.

The weekly reports of the federal reserve system discloses the general business of the country maintaining a surprisingly even keel in view of labor handicaps. The consolidated statement of the twelve federal reserve banks shows surprisingly small changes for the week. Gold and total reserves declined $5,209,000 and $4,319,000, respectively. Loans increased $324,000, bills bought, $2,797,000, and total bills, $3,121,000. Government securities declined $3,089,000. Total earning assets increased only $32,000.

Total deposits expanded $11,162,000, with the member banks' reserve credits and government deposits increasing $6,721,000 and $5,055,000 respectively. Federal reserve note circulation declined $4,920,000. The ratio of total reserves to deposit and federal reserve note liabilities combined was 80.2, compared with 80.4 per cent in the preceding week.

Report Shows Declines.

The New York Federal Reserve bank report shows gold and total reserves declined $21,247,000 and $21,556,000 respectively. Loans increased $7,164,000; bills bought, $477,000; total bills, $7,641,000, and total earning assets, $5,905,000. Total deposits receded $8,436,000, with the member banks' reserve credits declining $9,061,000. Federal reserve note circulation receded $7,633,000. The ratio of total reserves to deposit and federal reserve note liabilities combined was 87.2, compared with 87.8 per cent in the preceding week.

The Chicago Federal Reserve bank report shows gold and total reserves expanded $11,107,000 and $12,028,000 respectively. Loans increased $38,000, while bills bought and total bills declined $1,814,000 and $1,776,000 respectively. Total earning assets increased $1,771,000. Total deposits expanded $16,212,000, with the member banks' reserve credits increasing $17,709,000. Federal reserve note circulation increased $469,000. The ratio of total reserves to deposits and federal reserve note liabilities combined was 88.5, compared with 88.9 per cent in the preceding week.

FINANCIAL NOTES

It was reported in the financial district yesterday that final shares of stock taken over by the bankers who financed Allan A. Ryan had been disposed of by them. The report was not confirmed by the bankers. The latest and final sale is reported to have been the shares of the Stromberg Carburetor company, which were bid in at the auction sale of the Ryan assets at 42¼ per share. With such a block of stock hanging over, it remained in the doldrums for many weeks, but suddenly it became active in the last few days and advanced today to $54 per share, a net gain for the day of 5½ points.

After a period of depression in the Standard Oil and other petroleum stocks the issues again attracted attention today because of their sharp advance. The speculative element in Wall street also looks for a rebound in crude prices in the autumn. This, it is said, is "being discounted" in the stock market, and to help the movement many rumors are being circulated of pending stock dividends in the Standard group, together with plans of some companies to split up the capital stock into smaller units.

A total of thirty-three individual stocks established new high records for the year to date in today's market. The list included a number of railroad issues. The stocks which made new records included Public Service of New Jersey, Columbia Gas and Electric, Advance Rumely, Allied Chemical, American Car and Foundry preferred, American Druggist, American Locomotive preferred, American Smelters A, American Sugar, American Waterworks, Atchison preferred, J. I. Case Threshing Machine common and preferred, Chicago and Northwestern, Electric Storage Battery, General American Tank preferred, International Paper, Lehigh Valley, National Enameling and Stamping, New Orleans Texas and Mexican, North American, Northern Pacific, Nova Scotia Steel, Otis Elevator, Pacific Gas and Electric, Pennsylvania, Peoples Gas of Chicago, Philadelphia company, Postum Cereal, Skelly Oil, Stromberg Carburetor, Texas Gulf Sulphur, Union Bag and Paper, United Drug, United States Industrial Alcohol, and Wright Aeroplane.

The activity of American Telephone and Telegraph was generally attributed to the statement by the company that it would handle its $35,000,000 note maturity on Oct. 1 without any new financing. This was construed in Wall street as further evidence of the company's claim as to a strong cash position.

The New Orleans Railway and Light company property, complete, was sold yesterday for $14,500,000 at public auction. G. H. Bahl of the Chase National Bank of New York was the sole bidder, acting for the reorganization committee. He deposited a certified check for $500,000 as the requisite 3 per cent of the sale. Immediately after Charles K. Beekman of New York bid $620,000 for the $958,000 in 4½ per cent bonds and got them, as the sole bidder.

Secretary Mellon announced that the total amount of exchanges of 4¾ per cent Victory notes for the new 4¾ per cent treasury notes, dated Aug. 1, 1922, due Sept. 15, 1926, was $141,515,700. This makes the aggregate allotments on the primary offering, amounting to $345,425,000, the details of which have already been announced.

RAILROAD NOTES

Absolute control of the Lake Erie and Western railroad by the New York, Chicago and St. Louis railroad, otherwise known as Nickel Plate, was authorized by the commission, for financing, operating and all other purposes in which the corporate powers of the Lake Erie and Western are not required by the law to be exercised until the end of 1926. This was granted upon the application of the two companies. For operating purposes, therefore, the Lake Erie and Western disappears and only the Nickel Plate will come into contact with shippers, bankers, and sellers of materials and supplies.

Approval was asked by the Pennsylvania railroad for a series of ninety-nine year leases which the system intends to take upon a number of subsidiary corporations now being operated as a part of its main line. All the leased properties are owned and controlled by the Pennsylvania, but the lease arrangement would facilitate their handling, the application explained. Among the companies for which leases were submitted were the Wheeling Terminal railroad, the Indianapolis and Frankfort, Ohio Connecting Railway company, South Chicago and Southern, and the Cleveland, Akron and Cincinnati.

An order was made by the commission that Detroit be classified in railroad schedules in the standard eastern time zone. The commission said that, although the state of Michigan generally was in the central time belt the people of Detroit had shown a permanent preference for keeping the earlier time. The order affects only the schedule on which railroads operate.

The American Locomotive company has received an order from the Union Pacific system for fifty-five mountain type locomotives of 345,000 pounds each and ten Mallett type locomotives of 495,000 pounds each. The Erie railroad has placed an order for thirty Mikado type locomotives with the Baldwin Locomotive works.

NEW YORK.—The strike against the Monarch Dress company, the large jobbing house, has been settled. The company pays a fine of $1,500 to the union and deposits $5,000 as a guarantee that it will live up to the terms of the collective agreement between the Wholesale Dress Manufacturers' association and the Dress and Waist Makers' joint board.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—After investigating the matter, a committee of business men have reported to Secretary of Commerce Hoover against the advisability of American firms establishing branch factories in Germany. Among the reasons offered are the shortage of raw materials, fuel and skilled labor and the German license and export duties system.

LAWRENCE, Mass.—The Pacific mills have promised to renew the old wage scale on Oct. 1, unorganized textile workers are told by the chairmen of the citizens' state committee, who urges them to return to work. Operatives have been on strike since the 20 per cent wage reduction took place in March.

PARIS.—Aggregate purchases of small stores, whose representatives are here selecting models for the first time, will, it is believed, make up any loss of business the French fashion houses may lose this season through the conservative buying of large American stores.

NEW YORK.—Theodore L. Blanke is here to take charge of the installing of a standardized accounting system for members of the National Retail Dry Goods association.

CHICAGO.—An increasing number of order cancellations from strike areas is reported by work glove manufacturers. Both miners and railroaders, it is pointed out, are large users of work gloves.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass.—Absence of any great demand has weakened prices for extra staple cotton used in print cloth manufacturing. Odd lots are sold at well under open quotations. The new crop cotton is cheaper than the old.

OTTAWA.—The Irish political situation has brought flax and linen factors here for the purpose of investigating flax raising in the eastern provinces. They say if farmers are willing to cultivate flax they will send numbers of experts to aid them.

NEW YORK.—Pongee silk prices stiffened again today to between 80c and 81c a pound. The movement is attributed to the scarcity.

LONDON.—Carl Brenner of Brenner Brothers, the New York fur house, has returned from Peshawur, India, with a report that furs in the Indian primary market are 20 per cent higher than here. He had been induced to go thee by reports of bargain prices for Persian lamb and Afghanistan fox.

NEW YORK.—A union chief admits that the Dress and Waist Makers' joint board is actively preparing for a general strike at the expiration of the present collective agreement on Jan. 31 next. The union will demand the week-work system and anticipates a hard fight. A half million dollar fund is being raised.

NEW YORK.—The gray goods market responded to the upturn in raw cotton quotations today with a ⅛c advance in most print cloth quotations. There was plenty of bidding at yesterday's figures, but mills were generally firm in their new quotations. The following are the present rates on representative constructions: 38½ inch, 64x60, 5.35 yards to the pound, 8⅝c; 39 inch, 68x72, 4.75 yards to the pound, 9⅝c; 72x76, 4.25 yards to the pound, 11¼c; 80x80, 4.0 yards to the pound, 12c.

NEW YORK.—Dullness still continues in the local burlap market.

DRY GOODS MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—Cotton goods steady, with trading quiet. Yarns barely steady. Soft finishes in wool goods sold well for fall. Silks steady, with raw silk slightly easier. Burlaps a shade easier on quiet trading. Jobbers did steady trade in small lots.

THE BONDS are a direct first mortgage on land and 13-story building to be erected at the Southwest corner of Franklin and Washington Streets, Chicago. The earnings of this building are assured during the entire life of the loan as the building has been leased to the Illinois Bell Telephone Company for a period of twenty-five years at a fixed annual rental more than sufficient to meet interest and principal amortization charges of the bond issue. The Illinois Bell Telephone Company is controlled by the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, which is one of the largest corporations in the United States. The bonds are the obligation of a man of recognized ability and responsibility.

The New York Times.

New York, Aug. 17.—[Special.]—In the matter of the conference between railway managers and brotherhood leaders, not the slightest trustworthy intimation as to the drift of negotiations came to hand before the close of business. It was not definitely known even what proposals would be made from the labor side.

Continued strength of the stock market, therefore, must have indicated financial confidence in an early settlement of the railway strike on the best terms obtainable, rather than knowledge of the outcome at the conference itself. That confidence, however, which at first had its basis in general principles, has in the last few days been supported by plain evidence of strong public sentiment throughout the country against the continuance of the railway strike.

Prices Reflect Attitude.

The stock market was quick to recognize this attitude of the public, even when New York community did not seem to realize it at all at the beginning of the week.

Today's advance was irregular but in almost all stocks upward, the railways shares at one time ranging ⅝ to 3 points above Wednesday's final prices, though with partial reaction later. At the day's highest prices, many of the more important railway shares sold 2 to 4 points above the lower prices reached in the brief decline of Monday. The bond market was stronger for domestic loans and, as it happened, even the wheat and cotton markets made direct recovery. There can be no doubt that these as well as the financial markets have been under the influence of the lately disturbing home and foreign complications.

Mark Tumbles to 8½.

Nothing in the day's financial markets threw any light on the probable outcome of the extraordinary deadlock over German reparations payment. The foreign exchange market was a confusing witness. German marks, whose previous low record price was Tuesday's 9⅝ one hundredths of a cent, went to 8½ today. At today's lowest price, the dollar would have exchanged for 1,176 marks.

While the mark's fall today might perhaps have been ascribed to belief that no compromise in the reparations matter was expected, French and Belgian exchange recovered and sterling went nearly 2 cents above Wednesday's final rate. Its high rate of $4.49⅝ was above the best figure of any week this year except that in which, during the early part of June, it went to $4.51¼.

Wanted—A Sales Manager

An investment bond house, participating in the leading syndicates and handling only the highest grade municipal, corporation and public utility bonds, is looking for a man to take charge of its sales force, which is now being reorganized.

The applicant should have a successful record as a sales manager or a salesman of high grade securities and should be able to reorganize and direct a force of about twenty salesmen.

He will be backed by ample capital, given every possible co-operation and satisfactory remuneration.

You are invited to write us in strictest confidence, giving details as to your experience, present connections, remuneration expected, etc.

Laid the Foundation of a Fortune With a $5 Bill

¶ Hazlitt never gambled, yet got into the most fascinating and biggest business in America. A 66 billion dollar industry, ages-old, secure, unchanging, perpetual and highly profitable. ¶ How he did this with such small means, without borrowing, without stinting or drudging, and still multiplying that first $5 is interestingly told by facts and figures in our recent booklet, "BILL'S WAY WON." ¶ Unless you want to let your hard-earned dollars go to naught you had better send for this booklet immediately.

CLOTHING, FURS, ETC.

BUY FURS ON THE BEDAL PLAN. In selecting a fur garment the quality of the skins and the materials used in its production is of most importance; a cheap fur coat does not last; you do not save when you buy for less money because the garment does not last. Bedal's furs are of the highest quality, both as to quality of skins and excellent workmanship; the price is no higher than is consistent with good merchandise and the Bedal Plan of payments enables you to wear your furs after making the initial payment, which need not be made until Nov. 1. Select your coat now during August sales and have it when you want it. $5.00 deposit will hold any garment. BEDAL'S, Inc., 220 S. State, 2d floor. Consumers Bldg.

ADILLAC'S SPECIALS

CADILLAC 8, TYPE 61, SUBURBAN. This is our latest series 7 passenger Sedan; has been used only 9,216 miles, and is in brand new condition throughout. We have just refinished it in Cadillac Green with cream yellow wheels. The blue velour upholstery is in perfect condition and the car is equipped with extras such as spotlight, spring bumper, 5 good cord tires, and spare and cover. This car carries our new car warranty. A considerable saving is possible at our special price of $3,900.

WINTON SIX TOURING, 1919 MODEL. 7 pass. The top, upholstery, paint, and general condition of this car are good. Equipped with 5 good cord tires and many extras. We don't believe a better Winton bargain than this one has ever been offered and the price is really incomparable. Ridiculously low priced at $650.

CADILLAC 8, TYPE 59, PHAETON. This is our popular 4 passenger open car, which we have just refinished, renickeled, and thoroughly rebuilt in our shops. Is like new in appearance and will be sold with our new car warranty. Painted in a rich Maroon color with red striping, red wheels, and radiator shell; headlights and hub caps are entirely nickeled and the car is equipped with 5 new Cord tires, cover, bumper, seat covers, and other extras. This is our special offering for this week and a value that we believe you cannot duplicate anywhere from the standpoint of quality, performance or price. Act quickly, as the price is low at $2,100.

COLUMBIA 1920 TOURING CAR, 5 PASS., 6 CYL. The general condition of this car is good; tires, motor, and upholstery good; paint fair. An economical, light, serviceable little car with the dependable Continental 6 cylinder engine, which in the 6 cylinder field ranks very high. A reliable car priced very low at $600.

CADILLAC 8, TYPE 55, VICTORIA COUPE. This is our standard 4 passenger inclosed car and is coming into our hands in most excellent condition. Mechanically it is very good. Has 5 excellent tires and the upholstery and finish are in good condition. To any one looking for a high grade 4 passenger inclosed car that can be bought with a moderate sum and that is ideal for business or personal use would suggest immediate inspection. Price $875.

CADILLAC 8, TYPE 59, LIMOUSINE. This is our standard 7 passenger Cadillac Limousine which is very popular because of its extreme roominess. We have just refinished it in Cadillac Blue and done all work necessary in our shops to put this car in up to the minute mechanical condition. This car is equipped with 5 new Woodbury Cord tires, spring bumper, Alemite greasing system, and a very nice set of curtains for the chauffeur's compartment, which inclose it tightly for stormy weather. The gray velour upholstery is in excellent condition, and looks as good as new. At the price it represents a saving of about $1,900 from the original cost. Offered for today at $3,000.

CADILLAC 8, TYPE 59, 7 PASS., TOURING. This is our large, roomy touring car and so popular because of its spaciousness and its ability to accommodate 7 full sized passengers. Just refinished in Cadillac Green. Equipped with 5 good Cord tires, etc. All work has been done in our shops, and the car is in up to the minute mechanical shape. This car carries our new car warranty and is an incomparable value at $2,000.

PACKARD

FRANKLIN TOURING, SERIES 8. This is a car which will appeal particularly to the man who is interested in economical transportation. The car mechanically is in good serviceable condition. Paint, top and tires are first-class. We advise an early inspection, as the price is only $250.

PEERLESS COUPE, LATE 1921 MODEL. This car has hardly been used and is like new throughout. The upholstery is dark green broadcloth, which harmonizes perfectly with the green body and wheels. Most completely equipped, with sun visor, motometer, bumper, spare tire and cover, etc. We believe this car to be equal to new in every respect and our price offers a substantial saving at $2,000.

STUTZ SPORT, 1917 MODEL. Here is a very desirable car at an exceptionally low price. We have carefully inspected the motor and made all necessary adjustments. It is newly painted in Dark Maroon, equipped with Westinghouse shock absorbers, practically new winter sides, excellent cord tires, etc. Top and upholstery look like new. Special at $600.

PACKARD TWIN SIX CHUMMY ROADSTER, 1918 MODEL. Car has just been received from our Repair Shop, where it was given a thorough overhauling. Paint, top and upholstery are in first-class condition, and the car is ready to put into immediate active service. This model is very popular because of its ease of handling in heavy traffic, and, still affording ample room for 4 passengers. It is very rarely that we have cars of this type for sale and we advise an early inspection by interested parties; $1,750.

PACKARD TWIN SIX LIMOUSINE, MODEL 2-35. This is a special custom built job by C. P. Kimball & Co. of Chicago. The body is an exceptionally large roomy 7 passenger type, is upholstered in imported whipcord and is of very distinctive appearance. The car mechanically is in the best of condition and has just been refinished in Rich Green. This is an exceptional value at $2,250.

PACKARD TWIN SIX TOURING CAR. This is a duplicate of the car we are selling today. It is exceptionally well equipped as to tires, will carry the new car Packard warranty and service, and looks like a new car throughout. At our price it offers the purchaser a considerable saving over the new car. $2,750.

3 Bargains
AT THE Peerless Motor Car Co.
OF ILLINOIS.

HAYNES SEDAN, MODEL 47, 1921. This standard Haynes 7 passenger sedan is one that is above the average in condition. It is painted a dark blue and is equipped with an excellent set of cord tires, 1 extra, bumper, clock, and many other extras. Mechanically it is exceptionally fine. In order to avail yourself of a bargain in a late model Haynes sedan your immediate action will be necessary. We have taken into consideration the recent price reduction on the prices of new Haynes cars and have priced this car way below the market value to move it. Do not put off seeing and riding in it, if interested. Special for this sale, $1,350.

PEERLESS SEDAN, 1921. This beautiful high grade 7 passenger enclosed Peerless car has just been received from our Shop and Refinishing Department, in such condition that it would be hard to distinguish from new. It is a special job in many ways, with plenty of extra equipment such as wire wheels, nickeled lamps, bumpers front and rear, etc. This is the first sedan of this series that we have ever had to offer and believe that if you could see this automobile and ride in it you would not hesitate in making a decision that would make you the proud owner of a car, the equal of which we do not believe you can duplicate anywhere, particularly at the price we are asking for this one. In detail, appointments and mechanical condition, it cannot be classed as the ordinary used car. Price, $2,000.

PEERLESS SPORT, 1919. This is our standard 4 passenger, 4 door Sport car and was delivered very late in the year of 1919. In fact, it is a car that is above the average in every respect. The paint, which is a Dark Green, is in fair condition and it is completely equipped with many extras, such as motometer, nickeled headlamps, snubbers, and many other extras. The Cord tires show practically no wear. This particular automobile has class and distinction and is one that this direct branch of the Peerless Motor Car Company will recommend. To interested parties would suggest an inspection of this car immediately. We are pricing it way below the market value and it will undoubtedly be sold to the first person who sees it. Special for this sale, $750.

Locomobile

LOCOMOBILE—Series 5, 7 passenger limousine, driven 12,000 miles. You will think this a new car, as it has been repainted, all new tires installed, and absolutely no wear is discernible either inside or out on this luxurious car, which has just been turned in by one of Chicago's leading families. Priced at 50% savings, $5,000.

LOCOMOBILE—1922 Type Sportif; delivered in January of this year, this car has had practically no use. The color is dark blue, the 6 tires are like new. The equipment includes special imported headlamps and is otherwise complete to the slightest detail; priced at a very attractive figure, $5,500.

PIERCE ARROW—1920, dual valve, 7 passenger sedan. This car is in excellent condition throughout and looks as it did when new, with its new paint, tires, etc.; equipment is complete and includes Westinghouse air springs; a $8,500 car for $4,000.

MERCER—1921, 4 passenger sport; $1,700 has just been spent on this car, rebuilding chassis, repainting car, installing spare wheels on sides of car, all new Woodbury cords, tonneau windshield, trunk rack, special head and cowl lamps, individual steps, etc.; priced at $2,200.

DANIELS—1920, 7 passenger touring car, which has had little use. The paint, tires and other equipment on this beautiful and smart car are all in excellent condition. The mechanical condition is unquestionable, as we have just gone over the entire car, leaving it as good as new; a $5,500 car for $1,750.

Cadillac Limousine, Type 59.
This car, a Type 59-M series, was delivered by us new on Sept. 20, 1920. It has been driven only 11,600 miles, has had excellent care, and is for sale only on account of the death of the owner. It is upholstered in gray striped mohair, and the original finish; dark blue body, with black fenders, hood, radiator, etc.; is in excellent condition. The tires are good and its equipment includes a Biflex bumper, heater, motometer, extra tire, and tire cover. The driver's compartment of this car has roof over it, but is not inclosed. From a service point of view the car is as good as new, and if given a coat of varnish would look like a brand new automobile. Price $2,750.

Gossoon Wins First Lipton Cup Races—Fire Wipes Out Towns—"Heart Healer" Gets Trial Continued

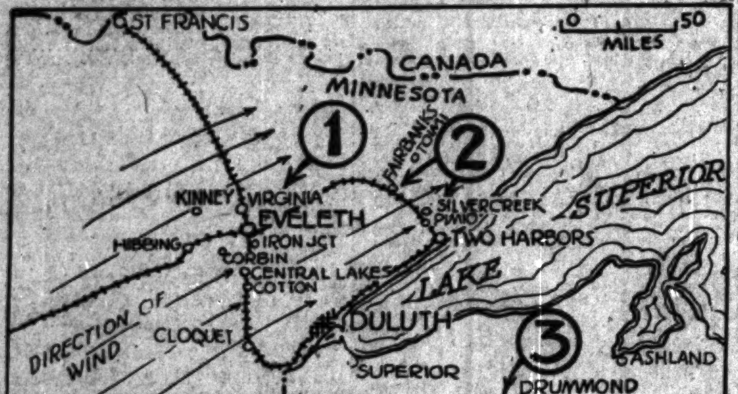
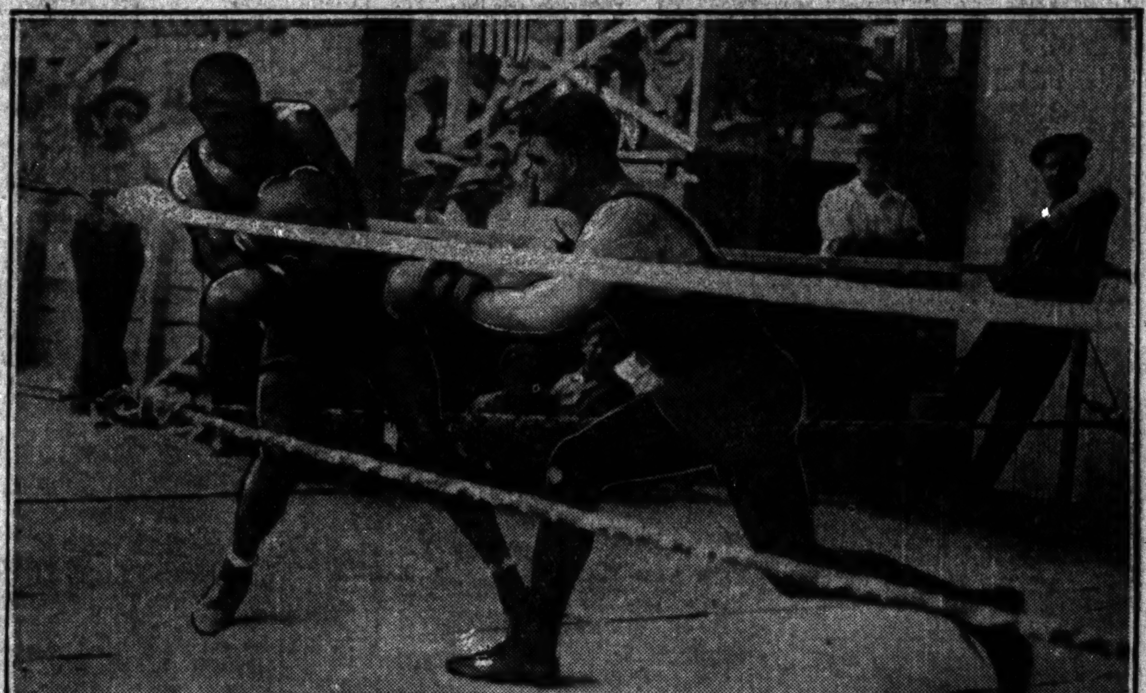
WINNING THE LIPTON CUP RACES. Photo shows Gossoon in the lead, Yank trailing, and Sari third. This is the way they finished the classic yachting race which was run over triangular course in Belmont harbor. It was one of the series.



MINNESOTA FIRE AREA. Figure (1) shows town of Eveleth, where 1,000 men are fighting forest fire; (2) shows Lake county settlements destroyed; (3) shows Drummond, where refugees are fleeing.



GETTING IN CONDITION TO MEET DEMPSEY. As soon as Bill Brennan returned yesterday from an exhibition in Anderson, Ind., he went into training with his corps of boxers. Photo shows him entertaining sparring partner at Michigan City.

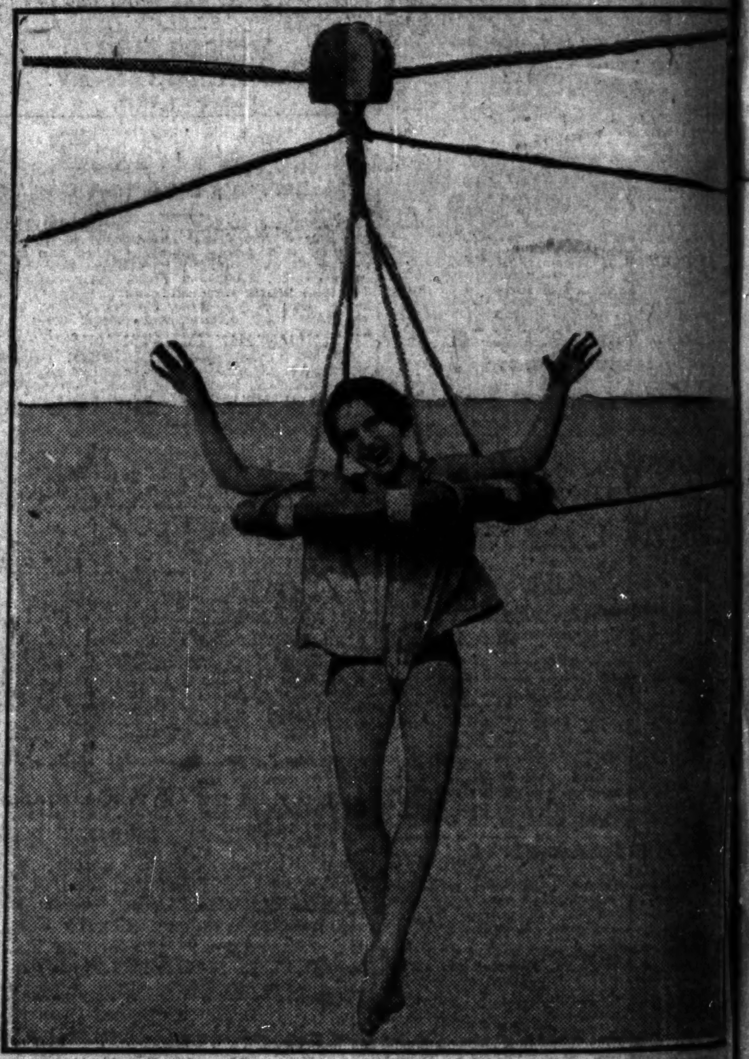
CALLS OUT TROOPS. Gov. J. A. O. Preus of Minnesota is in charge of battle against forest fires.

[Hoffman Photo.]

SHE CHANGED HER MIND. Mrs. Ida Tittman, 608 Belden avenue, was despondent because her husband told her to go to work. She dived into the lagoon, then swam to shore.

[Keystone Photo.]

NAMED IN SUIT. Anastasia Riley, formerly of the Follies, figures in Leschin case.



[TRIBUNE Photo.]

ONE WAY TO SAVE A LIFE. Eleanor Eberle is shown being rescued by coast guards using a breeches buoy in a demonstration staged at Pageant of Progress.
